

WIDER SCOPE IN WELFARE ACTIVITY

PLANNED AT CONVENTION

Course of Study to Begin Two Days Before Conference in Joliet in October, Says State Report

Wider scope of activities will be taken by the Illinois Conference on Public Welfare during an annual session to be held at Joliet in October, in a course of study to begin two days in advance of the conference. The course is not offered as a substitute for regular professional training, and therefore is open only to those already engaged in or directly concerned in social work.

Five Courses Arranged
Five courses of study are arranged. Each course will consist of four sessions of one and one-half hours each, with the enrollment in each course restricted and no one allowed to take more than two courses.

Instructors announced are: C. C. Castern, executive director, Child Welfare League of America, New York; Francis H. Hiller, field secretary, National Probation association, New York; Mary F. Bogue, state supervisor, Mothers' Assistance fund, Harrisburg, Pa.; Dr. Herman M. Adler, director, Institute of Juvenile Research, Chicago, and Ella M. Wein-further, association field director, American Association for Organizing Family Social Work, New York.

Study Course Committee

Members of the study course committee are: Mary E. Murphy, director, Elizabeth McCormick Memorial fund, Chicago; Dr. Herman M. Adler, director, Institute for Juvenile Research, Chicago; Ralph C. Austin, judge, Joliet; Joel D. Hunter, general superintendent, United Charities, Chicago; Roy W. Ode, director, Department of Public Welfare, Springfield; Mrs. Elizabeth Mann, president, Illinois Probation Officers' association, Kankakee; Mary H. Newell, president, Illinois Council of Family Welfare Workers, Harvey; W. S. Reynolds, director, Chicago Council of Social Agencies, Chicago, and Edna Zimmerman, assistant superintendent of child welfare, Department of Public Welfare, Springfield.

Courses Arranged

Courses are arranged as follows: Problems of Admission, Placement and Discharge by Child-Caring Institutions and Agencies; Probation Methods; Administration of Mothers' Pensions; Mental Factors in Social Case Work and Fundamental Principles of Social Case Work.

Registration for the courses are open to persons in Illinois who are engaged in social work; volunteer workers who are devoting regular time to social work; public officers who administer various forms of social work, such as judges, school attendance officers, probation officers, city welfare directors, staff members of state, county and city institutions and the like, and board members of social agencies.

LAZY MAN'S CALENDAR

Some people think there ought to be a law requiring five paydays in every month except February, which is too short. All they would do to February is to make Saint Valentine's Day and Ground Hog Day legal holidays.—Woman's Home Companion.

SOAP AND WATER AS CIVILIZING AGENTS

AMERICANIZATION PHASE

Living in a Bath Age, Says Head of Cleanliness Institute; Declares Room for Improvement

A new phase of the Americanization crusade is being developed, which may well be termed "Clean-linization." This development, according to the government health authorities, is based on the principle that every unclean person is a potential center of infection and a menace to the nation.

"We are living in a Bath Age," writes Roscoe C. Edlund of the Cleanliness Institute, "but we still have a long way to go before we exhaust the possibilities of modern knowledge on the importance of cleanliness. There are still millions of people in the United States who are almost oblivious to the dangers resulting from lack of proper hygienic measures."

"It is just as important, in our Americanization campaigns, to teach the virtues of cleanliness as it is to teach the rudiments of politics. Dirt is the soil from which many of our vices spring. There is a general agreement among those responsible for planning and conducting civic betterment activities that a high standard of cleanliness is an asset in their work."

Cleanliness is something that cannot be universally enforced by statute. It is a development of education and a desire for better living. Mr. Edlund has already been promised the most cordial co-operation of legislators and government officials in his plans to develop throughout the country a consciousness of the need for higher standards of cleanliness.

But this campaign is not solely for the lower strata of the population. There are few persons in this country who cannot benefit from enforcing a higher cleanliness in home and business life.

Americanization, when it meant only political education, found a need of civic education among all classes of the population. The new idea of Americanization by soap and water will find a field for its work with the Colonel's lady as well as with Judy O'Grady.

So Much SAFER

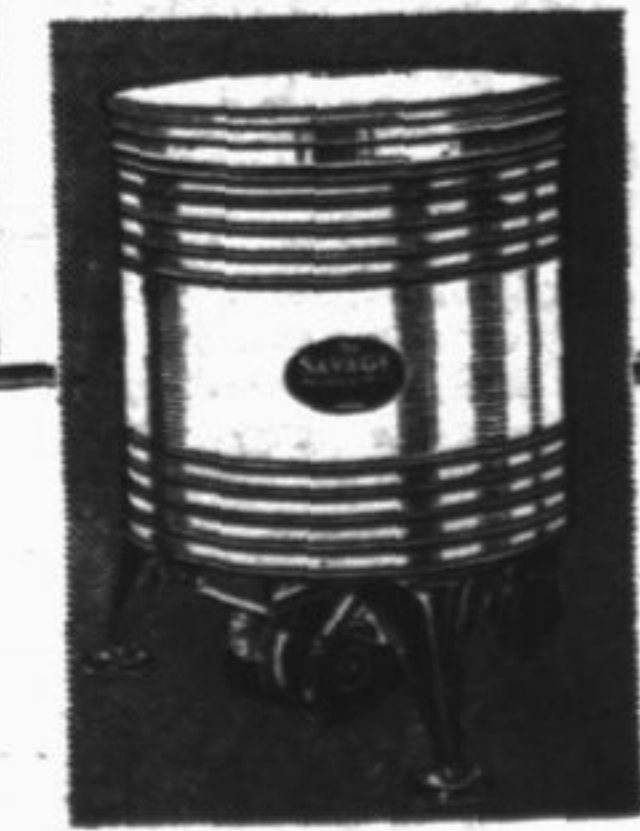

-AND QUICKER

RINSING by hand, and feeding a wringer belong back in the days of the oil lamp and 'kitchen pump'. Women no longer do this "Last Hard Half" of the wash-day job—their wringerless Savage does the complete job for them—the easier half, washing and bluing (which any washer will do) and the Last Hard Half, rinsing and drying! The Savage needs no set tubs, or special plumbing connections! It even empties itself. And it is the only washer with the wonderful feature
