LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

On Sunday, Sept. 11, at 10 a. m. at the Immaculate Conception church, Louise Josephine Barilari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barilari of S. Second street was married to Mr. Louis Onesti of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Onesti of Rome, Italy, the Rev. Dr. O'Neill officiating. The bride was lovely in a white satin gown trimmed with point lace and wearing a veil that was held in place by orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Anna Muto of Lake Bluff wore a dress of yellow canton crepe trimmed with yellow satin. Dorothy Rafferty, wearing a pale green taffeta dress, Lucrezia Calo of Chicago, gowned in an orchid taffeta dress and Mary Garino wearing a pink taffeta gown, served as bridesmaids. All attendants of the bride carried large bouquets of pink roses and wore moline hair bands to match their respective dresses. John Onesti served his brother as best man while Frank Cara and Ernesto Cara acted as ushers. A reception was held at Witten hall from 2:30 to 10 p. m.

Miss Ruby Ostrander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ostrander of Zion, Ill., succeeded in keeping her wedding a secret until a few hours before she became the bride of Lewis Roberts of Highland Park. The ceremony was read by the Rev. E. Dawe at the Methodist parsonage in Waukegan, on Saturday evening, before only the immediate families of the bride and groom. The bride was very attractive in her white taffeta wedding gown and carrying a bouquet of orchids and roses, while her sister Ella Mae as bridesmaid, wore a dress of tan crepe de chine and velvet. The groom was attended by Jack Beatty of this city. Following the wedding ceremony the bridal party motored to Highland Park where a reception was held at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Harry T. Supple, 503 S. St. Johns avenue. The out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Maywood, parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Ostrander of Kenosha, Wis., and Hubert Ostrander of Chicago, brother of the bride; also Thomas Roberts of Chicago, brother of the groom. The newlyweds will make their home in Highland Park upon their return from Chicago where they are spending a few days at the Stevens hotel.

The marriage of Miss Mary Duffy daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duffy of Laurel avenue, and Mr. George Gordon of Highwood, took place yesterday morning at St. James church, Highwood, the Rev. Father Magnier officiating at High Mass. The bride was gowned in white satin trimmed in rose point lace and pearls with a tulle veil and white satin slippers. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Agnes Sullivan, Miss Duffy's only attendant was attired in pink georgette crepe with slippers and hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. Mr. Harold Duffy brother of the bride served the groom as best man. A wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, the table being very attractive with a center piece of roses and larkspur. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will be at home at 412 Waukegan avenue, Highwood upon their return from a honeymoon trip.

Highland Park Music School, Ethel Lathrop Marley, director, takes pleasure in offering a course in Class Piano Instruction (the famous Curtis method) under the direction of Verne Tomlinson, an authorized piano teacher.

This type of instruction has been found to be not only very productive of actual results, but also particularly valuable in determining at a very moderate cost, and in a relatively short time, just which children, in any given group, are sufficiently musical and sufficiently interested to warrant more extended study.

The children are taught short pieces from the very start; they learn to criticize each other intelligently, and they are given work in ear training, harmony, transposition and sight reading.

Public demonstrations are given frequently.

Classes are now forming. Those interested are asked to telephone Highland Park 1138 immediately.

Mr. Guernsey Le Pelley left Tuesday for St. Louis, Mo., where he will enter Principia.

Letter of Appreciation

The following letter of appreciation has been received by the Press from President E. M. Laing of the club:

September 12, 1927.

Udell Printing Company, Attention Mr. Paul Udell, Highland Park, Illinois.

My dear Mr. Udell: On behalf of the Sunset Valley Golf club I want to thank you for the beautiful trophy cup known as "The Highland Park Press Cup" which you have given to our club.

We are not only indebted to you for this gift but for the generous publicity and support your valuable paper "The Highland Park Press" has given the Sunset Valley Golf club at all times. I can truly say that in no small way this publicity has been a material agent in the success of our club.

Your gift is most beautiful and is emblematic of the spirit of generosity of your wonderful paper and organization.

I am Yours very truly, Edw. M. Laing, President Sunset Valley Golf Club.

The Drug Store for STUDENTS
