Christ church, Winnetka, was the setting for the wedding last Wednesday evening of Miss Georgine Raithel, daughter of Mrs. George William Raithel of 249 Mary street, Glencoe, to Frank Campbell Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark C. Reed of Shelton and Seattle, Washington. Dr. Hubert Carleton of St. Augustine's church, Wilmette, read the service. Otto Stielmann of Chicago, an uncle of the bride, gave her away. The service was followed by a small reception for the bridal party and immediate families, given at the Glencoe home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. Sawyer Smith.

The bridal gown of white satin was trimmed with princess lace and pearls. A long tulle veil fell from the cap head-dress. The bride carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The attendants' gowns were made in bouffant style, long in the back and short in front. They carried shower bouquets of early summer flowers, larkspur, delphinium, and stock. Mrs. E. Sawyer Smith, as her sister's matron of honor, wore green tulle and taffeta. Two bridesmaids' gowns were of two shades of green chiffon, and two of two shades of rose chiffon. The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Moore, Miss Barbara Cox, Miss Arlene Fischer, and Mrs. Willson Stielmann, all of Chicago.

William Rufus Abbott of Chicago was best man for Mr. Reed, and the ushers were Sol Reed of Washington, a brother of the groom, E. Sawyer Smith of Glencoe, John Dewey of Chicago, and Willson Stielmann also of Chicago.

The mothers of both the bride and groom wore shoulder bouquets of orchids and lilies of the valley. The parents of the groom and his younger brother, William, came from Washington for the wedding.

Miss Raithel was graduated only last week from Northwestern university, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Mr. Reed is a University of Washington man and a member of Psi Upsilon.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed sail July 2, from New York, for a honeymoon in Europe. They expect to return in the fall and will probably make their home in the west.

Miss Calla Peterson, daughter of Mrs. Anna Peterson of Winnetka, was married to Leonard Matson of Chicago Friday evening, June 24, at 8 o'clock. The service was read by the Rev. Mr. Nelson of Chicago, at the home of Miss Caroline Eckstrom, 888 Oak street, Winnetka. The living room was beautifully decorated with vines, greens, peonies, and roses.

The bride wore a simple white dress and bridal veil. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The bride's cousin, Miss Edith Horning, daughter of Dr. W. H. Horning of Chicago, served as bridesmaid. She was dressed in pink and carried pink roses.

The groom's parents and a number of other relatives drove from Minnesota to attend the wedding. The young couple will make their home in Rogers Park.

Gowned in the traditional white, satin, Miss Helen Louise Mearns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mearns of 51 Warwick road, Kenilworth, was married Wednesday evening to Wallace Whitmore Weld, son of the Herbert Whitmore Welds of 315 Sunset road, Winnetka. The service was read at 8:30 at the Kenilworth Union church by Dr. Herbert Willett, pastor of the church. Following the service, Mr. and Mrs. Mearns held a reception at their home.

The satin-bridal gown was made in bouffant style, with tight bodice and full skirt and was embroidered in pearls. The tulle veil was fashioned with orange blossoms. The bride carried lilies of the valley, orchids, and white sweet peas.

Miss Ruth Mearns, who was maid of honor for her sister, wore green, and the bridesmaids were in other pastel shades. Miss Barbara Mearns and Miss Helen Lane, of Evanston, wore blue, and Miss Frances Weld of Winnetka and Miss Lucille King of Chicago, wore peach. The attendants' gowns were made of taffeta and tulle, in bouffant style. The bridesmaids carried pink roses and delphinium, and the maid of honor carried yellow roses and delphinium.

Roger Low of Wilmette served Mr. Weld as best man, and the ushers were Stanley and Herbert Weld of Winnetka, Raymond Roth of Wilmette, and Hubert Sargent of Galesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Weld are taking a wedding trip through Canada and the East, and will be home after August first at 810 Forest avenue, Evanston.

One of the most attractive weddings of the season was solemnized in the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wadhams Penfield on Greenleaf avenue, Glencoe, Saturday evening, June 25, at 8:30 o'clock, the Rev. Douglas Cornell officiating.

The romance begun in Cairo, Egypt in the early spring, culminated in the marriage of Miss Evelyn Pardee Woods, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Penfield, to I. Roy Martin of Cleveland, Ohio, before a gathering of old friends and relatives.

The far end of the drawing room was banked with palms and woodwards ferns, and the mantel was exquisite with large vases of Pernet and Premier roses, arranged with blue larkspur and trailing white clematis, behind which white candles threw their reflection in a tall mirror.

The wedding party consisted of Mrs. Calvin Smith (Miss Jeanette Reynolds) of Chicago, as matron of honor, in a French pink chiffon gown; Miss Elizabeth Hilton of Chicago, in orchid chiffon; Russell Swiler of Cleveland, Ohio, and Robert Mann of Wilmette. The bride's attendants carried shower bouquets of lavender sweet peas, yellow daisies, pink cornflowers and larkspur.

The bride was gowned in ivory satin, with overdress of chiffon trimmed with rose-point lace, and wore a three-tier ivory tulle wedding-veil, which repeated the seed pearl girde in an exquisitely simple bandeau of pearls around the head. Her shower bouquet was of gardenias and valley lilies. Harold E. Hammond of Chicago played the Mendelssohn "Wedding March," and improvised during the arrival of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be at home after September 1, at 13805 Shaker boulevard, Cleveland, Ohio.

