

North Shore News

The marriage of Miss Erika Steffens of 556 Drexel ave., Glencoe, to Fritz Evanger of Barrington, took place Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. Harold C. Case officiating. A dinner at the Evanston hotel followed the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in white satin and lace and her tulle veil was trimmed with lace matching that in the dress. Her flowers were white roses and lilies. The bride's attendants, Miss Gertrude Evanger, her maid of honor, and Miss Lillian Phielle and Miss Clara Gage, her bridesmaids, were in taffeta frocks of pastel shades and carried asters to match.

Jack Wente and Dorothy Schenk were the ring bearers. Sig Evanger was his brother's best man and Clyde Waingard and Archie Morphett were ushers.

After their return from a honeymoon in Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Evanger will reside in Barrington.

Miss Hope E. Jonas, 999 Bluff road, who is to be married Saturday evening, September 17, to Harve Carl Stein of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Stein of Chicago, has been the honored guest at many lovely parties given by her friends.

Mrs. George Pretzel, 1035 Bluff road, entertained informally at bridge for her on Wednesday afternoon, September 7, concluding the afternoon with a surprise towel shower. Miss Jonas was the guest of Mrs. F. G. Stein of Chicago, at the Illinois Athletic club, at luncheon on Friday, and today is attending the luncheon and bridge given in her honor by Mrs. Carl Jordan of Chicago at the Edgewater Golf club. Mrs. Harold Rice of Evanston, and Mrs. Arthur Wischart, of Richmond, Ind., had a luncheon and bridge for her Wednesday, September 14. The trousseau tea is being given by her mother, Mrs. H. E. Jonas, on Thursday afternoon. On Thursday night he fiance will be given a stag dinner at the Illinois Athletic club by his brother, Frank G. Stein. The bridal dinner will be given by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Jonas on Friday evening at the Park Ridge Golf club, after which there will be a rehearsal at the Jonas home.

Miss Jonas will be attended at her wedding by her sister, Mrs. Lillian Warren, as matron of honor, and by Miss Florence Walsh of Detroit, as maid of honor. The wedding march and incidental music will be played by Dorothy Rice Wischart of Richmond, Ind. Frank Stein, Jr., and Barbara Warren are to be the ribbon bearers. Albert Ryerson of Pittsburgh, Pa., will be Mr. Stein's best man. Elbert Herlocher of Wilmette is to sing, and the ceremony will be read by the Rev. Harold C. Case. The wedding will be in the bride's home.

Miss Marie De Golyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence De Golyer of Chicago, formerly of Evanston, will be married to Everett Vance Clark of Brockton, Mass., September 27 at 8:30.

The wedding will take place in Hubbard Woods at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. De Golyer, 850 Auburn road. Only relatives and close friends will be present as the bride's family has been in mourning.

Mr. Clark and his bride will live near Boston and will be at home after Nov. 1, at 138 Prospect avenue, Brockton. Mr. Clark is a nephew of Mrs. John W. Thomas of Evanston, and the late Mrs. E. M. Bowman of Chicago.

Among the parties given in honor of Miss Jane Naugle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald T. Naugle of Chicago, prior to her marriage to Billings McArthur, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis L. McArthur of Chicago, were the luncheon and matinee party given by Mrs. Willing D. Kirk Wednesday, the luncheon given by Mrs. Alba J. Irvin of Chicago on Thursday night her fiance will be Blackstone Friday with Mrs. Raymond Carleton Dudley of Winnetka the hostess.

The marriage service will be read today, in St. Chrysostom's church in the presence of only a few intimate friends and relatives. A small reception will follow at the Naugle apartment. The Naugle family left Winnetka recently after a summer's stay.

Among the affairs to be given for Miss Margaret Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Statham Leon Williams of Winnetka, formerly of Wilmette, whose marriage to J. Lester Badenoch, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Badenoch of Evanston, will take place Tuesday, October 4, are the pantry shower and bridge given by Miss Helen Badenoch at her home in Evanston Wednesday, August 31, and the bridge to be given next Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. Willis Hunt and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, will be hostesses at their home in Winnetka.

Miss Badenoch, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Mary Louise Scheidhelm of Wilmette, will be in Miss Williams' wedding party, the former as maid of honor, the latter as one of the bridesmaids.

One of the large and beautiful weddings of the summer took place Saturday evening, September 10, at Christ church, Winnetka, when Miss Marion Fulton became the bride of Lawrence DeBout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard DeBout of Loudenville, Ohio. The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard read the marriage service at 8:30 o'clock, and immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the garden of the home of the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank David Fulton, 884 Hill road, Winnetka. Miss Olga Mienn sang twice during the wedding, at 8:15 o'clock, and again just before the wedding party entered. Dr. Ellis Chase was at the organ.

