SHORTY LANRS JOB; WORKS FOR SWEETLAND

In spite of the rowdy way this new citizen who calls himself "Shorty" applied for a job recently, it seems that he has been hired by the well known firm of the Sweetland Pharmacy, as press agent for their store on West Central avenue. How he did it is not understood in this office. "Shorty" came into the office yesterday and told us of his new job and asked that we call attention to his advertisement this week inasmuch as he had a few remarks included. He made the claim that Mr. Sweetland was a natural born advertising man but had kept his light under the well known bushel, and now that he (Shorty) was in charge Mr. Sweetland was going to step out and go some! Here's what Shorty said:
"The reason I selected Mr. Sweetland from among the twenty-two applications for my services was that Mr. Sweetland never mentioned work! He did say a few nice kind words about salary but he seemed real decent about how much work I was to do. Sort of left it up to me to decide that point. And certainly that's the sort of boss I want to make a salary off of — if you gather what I mean."
Shorty gave us to understand that from now on indefinitely that he would be given a certain small space in the advertisement of Mr. Meek and he not only requested that we read it regularly but demanded that we look for it each week.

7:45—Church night. Program: "The Trial of Jesus" by John Masfield. An interpretation of the tragedy of Holy week is presented by one of our greatest living poets. He shows how blind, erring and thoughtless and intense ecclesiasticism and relentless officialdom can be. The forces he condemns exist today. Institutionalism in religion, governmental justice untempered by mercy and intellectualism perceiving no spiritual values still crucify the highest ideals. The author of "The Everlasting Mercy" and "Gallipoli" in this play gives expression to the prophetic instinct which always offers a protest against the deadening routine of the world.

LOCAL MAN WINNER IN IMPORTANT YACHT RACE

M. D. Vail's Boat Takes First Place in Lipton Cup Contest; Others
Local friends of Malcolm D. Vail are congratulating him and his associates on winning the yacht for the Lipton cup recently at Belmont, his boat, the Ariel, taking first place in the final race and tying with the Namey for total points in four days of racing. The expired time for these races was very close, the races being won literally by inches.
Mr. Vail and Fred Spencer, son of Earl Spencer, also sailed on the boat which came in second in the racing division in the Mackinac race. Up to within two and one-half miles of the finish they had the race won by a margin of an hour, but ran into a flat calm that held them an hour, seven minutes and four seconds. The name of their boat was the Fantome, owned by William Faturot of River Forest. Highland Park should be proud of these sportsmen who have brought honors to this city in one of the greatest of out-door sports.

Claimed that people do not go to church as they used to, but in former days they had nowhere else to go. The politicians may have lame hands and sore throats after the cattle shows, but that is no worse than the carache suffered by their listeners.

"WHEN A MAN LOVES" AT MARKS' THEATRES

Attractive Stage Shows in Connection with Movie Programs This Week
"When a Man Loves" starring John Barrymore and supported by Dolores Costello is now at the Marbro and Granada theaters. The story is laid in the golden age of France depicting the fabulous riches and unspeakable poverty in the days of Louis XV. It retells the well-known and passionately beautiful love story of Manon Lescaut and Fabien Des Grieux, two youths whose devotion has been to religion until their chance meeting, aroused within each, the fires of unquenchable love.

The costumes are replicas of the originals loaned by the French government on a $24,000 bond. Historically correct settings of ancient Paris, the King's court at Versailles, streets, pastoral scenes and sequences on the prison ship, and during the mutiny of the crew, and many others are marvels of the photography.
The stage show at the Marbro theater during the run of "When a Man Loves" is Charles Kaley in "Back at College" which revives old college scenes and the cast includes Auriole Craven, well-known singer, dancer and violinist who performs all three at once; the Four Eton Collegiates, clever instrumentalists and singers, Ossman and Schepps, vitaphone and Victor record stars and Connors and Donahue and many others. Benny Merhoff is at the Granada in a very clever and exceptional stage show called "Echos of Spain" which cast includes Cosci and Verdi, Maureen Englin and Welford and Newton who have been brought back to Marks Bros. theatres by popular demand.

About the only way you can get room on many automobile roads now, is to run the car into the ditch, and that is getting crowded also.
Question is asked when the industries will reach the saturation point? Well, the ice cream industry is nowhere near in sight of that point so far as our best girls are concerned.

"TOMMY" DELIGHTFUL COMEDY IN CHICAGO

Splendid Cast in Play at Cort Theatre Offers an Evening of Pleasure

"Tommy," the delightful American comedy now playing at the Cort theater, Chicago, offers the theater goer one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season.

The cast is a splendid one, each one portraying their part in a most commendable manner.

The story is that of a young couple who are madly in love with each other, but the girl's parents constantly urge the young man on, and like most girls, not caring to be dictated to, become indifferent. The outcome of this course of events is exceedingly humorous. One must see the play to thoroughly enjoy it.

"By all means see this delightful comedy" is the comment by Percy Hammon, well known critic. The New York Times says of it when there, "It is one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season—bright, fresh, and continuously funny."

Quite a shock to many students to be told that they must educate themselves, when they thought the money had been paid to have the education stored away in their heads.
