Boy Scout News

Morton J. Traub, Jr. of Troop 31, Highland Park, was awarded the eagle scout medal at a court of honor last Monday evening, October 3, at the city hall. This award is the highest given in scouting and represents a minimum of fifteen months' work during which time the scout must have completed the requirements for first class scout, and earn twenty one merit badges. These cover a wide variety of subjects including athletics, public and personal health, pioneering, life saving, swimming, first aid, bird study, civics, camping, pathfinding, cooking, and any nine other subjects that the scout chooses. Morton has earned all of the required merit badges and fourteen others, making a total of twenty-six, five more than required.

Other awards which were made at this court of honor were:

Other Awards
Fred Reichardt, Troop 33, second class scout; Richard Gault Troop 35, and Parker Johnston, Troop 33, first class scout.

Merit badges awarded were:
Troop 31: Grant Herman, angling and cooking; Edward Loewenstein, woodcarving, woodwork; Neal Rumbaugh, bird study, horsemanship; Morton Traub, Jr., woodcarving, wood work.

Troop 33: Sidley Chapman, public health, safety; Parker Johnston, life saving, swimming; H. Denton Smith, printing.

Troop 35: David Canmann, first aid to animals, life saving, public health; Bob Jerome, life saving; Peter White, life saving, woodcarving; B. C. Draper, assistant executive, weather, woodcarving, and gold palm for eagle badge.

Mr. N. H. Anspach presided at the court of honor and other members present were Albert P. Snite, Harry L. Canmann, George Roberts, and Morton J. Traub, Sr.

Mr. Anspach presented the lower rank badges while Scoutmaster Bob Anspach presented the eagle badge to Morton Traub, who is a member of his troop.

October has been decided upon as the month for the "Invest in Boyhood" campaign to be carried on by the men of the various North Shore communities in securing the funds to carry the Boy Scouts work for the coming year.

A Larger Budget
Because of the rapid increase in scouting during the past year, both in quantity and the enrichment of quality the men of the North Shore Council are setting out to raise a larger budget to make possible a rapidly growing program. The twelve thousand dollar quota which is being sought will be used in the carrying out of a stronger advancement program, service to troop committees, equipment for camping and outdoor activities, for the educational program, for training, for activities such as field and rally days, for administration, executive's salaries, and traveling expenses in going from town to town.

New Phases Developing
More impressive Courts of Honor will strengthen the advancement program during 1928. Cots, mattresses, stove, and cooking utensils are needed to equip the Cabin in the Woods. "The Talk O' The Troops", a monthly news sheet for scouts will be issued this year in printed form. The budget provides for the employment of an office secretary for the "Service Station" thus making possible the executive and the assistant executive spending a larger part of their time in actual field service.

Pilgrimage Planner
A committee working on council-troop activities is planning for a joint hike of all troops on Saturday, October 29, which will be in the nature of a pilgrimage from Glencoe to the Cabin in the Woods, two miles west.

The ceremony will be in memory of the life of Theodore Roosevelt and will consist of a tree planting, a talk on Roosevelt, and other ceremonies.

Hammer and Nail Party
The date has not yet been set for the "Hammer and Nail Party" at the Cabin in the Woods at which time the troop locker chests will be built.

These lockers are of such a nature that two of them placed end to end and covered with a mattress, form a very serviceable bunk. Forty troop lockers will be built to take care of the thirty-three present troops and others which will be formed soon.

TRAIN TO STOP HERE FOR FOOTBALL FANS

Milwaukee Train Scheduled to Stop Saturday for Madison Michigan Game Goers

The Chicago Northwestern railway has agreed to stop its Chicago to Milwaukee train leaving Chicago at 8 o'clock, at Highland Park on Saturday, Oct. 15 for the benefit of those wishing to board the train to go to the Michigan-Wisconsin football game at Madison. The railway company had agreed to honor on this train and on the connection it makes at Milwaukee, the special low rate ticket one fare for round trip which they are selling for that occasion.

The train will stop at Highland Park at 8:31 a. m., change at Milwaukee almost immediately upon arrival there and arrive at Madison about 1:30.

CHILD STUDY GROUP BEGINS NEXT MONDAY

At these meetings reports will be given about other progressive schools such as the Francis Parker, Downer's Grove, Chicago Elementary, the Latin school.

Mothers from other schools and from other grades of Elm Place who are interested in the adolescent group will be notified of the meetings each month if they will send five addressed postals to the chairman, Mrs. James Lowenstein, 192 Vine avenue. The first meeting is next Monday at 3:30 p. m. in Elm Place kindergarten.

The classes are being formed among the mothers and teachers of the lower grades, up to and including the fifth grade. One group will study child psychology, using as a text Frances G. Wickes' new book "The Inner World of Childhood." Those who are already familiar with the more elementary literature on child study will find this course especially interesting. The book is a study in analytical psychology. Mrs. Carl Pfannstiel is the leader of this group, which will meet the third Monday of each month, beginning October 17, in the kindergarten room, at 3:30 p. m. The group led by Mrs. Frank Fitt will meet on the fourth Monday of the month, beginning October 24, at the same hour. The discussions will deal with practical questions—habits, discipline, self-reliance, behavior problems, sex instruction, etc.—and will be to some extent a repetition of the course given last year. It was decided to divide the classes this year on the basis of the interest of the mothers, rather than on the basis of the ages of the children. Those who wish to discuss elementary questions of child guidance should register with the group meeting on the fourth Monday, while those who are interested in the study of the most recent developments in psychology should join the group meeting on third Mondays.

In the homes where the young man caller has to see the whole family, surprise need not be felt if daughter demands the right to take the automobile.
