Week-End Hike

Scout leaders of the North Shore troops will spend Saturday afternoon and evening in a Leaders' Conference and Encampment at the "Cabin in the Woods." After an afternoon of fellowship and exchange of experience, they will gather around the fireplace for a campfire. Troop service deputies, assisted by Messrs. McPeck and Grant, are in charge of the program. Preparat for Court of Honor More than seven hundred North Shore Scouts have marked a red letter day on their calendar—Friday, Nov. 18—when all the troops will gather at the new Glencoe school auditorium for a joint Court of Honor of the North Shore troops. It is predicted that more than one hundred scouts will appear to receive their badges of recognition. The Court of Honor chairmen are: Wilmette, J. R. Harper; Kenilworth, E. L. Nygaard; Glencoe, F. M. deBeers; Highland Park, Dr. G. B. Lake; Lake Forest, Franklin Read; Lake Bluff, M. Mandeville; Glenview, Paul Beda.

Plant Memorial Tree

Palmer Edmunds, Chicago attorney, speaks on Roosevelt. Seventy scouts, representing some twenty North Shore troops gathered last Saturday morning, Oct. 29, to take part in the Roosevelt Pilgrimage, in commemoration of the memory of Theodore Roosevelt. A seven foot elm was planted, dedicated by the Roosevelt Troop 2 of the Wilmette Congregational church as the Roosevelt memorial tree.

New Scout Leader

Scout and leaders of the North Shore troops are welcoming a new leader, W. Ted Grant, who took up his active duties in our community last week. He will concentrate his efforts on Highland Park, Highwood, Lake Forest, Lake Bluff, Libertyville, Deerfield, Northbrook, and Glenview, making a survey of conditions and the need for additional troops. He will be available to aid the local town committees, most of which meet every two months, aid in Court of Honor work and give general service to troops in this section of the council.

Fun Rally at Highland Park

About one hundred scouts from troops in Highland Park and troops to the north were present at a Fun rally at the Deerfield-Shields high school in Highland Park, Wednesday evening, October 26. Deputy commissioner Master Ansnach, who is also scoutmaster of Troop 31, which meet at the high school, acted as host and had charge of the rally. One of the main events was a pie eating contest in which everyone took part. Other events were a peanut race, inspection, and mass games. As part of the program for the rally, Mr. Draper, who is leaving as assistant executive, was presented with a check from the council and a traveling kit from the boys as parting gifts.
