Mrs. Rodney Mason, formerly Miss Elizabeth Louderback.

Amidst ferns and lilies Elizabeth Louderback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Louderback, became the bride of Rodney Starkweather Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eager Mason, on Saturday afternoon, July 9 at four-thirty o'clock at Trinity church the Rev. Christoph Keller officiating. The bride was lovely in a gown of creamy bridal satin, trimmed in pearl bead banding with a court train of satin, carrying a shower bouquet of lilies and baby's breath. Miss Sarah Louderback attended her sister as maid of honor, while the Misses Jane Louderback, Evelyn Oliver and Constance Clemons of Long Island served as bridesmaids. All attendants of the bride wore beige lace and chiffon gowns with large green hats and green shoes, and carried bouquets of pink larkspur and pink gladiolus. The flower girl, little Nancy Robertson of Kansas City, granddaughter of Mrs. L. L. Winters, wore a white georgette dress over a pink slip with little pink bows on the shoulders and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Mr. Mason's brother, Mr. Arnold Mason, served as best man, while Gordon Buchanan, Norman Schumacher, Barrett Mason, Darragh Louderback, Paul Warren and Clyde Lacey acted as ushers. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the brides' parents on Moraine road.

The marriage of Miss Anabelle Marie Marchi, daughter of Mrs. Filomena Marchi of 392 Ravine ave., to Charles Arthur Bertolini of Downers Grove, took place Tuesday morning at nine o'clock at the Immaculate Conception church. The bride's dress was of white satin trimmed with rose-point lace. Her veil, which was four yards long, was of chiffon net embroidered with bridal wreath and for-get-me-nots. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Marchi was attended by her sister Miss Maryana Marchi who wore a gown of shell pink taffeta and a picture hat to match, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and summer flowers, as maid of honor. The four bridesmaids wore frocks of georgette crepe and carried colonial bouquets of contrasting colors. Miss Mona Desmond wore a frock of orchid, Mrs. Corrine Siebert, a sister of the groom, wore apple green, Miss Ruth Spengler wore turquoise blue and Miss Kathryn Lott wore peach. During the services Miss Bertha Weiss of Chicago sang "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond and Gounod's "Ave Maria" with an unutterable sweetness. Her gown was of blue flowered chiffon and she wore a large picture hat to match. Mr. Micheal Lencioni, an uncle of the bride, escorted her to the altar while Mr. Joseph Marchi, a brother, was best man. After a short trip up north Mr. and Mrs. Bertolini will reside in Deerfield.

PRESERVING OF TREES
IN CITY IS URGED

From various sources reports have come lately regarding trees said to be dying in different parts of the city and those who want trees saved in as far as possible urge that something be done to prevent their loss. The most recent report is regarding some trees at Cedar avenue and St. Johns avenue which are said to be in need of resuscitation before it is too late. It is urged that experts be consulted with a view to preserving trees wherever necessary.