In a quiet ceremony, attended only by the two families, Miss Cathryn Hoest, daughter of the Carl A. E. Hoests of 1147 Ashbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, and Walter S. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wood of Chicago, were married June 24. Dr. Barnum of the Rogers Park Methodist church read the service at six in the evening, in the Sheridan room at the Edgewater Beach hotel. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hoest entertained at dinner, in the Marine dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood have gone to the Dells of Wisconsin for their wedding trip, and will be home next week in Rogers Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Boardman, 185 Washington street, Glencoe, left on Wednesday, May 25, to spend the summer at their ranch, the IXL, near Dayton, Wyo. Mr. Boardman recently purchased the famous IXL, which is what the cowboys call a "dude" ranch, because it takes paying guests. The ranch is situated in historical territory, being close to the place where Custer and his men were massacred and near Medicine Wheel, Devil's Tower, Wagon Box Fight, and others.

Another European traveler, leaving Kenilworth this week to enjoy three months of foreign novelties, is Mrs. Edmond Stevens, who will be a member of Mrs. Farwell's beautifully arranged party in which Mrs. B. C. Hawkes, 157 Kenilworth avenue is also a participant.

Mrs. Harry J. Luebke and her daughter, Miss Laura Luebke, of 328 Hazel avenue, Glencoe, entertained about two hundred friends, many of them mothers and daughters, at a tea in their garden Tuesday afternoon. Miss Laura Luebke is leaving to spend a month at camp at Ward, Colo., with several other Glencoe girls. Miss Emelyn Waltz is first councilor at the camp.

Mrs. John W. Warner of Washington and her son arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Budd, 594 Glencoe road, Glencoe, Friday, June 30, for a month's visit.

Miss Eliza Rittenhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wayne Rittenhouse of Bourbon, Ind., became the bride of Robert H. Wienecke, son of Henry C. Wienecke of Glencoe, on Thursday, June 23, at 8:30 o'clock. The Rev. Douglas H. Cornell performed the ceremony, which was held in the Glencoe Union church. A reception followed, held at the North Shore hotel.

The bride's gown of white satin was made with long sleeves and bouffant skirt. Chantilly lace trimmed the gown and formed the high crown of the veil. The veil was made full length of tulle and rose leaves and orange blossoms trimmed the cap. White sweet peas and valley lilies formed the bouquet.

Miss Mildred Anderson of Hammond was maid of honor. She wore peach organdie made in bouffant style over peach satin, and carried a shower bouquet of peach roses. Miss Anne Edwards of Chicago, Miss Lydia Sprenger of Kenilworth, Miss Velma Schaefer of Bourbon, and Miss Ethel Arison of Evanston, attended the bride. Their organdie dresses were in rainbow colors, pink, blue, green, and orchid, made in the same bouffant style over white satin. They carried larkspur and pink roses.

Irwin E. Hazen, Jr., of Chicago, was Mr. Wienecke's best man, and the ushers were Dr. C. William Johnson and George K. Budd of Glencoe, Walter Seidel of Chicago, and Donald McPadden of Peoria. The bride has just received her degree at Northwestern university. Mr. Wienecke was prominent in football at the university, serving as captain in his senior year. The members of the bridal party all attended the university, the bridesmaids having been sorority sisters of the bride, who is a Chi Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. Wienecke left on a motor trip through the west. They will be at home at 680 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, on their return.

A reception was given on Wednesday evening, July 6, at the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church, for the Rev. and Mrs. Harold C. Case. Mr. Case was married on Wednesday, June 29, to Miss Phyllis Kirk, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Kirk, of Winfield, Kan., and he and his bride returned to Glencoe Friday. They are making their home in the new church parsonage at 665 Greenleaf avenue. The program for the evening will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Noble Cain of Evanston. Mrs. Cain is a well known soprano, and she will be accompanied at the piano by her husband. C. B. Watson will act as chairman of the evening.

A kitchen shower was given on Tuesday afternoon, July 5, for the bride, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Fox, 585 Longworth avenue, Glencoe.

Bridal satin with lace outlined in silver, with rhine-stone and pearl embroidery, a long court train, and a tulle veil with a Juliette cap of pearls made the charming wedding costume of Miss Winifred Bililand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Bililand, on the occasion of her marriage Wednesday evening to Hugh Mackellar Robinson, of Chicago. Her bouquet was of valley lilies, sweet peas, and flesh colored orchids.

Water lily green taffeta embroidered in silver fashioned the gown of the matron of honor, Mrs. Harry V. Donaldson; the maid of honor, Miss Virginia Croft of Chicago, wore violet satin embroidered in pastel shades. Orchid satin, lace and silver embroidery composed the frocks of the bridesmaids, Miss Jane Ridgway of Kenilworth, Miss Laura Emily Slosson of Hubbard Woods, Miss Elizabeth Becker of Minneapolis, and Miss Dorothy Shackelford of Frankfort, Ky. The matron and maid of honor carried bouquets of butterfly roses, lavender sweet peas and blue larkspur.

Paul Robinson acted as his brother's best man, and Harry V. Donaldson, Winston Tarbot, Thomas Slack, Kimball Burr and Edwin Shoup, the four latter from Chicago, were ushers.

The Church of the Holy Comforter, where the ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, the Rev. Leland Hobart Danforth officiating, was decorated with ferns, palms, and an arch of flowers in front of the altar. Pale green candles in tall, wrought-iron candlesticks lighted the aisle. The fireplace in the lounge of Indian Hill club, where the reception was held, was banked with palms, ferns, and garden flowers, while baskets of garden flowers were placed about the clubhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have left for Bermuda, where they will remain until the middle of July. They will make their home in Evanston.
