One of the prettiest weddings of the late summer was the one on Sunday, Aug. 14, which took place in the Holy Cross church, Deerfield, when Miss Rosa Siffert of Deerfield became the bride of Mr. Alfred Denzel of this city. The Rev. Father W. J. Ryan performed the ceremony. The altars were very beautiful in gorgeous bouquets of baby's breath, larkspur, and phlox with asparagus fern entwined throughout. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Christ Siffert and looked adorable in a simple gown of white georgette and a trailing veil which was carried by her two small nieces, Mimi and Anna Louise Reeb, who wore frocks alike of shades of orchid. The bride carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Gretel Siffert of Ravinia, a sister of the bride who wore peach georgette, was maid of honor, while Miss Hermine Denzel, sister of the groom was bridesmaid and wore green georgette, they both wore picture hats in shades of green Neapolitan straw. They carried bouquets of roses and daisies. Tiny Caroline Siffert, niece of the bride, in a peach colored dress was flower girl and carried a basket of bright colored flowers. Mr. Louis Denzel, brother of the groom acted as best man. Mrs. Vincent Silveri, a sister of the bride sang beautifully, "Bridal Song" from Lohengrin and "Oh Promise Me" by DeKoven, accompanied on the organ by Mr. Eugene Ender.
