Westmoreland Country club is to be the setting for a charming wedding Saturday evening, July 23. Miss Frances Rising, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Rising of Evanston, is to be the bride and the bridegroom will be Arthur Burnam Durham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Durham of 431 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth. The service will be read at 8:30 o'clock and a reception and dancing will follow the ceremony.

The wedding party will consist of six members, Miss Iska Morgan of Evanston, the maid of honor; Miss Emilie Durham of Kenilworth, the bridegroom's sister, the bridesmaids; the little twin flower girls, Frances and Marian Beeler of Winnetka; Jerry Cope of Champaign, the best man; and Walter Mead of Wisconsin Rapids, the groom's brother-in-law, the usher.

A number of luncheons and showers have been given in Evanston for Miss Rising. Miss Emily Durham will be hostess at a kitchen shower at her home in Kenilworth Wednesday, July 13, in her honor, and the bridal dinner will be given at the Orrington hotel the Friday evening preceding the wedding.

One of the most attractive weddings of the season was solemnized in the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wadhams Penfield of Glencoe Saturday evening, June 25, at 8:30 o'clock, the Rev. Douglas Cornell officiating.

The romance begun in Cairo, Egypt in the early spring, culminated in the marriage of Miss Evelyn Pardee Woods, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Penfield, to I. Roy Martin of Cleveland, Ohio, before a gathering of old friends and relatives.

The far end of the drawing room was banked with palms and woodwardia ferns, and the mantel was exquisite with large vases of Pernet and Premier roses, arranged with blue larkspur and trailing white clematis, behind which white candles threw their reflection in a tall mirror.

The wedding party consisted of Mrs. Calvin Smith (Miss Jeanette Reynolds) of Chicago, as matron of honor in a French pink chiffon gown; Miss Elizabeth Hilton of Chicago, in orchid chiffon; Russell Swiler of Cleveland, Ohio, and Robert Mann of Wilmette. The bride's attendants carried shower bouquets of lavender sweet peas, yellow daisies, pink cornflowers and larkspur.

The bride was gowned in ivory satin, with overdress of chiffon trimmed with rose-point lace, and wore a three-tier ivory tulle wedding-veil, which repeated the seed pearl girdle in an exquisitely simple bandeau of pearls around the head. Her shower bouquet was of gardenias and valley lilies. Harold E. Hammond of Chicago played the Mendelssohn "Wedding March," and improvised during the arrival of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be at home after September 1, at 13805 Shaker boulevard, Cleveland, Ohio.

Many social affairs are being given in honor of Miss Frances Auchinclos of New York City, who is the guest of Miss Jean MacLeish, and the Misses Elizabeth Bristol of Forest Hills, N. Y., and Mary Gordon Miller of Butler, Pa., who are the guests of Miss Elizabeth Knode. Mrs. Oliver Morton Knode entertained in her home on Green Bay road with a Sunday night tea last week-end in honor of her daughter's and Miss MacLeish's guests. Miss MacLeish had been hostess for a dinner party Saturday night in her home at 85 Wentworth avenue, and on Thursday, Miss Charlotte Picher of 226 Sheridan road entertained at bridge in honor of the out-of-town guests and their hostesses. Mrs. Knode and her daughter are having the young people at their home again for dinner Saturday night, and Mrs. Paul Warren of Evanston entertained for them at dinner Friday. Several other events are scheduled for next week.

In only the presence of relatives, Miss Marion Westphal of Dayton, Ohio, became the bride of John Newhall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Newhall, at an afternoon ceremony in the Newhall home, 429 Jefferson avenue, Glencoe, Saturday afternoon, June 25. The Rev. Douglas H. Cornell of the Glencoe Union church, read the wedding service. Mr. Newhall and his bride are on a trip in the east, and upon their return they will make their home at 499 Jefferson avenue, Glencoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Fleager of 952 Pine street, Winnetka, announced the engagement of their sister, Lisette K. Wright, to John Rhamstine of Chicago, at a dinner given Friday evening, July 1, at the home of Mrs. Ruth D. Killips, 384 Elder lane.

An engagement of recent announcement is that of Miss Jane Allen Naugle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald T. Naugle of Chicago, to Billings Mecher McArthur, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis L. McArthur, also of Chicago.

Miss Naugle attended Miss Spence's school in New York City, and is a member of the Junior League and Service club. She made her debut a year ago. Mr. McArthur graduated from Yale in 1925.

The Naugles, formerly residents of Winnetka, are spending the summer here.

