MRS. HARTLEY TEETOR
formerly Miss Elizabeth Sinclair

Our reporters are kept busy this month—"the month of brides"—keeping track of all the pretty weddings which have taken place and which are to take place the remainder of the month. Following is a report of a few which have taken place the past week.

A very lovely wedding took place Saturday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock in the Highland Park Presbyterian church amid clusters of palms and white peonies, when Elizabeth Frances Sinclair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brockway Sinclair, was married to Mr. Hartley Teetor. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. S. Selden of the Presbyterian church of Ravenswood assisted by the Rev. Frank Pitt. The bride was very pretty in a gown of white taffeta and a tulle cap of rose point lace with lilies-of-the-valley, formed the veil and she carried a shower bouquet of small roses with lilies-of-the-valley. The maid of honor Miss Ruth Sinclair, wore a tea rose gown of georgette with shoes to match. The bridesmaids, Miss Gertrude MacIntyre, Miss Ruth Schlenker and Miss Harriet Borman wore georgette gowns of pastel shades of blue, green, orchid and blue with shoes to match all carrying bouquets of spring flowers which were made specially for each individual costume. All hats of the bridal party were of horse hair trimmed with velvet ribbon. Mr. Benjamin Smith of Kansas City served as best man, while Jack Cook, of San Diego, Macy and Herman Teetor and Rufus Austin of Hagerstown, Indiana, acted as ushers. A reception for just the immediate families followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on 108 Dale avenue. The cake used was of a historical interest in that it was used fifty-five years ago at the wedding of the bride's grandmother and grandfather. Mr. and Mrs. Teetor will be at home September first at Hagerstown, Indian after a honeymoon trip to Honolulu.

Amid beautiful ferns, palms, peonies and streamers of pink and white ribbon Miss Lillian Anna Howe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howe, became the bride of Mr. Maurice I. Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Dunn of S. Green Bay road, on Saturday evening, June 25 at eight o'clock in St. Johns Evangelical church. The Rev. Roth performed the ceremony. The bride was very sweet in a gown of white georgette over white satin and her tulle veil which was formed with a lace coronet and orange blossoms draped most becomingly was very effective. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, lilies-of-the-valley and white sweet peas. Her bridesmaid, Miss Evelyn Weston of Elburn, Ill., wore a little shell pink frock of georgette and carried an arm bouquet of tea roses and pink sweet peas, while Mr. Horace Grabbe of Mundelein, Ill., served Mr. Dunn as best man. The ushers were George Howe, a brother of the bride, and Ralph Dunn, a brother of the groom. During the services Miss Catherine Zimmer sang beautifully "At Dawning" and later the choir of the church (of which Miss Howe is a member) sang "O Perfect Love". Mrs. Roth played the wedding march. A reception to seventy-five guests followed the ceremony at the Masonic Temple where the dining room was prettily decorated in pink and white. The table had a large wedding cake and a two cuning dolls dressed as a bride and bridesmaid, the gift of a dear friend.

After a trip to the Wisconsin Dells Mr. and Mrs. Dunn will be at home after July 5th at 752 Ridgewood drive.

Brigadier General and Mrs. Michael Lenihan of Fort Sheridan announce the marriage of their daughter Catherine to Lieutenant Paul Halloran, of the United States navy, which took place Saturday at high noon. The ceremony was an impressive one with the military and navel uniforms giving it a martial air and bright note of color. The service having been read by Monsignor Kelly at the Hines Memorial chapel at Mundelein, Ill. After the services the wedding party and guests motored back to the Post where a reception was held. Miss Lenihan wore ivory white satin trimmed with chantilly lace, and her tulle veil fell from a cap of rose point lace. Her sister, Mrs. Douglas Green of Camp Mead, Md., was the only attendant. She wore a gown of white lace with a large white lace hat. Lieutenant Commander Bruno of Great Lakes acted as best man. Lieutenant and Mrs. Halloran will leave next week for Haiti, where they will be stationed.

A very pretty little party took place on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Morris Kurtzon when her little daughter Bernice proved herself a charming little hostess to twenty guests. The occasion was in celebration of her ninth birthday anniversary. All sorts of games were played and darling little prizes were given each child present. The guests included Jean and Doris Foreman, Geraldine Kumstead, Carroll Bennett, Alice Koolish, Betty Stein, Betty Browning, Cecilia Moore, Betty Rogers, Diana Ewell, Elizabeth Marvin, Pearly Cohen, Maynard and Bennett Tow, Eleanor Koppick and Martha Clark.

A beautiful lawn party was held at the home of Miss Evelyn Pence at the Green Tree Inn, Everett, on Friday evening, June 24 celebrating her sixteenth birthday. Under the soft glow of Japanese lanterns the young people danced and played games. At the end of the evening delicious refreshments were served. Among the thirty-six guests present were the Misses Virginia Ward, Alice Olson, Elise Oberaugh, Ruth Meyer, Louise Kersten, Hazel Easton, Clara Atkin, Rosetta Taylor, Clarice Jurhend, Mae Farrant, Mildred Crain, Elizabeth Kostial, Dorothy Yore, Verday Varner and Eva Cooksey. BIG DANCE AT SUNSET PARK SATURDAY NIGHT

The weekly dances held every Saturday night at Sunset Park by the Highland Park Social club are becoming very popular with the dance-lovers of Highland Park. The outdoor pavilion is in wonderful shape for dancing. The floor is being kept up so it is as smooth as glass. Next Saturday the Highland Park Social club introduces at Sunset Park Herbie Atkinson and his band. This orchestra is well known throughout the North Shore. They play regularly at the Glen Flora Country club and Masonic hall in Waukegan. Playing with Herbie Atkinson are Ewe Collins from Lake Forest University at the saxophone, one of the best on the North Shore. Earl Gotz was formerly with Art Lissumme at the Valencia. Carl Pampeschulte at the banjo was with a famous Cleveland orchestra. Erickson, who plays the drums also sings vocal choruses. The band together is sure to make a hit with the dancing public of Highland Park. Everybody is welcome.
