Many years ago the North Shore Line adopted as its slogan the phrase, "The Road of Service". In interpreting its slogan, the North Shore Line has always looked upon courtesy as an important phase of service. It is natural, then, that this railroad should receive frequent letters commending the courtesy of its employees. Recently a letter was received from a New York woman, Mrs. Lillian Keane, praising the courtesy of a North Shore Line conductor. In her letter Mrs. Keane said, "I have traveled rather extensively, and in all my experiences I have never seen more considerate attention to the comfort of passengers."