The bride wore ivory satin with a veil of rare old lace and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley. Her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Helen, and her matron of honor, her cousin, Mrs. George E. Snyder, and the bridesmaids, Miss Betty Schwartz, Miss Louise Shriver, Miss Helen Anderson and Miss Jane Hawley, and the flower girls, Marjorie McNie and Margaret Cobb, were gowned in three shades of peach. The bridal attendants carried shower bouquets of fall flowers and the two flower girls carried sheaths of larkspur and gladioli.

Russell Bill served as best man, and the ushers were George E. Snyder, Max Whistler, Jermyn Downey, Winslow Thompson, Wesley Hawkins, Harvey Bally, Curtis Clifford and Edmund Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marshall of 629 Greenwood avenue returned Sunday from a trip to Scotland, their first visit to their old home in twenty years. Mrs. Marshall left Glencoe three months ago, going first to the Shetland Islands where she remained for some time with friends and seven weeks ago was joined by her husband in Scotland. One of the greatest pleasures of their sojourn there was the visit with Mr. Marshall's aged parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Curtis and their family are returning this Saturday to their home at 815 Greenwood avenue, Glencoe, after spending the season at their summer home in Leland, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Wright, Miss Laura Wright and Norman B. Wright, who have been staying in the Curtis home this summer, are returning to their apartment at 237 East Delaware place, Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. William B. Leach and their daughter, Mrs. Dwight C. Orcutt, 185 Green Bay road, left Glencoe Tuesday evening for Niagara Falls, to attend the wedding of Miss Helen Elizabeth Phelps, daughter of William Trus Phelps, to William B. Leach, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Leach, which took place Wednesday. The bride and groom sailed Friday on the Leviathan for a wedding trip in Europe, and upon their return, they will make their home at Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. DeFores A. Custer and their daughter, Betty, of 1497 Ashbury avenue, Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hamm and their daughter, Miss Willa, of 270 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, and Miss Winifred Stevens of Winnetka returned Saturday from Three Lakes, Wis., where they spent about three weeks.

Mrs. Robert M. Telfer, Jr., and her children, Marilyn, Grant and Bobby, of 842 Cherry street, Winnetka, returned last week from a visit with Mrs. Telfer's brother, State Representative William G. Thon, at his summer home in Pittakqua Bay, Ill. Mrs. Walter H. Andersen of 127 Robsart road, Kenilworth, returned recently from a two-weeks' visit to Milton, Wis., with her aunt, Mrs. Loth, and her two sons. Before that Mr. and Mrs. Andersen went to Alaska with members of the Lake Shore Athletic club, and also spent some time at Lake Louise and Banff, passing through Yellowstone National park on their way home.

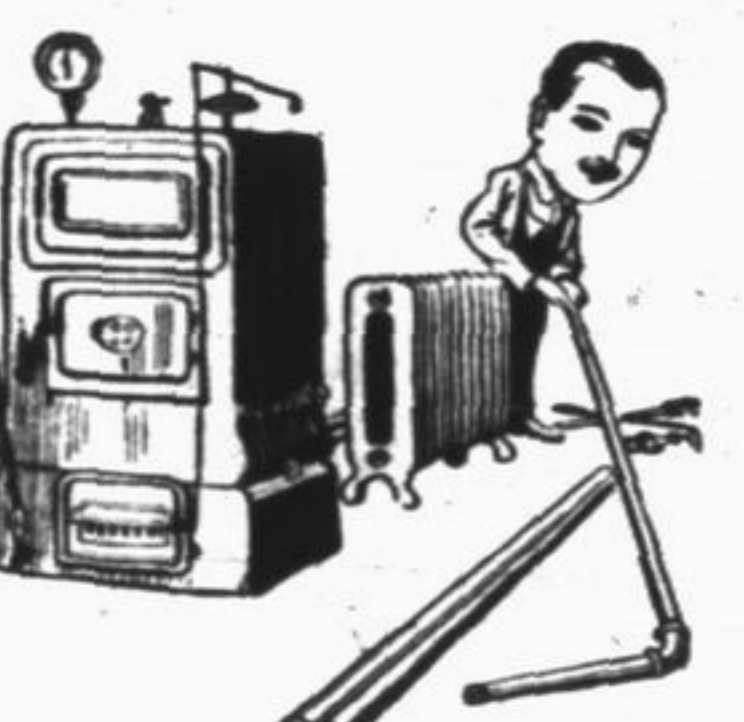

Mrs. Godfrey H. Atkin and her daughters, Margot and Adelaide, are expected in New York today. They have spent the summer abroad and will return to Winnetka in a few days, after visiting Mrs. A. D. Edwards, formerly of Winnetka, at Summit, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Alan Dixon, who have occupied the Atkin house in the Indian Hill club grounds, will leave for the city Sept. 15.

Sunset Terrace Homes Score Again

Mr. S. S. Newell says after looking the whole town over they are the best homes that he inspected.

To prove that he believes it he purchased and is now living at 699 Yale Lane.

It's true the insulation makes them cost a little more, but the comfort in all weather fully warrants the expense.

It easily pays for itself in fuel saving, too.
