MAGNUS OLANDER DIES AT HIGHWOOD FRIDAY
Old and Respected Resident of That City Is Taken; Two Other Deaths

Magnus Olander, a highly esteemed resident of Highwood for thirty-nine years and one of the oldest citizens of that place, died Friday, Nov. 25, aged 77 years. He had been ill for about six weeks of heart trouble.

Mr. Olander is survived by his wife, Mrs. Martha Olander, and three children, Albert Olander of Glendale, Calif.; Mrs. John E. Crowley and Harry Olander of Highwood. There are six grandchildren.

Deceased had many warm friends in Highwood by whom he was highly regarded during the whole of his long residence there, and there is general sorrow in the community at his death, with deep sympathy for the bereaved relatives.

The funeral service was held Sunday at the residence, and interment was in Memorial Park, Evanston.

CHRISTMAS DECORATION IN NASH SHOW ROOMS

Announcement is made that, in keeping with the Christmas spirit, Nash showrooms here and throughout the country, have been attractively and appropriately decorated for a country-wide "Give a Nash for Christmas" week.

Amid Yuletide surroundings "open house" will be maintained by Nash dealers during this period from December 4 to 11 inclusive. The public is invited to visit the showrooms and to inspect at leisure the various models in the Nash line of cars, ranging in price from $865 to $1990 L.o.b. factory.

There are 24 models in the three series of Nash cars, thus affording the Christmas buyer an opportunity to select just the car in keeping with his purse that would "best surprise the family."

It is of further interest that special easy terms for these Christmas purchases have been announced.