Glencoe friends of Mrs. P. E. Stanley of Hollywood, Cal., have been entertaining in her honor during her fortnight's visit here as the guest of Mrs. W. A. Kittermaster of 816 Bluff street, Glencoe. Mrs. James P. McGregor of 950 Eastwood drive entertained for her at luncheon and bridge Friday. On Saturday Mrs. Charles Allison, 991 Bluff road, was hostess at an afternoon bridge party. Mrs. Kittermaster entertained Wednesday for six tables of bridge, and Friday Mrs. Raymond Stevens of Highland Park will be hostess at luncheon and bridge in Mrs. Stanley's honor. Mrs. Stanley was formerly a resident of Glencoe.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McNamara of 267 Ridge avenue, Winnetka, have left for a trip through Oregon and California. They will be gone until late in the month. During their absence, an uncle and aunt, Prof. and Mrs. Lewis J. Johnson of Cambridge, Mass., are occupying their house. Mrs. Johnson addressed the Book group on the "League of Nations," at its last meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hardwicke, 486 South avenue, left Glencoe Tuesday, July 5, for a two months' trip west. They will visit Yellowstone and Yosemite Parks before proceeding to Los Angeles. On their return they will visit points of interest in Colorado. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Frank and their family will occupy their home. The Franks are building a new home near Washington avenue and Valley road, into which they expect to move September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Fleager of Winnetka, announce the engagement of their sister Lisette K. Wright, to John Rhamstine of Chicago, at a dinner given Friday evening, July 1, at the home of Mrs. Ruth D. Killips, 384 Elder lane, Winnetka.

Cables have been received announcing the safe arrival in Paris Tuesday of the group of Country Day school girls who are to tour Europe accompanied by Mrs. Julia Childs of the school. The group includes the Misses Margaret Emily Lynde, Helen Bell, Eleanor Cushman, Frances Alschuler and Joy Fairman.

Mrs. Frederick K. Copeland, 665 Prospect avenue, Glencoe, left June 19, to spend the summer at her summer home at Pine Point, Maine. Lowell Copeland of Michigan City, Ind., a nephew, has been visiting at the Copeland home and will leave today for the east. Mr. Copeland is a former resident of Winnetka.

Miss Antoinette Chappell Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowen Brown of 806 Locust street, Hubbard Woods, will sail for Europe on "The Providence," July 16, to be gone a year. She will accompany Miss Marion Carswell, principal of the Hubbard Woods school. They will land at Naples and will visit Rome, Florence and Locarno. Miss Carswell will then go to Vienna for two weeks while Miss Brown will visit her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brown, in Antwerp. They will both go to the International school at Geneva September first, for the school year, where Miss Carswell will teach and Miss Brown will be a student.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott of 501 Washington avenue, Glencoe, returned with their children Tuesday from a trip of about a month. They first took the children north to Wausau, Wis., and then went on to Oberlin, Ohio, for Mr. Scott's reunion. Before returning to Glencoe, they went back to Wausau for the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Fleager of 952 Pine street, with the four children, Elise, Georgia Lou, Mary, and Jimmy, left Sunday for Pine Lake, Wis., where they will spend July and August.

Dr. and Mrs. George F. Eisenbrand, Jr., of Evanston, have announced the birth of a son, George F. Eisenbrand, III, Saturday, June 25, at the St. Francis hospital. Dr. Eisenbrand is in business in Wilmette.

Frederic H. Eldred of Hibbard road Winnetka, sailed from New York June 29 on the steamship Ryndam to spend the summer in Dr. Hans Walter's Camp Diviki, St. Prex, Switzerland. Before sailing he was the house guest of Jack Held at Scarsdale, N. Y., who is American representative of the camp.

Mrs. Norman MacLeish, with her children, of Wynnewood, Pa., will arrive in Glencoe about August 1, to spend the rest of the summer with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Andrew MacLeish of 459 Longwood avenue, Glencoe.

GLENCOE POST OFFICE GAINS IN RECEIPTS

The general postal receipts at the Glencoe postoffice for the first half of the year just passed, show an increase of approximately 20 per cent over last year, according to Postmaster J. T. Armstrong. Should this condition be maintained for the remaining six months, Mr. Armstrong states, the local office should be rated as a postal bureau of the first class at the beginning of 1928.

Hot Water on Tap

Every Hour of the Day or Night

Just think! What to you is a mere turn of a polished spigot was tedious hard work in the time of Washington and Lincoln. A huge open fireplace, clumsy crane, and an iron caldron was their idea of a household water heating system. A far cry from that old time washing and bathing method to the

Modern Gas Heated Storage Water Heaters

Warm water is more refreshing in the summer than cold, because cold water is stimulating and starts the blood to circulating and consequently makes the blood actually hot. Warm water evaporates more quickly and consequently is soothing and cooling.

Let us install one of these Modern Automatic Storage Water Heaters in your home NOW! During the month of July a generous allowance will be given on your old hot water heater or tank. Call our office and let us tell you of these heaters and the easy way for you to have one of these heaters installed in your home.
