H. P. HARDWARE IS DEFEATED BY FELS

Fell's Clothiers upset the strong, undefeated, H. P. Hardware team 10-2 in the first game of their double header and lost the second 2-0.

In the first game Fell's completely outplayed the Hardware. They hit Sheahen's and Martin's offerings all over the lot. Conrad at third and Boylan at first played brilliant ball. Stipe accepted eleven chances in the outfield. Carr caught the finest game of the season. All in all Fell's played great baseball to beat the strong Hardware team.

Fell's must have got all their hits in the first game because they could not hit safely in the second contest.

In a postponed game Fell's beat Hunter's 13-4 in a slowly played ball game.

Friday H. P. Hardware beat Hunter's 7-4. Hunter's team is handicapped because a poor showing of players turn out.

OLD ARITHMETIC IS IN POSSESSION HERE

Mr. Thomas Dwyer of the Moraine hotel has in his possession a real antique. It is an arithmetic book put forth by Humphry Baker of London in 1562. Mr. Dwyer's book is a revised edition published in 1583 and is written in old English type. It is in very good condition in spite of the number of years it has been in existence. It is very interesting to note that perhaps Shakespeare, one of our most famous playwrights, used its like in his early school days.

HIGHLAND PARK DAY IS GREAT SUCCESS

Jesse L. Smith, R. J. O'Brien and Charles Harbaugh.

At Sunset Park the program was carried out as scheduled, everything planned going through without difficulty, and there was plenty of entertainment features to keep the huge crowd amused and entertained throughout the day. Probably $1000 to $1500 worth of prizes, donated by merchants, were distributed during the day.

The decorations throughout the business district were extensive and elaborate and helped to give the city a genuine holiday appearance. The large flags provided by the Chamber of Commerce and also the shields and bunting attached to the lamp posts added much to the great ensemble and gave color and vivacity to the scene.

Window Decorations

The store window decorations also were excellent and many of them were elaborate and beautiful. Much thought and effort were expended by the various business houses in designing and installing these decorations and many of them were especially fine. The prize for the window decorations were awarded as follows:

Best Decorated Windows
The prize winners for best decorated windows are as follows:
1st, $25, Meierhoff Hardware Co.; 2nd, $15, Public Service Co.; 3rd, $10, L. R. Rigdon.

Honorable mention—Albert Larson, W. W. Reichardt, North Shore Gas Co., Sweetland Pharmacy, T. S. Duffy Furniture Co.

The judges of the window decorations were Mrs. De Colli, Mrs. E. T. Skidmore, Miss Mona Bahr, and Miss Ruth Beardsley.

The principal features of the afternoon started with the indoor baseball game at 12 o'clock, in which the Highland Park Hardware team defeated the Anspach team with a score of 14 to 7. This game attracted a large crowd and much interest was evidenced.

This game followed the official opening of the program at Sunset park by Mayor Lewis, whose address was appropriate to the occasion and was received with appreciation. Six home runs were the feature.

Baseball Game

The regular baseball game between Highland Park and Highwood at 1:30 o'clock was the outstanding feature of the afternoon program, and this game gave the crowd a big thrill. It was a fast and hard-fought contest and resulted in a victory for Highland Park. The score was 10 to 2. Hessler's steady pitching and "Ish" Glader's two home runs were the features.

The various games and races and other athletic contests scheduled were staged according to the program during the afternoon and everybody enjoyed every minute of the time.

Much credit is due Sam Fell for the excellent way in which he carried on the various games and tournaments.

Winners of afternoon races were:
Races

Another very interesting and thrilling tournament was conducted by Mr. Fell, that being the horseshoe tournament. Sixteen participated and all the north shore towns were represented. Earl Frost of Deerfield defeated Robert Dixon in the finals, 50 to 22.

Dancing in Evening

Dancing was the big attraction during the evening, with the Bluebird orchestra dispensing delightful music from 6 o'clock until midnight, and a great throng of dancers availing themselves of the opportunity to enjoy the fine floor and the good music.

Excellent arrangements for handling the crowds and making them comfortable were provided at Sunset park, and everything was very satisfactory, as far as learned.

A short circuit in the lighting system caused all the lights to go out about ten o'clock. They were out for about ten minutes, the crowd being very good natured about it.

Great Success

The day as a whole was a great success from start to finish, and everybody seemed to be having a good time during every minute of it. Amusements were plentiful and nothing was left undone to make the
