NOTABLES OF STATE TO ATTEND FESTIVAL

Vice-President Dawes, General Foreman and Senator Deneen Waukegan's Guests

Vice-President Charles G. Dawes in a recent letter again assured the American Legion that he would be present and review their parade on September 2, which opens the Waukegan Summer festival.

The American Legion made the request that they be allowed to bring the Vice-President to Waukegan by automobile, but not steadfast in his decision that he would much rather ride on the North Shore electric and reach Waukegan with as little ceremony as possible.

Major General, Milton J. Foreman, past commander of the Department of Illinois, of the American Legion and retired commander of the 33rd Division and Senator Deneen will also be the guests of Waukegan and will review the parade in company with the vice-president.

The huge parade will occur on the opening day of the Summer festival which will run on September 2, 3, 4 and 5.

In addition to the floats arranged by various societies, business houses and factories are entering in the neighborhood of 65 floats. There will be seven bands, two troops of Cavalry from Fort Sheridan, massed colors of all the American Legion posts in Lake county, antiquated car section and clown section. From all appearances this will be the largest and most beautiful parade ever staged in Lake county. All of Waukegan welcomes visitors from the surrounding neighborhood.

BRITAIN RATIFIES ANTI-SLAVERY PACT

Great Britain, in behalf of England and India, and other dominions except Canada and the Irish Free State, has forwarded to the League of Nations Secretariat ratification of the anti-slavery convention drawn up at Geneva in September 1926. The convention now is automatically in force throughout the British Empire.

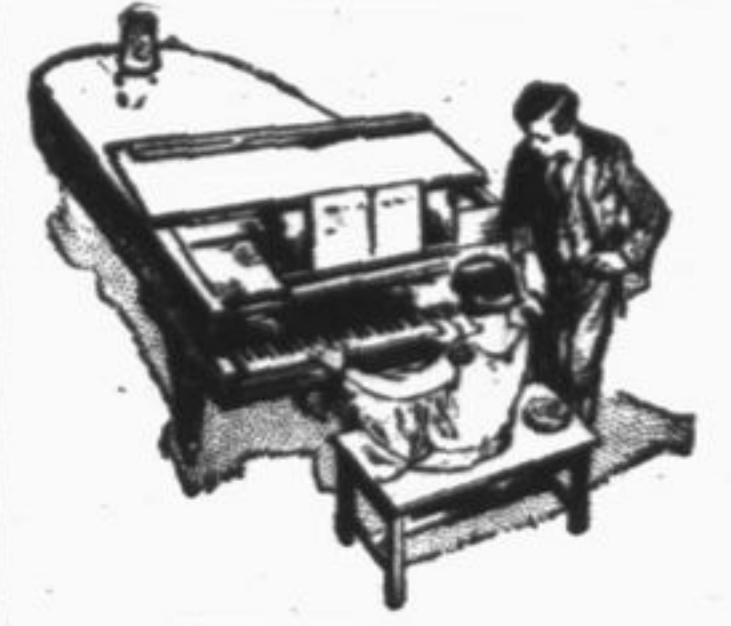

Bulgaria and Denmark are the only other countries which have ratified the agreement.

The only drawback in a great event like Lindbergh's flight across the Atlantic is the flock of alleged popular songs which inevitably follows.
