

Thank You

The volume of business done since moving in Saturday, June 18, 1927, has exceeded our wildest expectations.

This column is to be devoted entirely to music and will appear in this same position in the Highland Park Press each week from now on.

We will help you to put the best of music in your home and will also enumerate Wurlitzer's latest creations and special sales, which are without equal in the world.

This community is to be congratulated on the wonderful music appreciation they possess and we will in this column endeavor if possible to help each and everyone acquire a greater knowledge of the better music.

The Rudolph Wurlitzer Co. greatly appreciates the tremendous amount of business we have done in this community and we have opened this store in order to better serve you.

Come in and ask for a free demonstration of "The Treasure Chest," the expression grand piano that plays for you. This is the latest and greatest offer ever given to the public by our company.

Before leaving on your vacation trip come in and hear our marvelous portable radios, The Traveler and The Hyatt.

Price $65.00 and $85.00

We also offer the new Orthophonic portable phonograph, which we have just received from the Victor Co. This is a marvelous machine and will surprise you with its clear tone and wonderful volume.

MUSICAL MASTERPIECES

Your Orthophonic Album is not complete without the beautiful Beethoven Symphony No. 5 "Memorial Edition," played by the famous Royal Albert Hall orchestra and recorded in Europe (Orthophonic Recording).

Come in and look over our McKinley catalogue of sheet music, comprising over 1500 of the world's favorite numbers and selling for only 15 cents each.
