The kitchen shower given for Miss Jeanette Cherry by Mrs. John Olson and Mrs. Walter Marx at the home of Mrs. Olson in Kenilworth Thursday of last week was a very unique and lovely affair. A group of friends joined together and purchased a complete kitchen outfit in the new red enamel ware and the articles were all packed in a large box which some one had decorated with pictures appropriate to newly weds and to cooking. There were about twenty-five guests present, and a delicious tea was served.

The charm and hospitality of the Thanksgiving holidays always enhances any affair; particularly a wedding with its quiet solemnity. CIVIC OPERA PROGRAM FOR THE ENSUING WEEK

Special Features Sunday Afternoon and Friday Evenings; Daily Bill

With its season nearly half over Chicago's Civic Opera rapidly is reaching the apex of its brilliant term at the Auditorium theater. Attracting larger audiences than ever before in its history throughout seventeen years, the Civic Opera each week draws increasing numbers of music lovers to Chicago to enjoy its rare treats.

The feature more largely responsible than any other for this condition is the new Suburban Special, a matinee performance given at 2 o'clock every Sunday afternoon throughout the season for the benefit of those living remote from the institution. Next Sunday's (Dec. 4) performance will be "Il Trovatore," which enjoys greater popularity with the general public than any other work in the entire lyric drama repertoire. The tremendous array of favorite numbers crowded into the opera, including such classics as "Home to Our Mountains" and "Misere," assures one of the big crowds of the season for that day.

Another very popular feature is found in the occasional Friday evening performances, which have particular appeal to the younger element, due to their having no school demands for the following day. Such a performance is scheduled for next week with "Carmen" as the bid, with Mary Garden in the title role.

The current week will close next Saturday night (Dec. 3) with a popular bill at popular prices. "Madame Butterfly" will be sung on this occasion, with a cast including Elide Norena, "the Norwegian Nightingale," Elinore Mario, Forrest Lamont, Giovanni Polese, Desire Defrere, Vittorio Trevisan and others; Henry G. Weber will conduct.

Sunday afternoon's (Dec. 4) matinee performance of "Il Trovatore" brings forth a wonderful cast—Claudia Musio, Kathryn Meisle, Richard Bonelli, Virgilio Lazzari and others. Weber will conduct.

At Monday (Dec. 5) evening's performance of "The Barber of Seville" Tito Schipa will give his first performance as Almaviva this season, opposite the Rosina of Toti Dal Monte and the Figaro of Giacomo Rimini. Virgilio Lazzari and Vittorio Trevisan will offer their side-splitting comedy in two other important parts. Roberto Moranzoni will conduct.

Mary Garden's first reappearance of the season in Tuesday night's "Monna Vanna" will also bring forward for the first time this winter Fernard Anseau, the noted Belgian tenor, and Vanni-Marcoux, the accomplished Franco-Italian baritone. This will be the first Chicago performance of the Maeterlinck-Fevrier music drama in which these three famous principals have appeared together, and Roberto Moranzoni will conduct the work for the first time. Edward Cotreuil and others will complete the cast. "Monna Vanna" has not been sung at the Auditorium since the season of 1923-24.

"Aida's" pomp, on Wednesday evening, will enlist the services of Claudia Musio, Augusta Lenska, Charles Marshall, Cesare Fornicchi, Virgilio Lazzari and Chase Baromeo. The ballet will be seen in some of its most spectacular dances, and Henry G. Weber will conduct.

Thursday "Tannhauser" will be sung by favorite artists, Leona Kruse Cyrena Van Gordon, Forrest Lamont, Richard Bonelli and Alexander Kipnis and involves the famous "Venusberg" Bacchanale by the ballet. Henry G. Weber will conduct.

The special Friday evening performance of "Carmen" will bring one of the most popular works in the repertoire to its first hearing of the season. The performances of Miss Garden and Mr. Anseau in this "Perfect opera," as it has been called, have always evoked wave after wave of excitement, when given at the Auditorium. Luigi Montesanto's first local appearance in the role of the bull-fighter will be an item of special interest in next Friday's bill. Other newcomers to the "Carmen" cast will be Olga Kargau and Elinor Mario, the young American singers, who will be heard in the roles of Carmen's two friends. Elide Norena will be the Micaela, and Jose Mojica, Desire Defrere and Edouard Cotreuil will also be heard. The ballet will offer new dances in two scenes. Giorgio Polacco will conduct.

Saturday afternoon's performance of "Loreley" will be the last to be given this season of Catalani's delightful adaptation of the legend of the Rhine-maiden. Claudia Musio will once more have the title role in which she has ascended to such great artistic heights. Olga Kargau will be the Anna, and Antonio Cortis, Luigi Montesanto and Chase Baromeo will complete the cast of principals, singing under Giorgio Polacco leadership.

"The Jewels of the Madonna," on Saturday night (Dec. 10) will be sung by the same cast which has won so much adulation in the thrilling musical melodrama earlier in this season: Rosa Raisa, Augusta Lenska, Forrest Lamont, Giacomo Rimini and Jose Mojica being named in the huge cast of thirty-one parts. The ballet will dance and Roberto Moranzoni will conduct.

TRY THIS NEXT SUNDAY
Get up and have a nice breakfast at home. Then go to Sunday school and church. After that go to the HOWARD-UDELL CAFETERIA and have a nice dinner—Baked ham, chicken, or roast beef with all that goes with it. Then hop in the family "bus" and go for a nice ride. Isn't that better than fussing around the kitchen half of the day? It's just as economical to eat at the Cafeteria as at home and no work connected with it.

Strikingly New!
People with whom Pierce-Arrow is a tradition, and there are thousands, are delightfully surprised by the ultra-modishness of the new car—and by its moderate price.

The things we treasure are not thought of in terms of price

Stop before the finest shop you know, and what do you see that you want most? Isn't it something that expresses the artistry of human hands wrought upon worthy materials—something which suggests enduring beauty and serviceability?

It may be a fine piece of furniture—or a rare rug from the Orient—or an exquisite bit of jewelry. But, whatever it is, you will want it because of its price-less perfections.

And that's precisely the appeal of Pierce-Arrow—particularly the new Pierce-Arrow, which besides is as smart as a Parisian mode.

PIERCE-ARROW
The NEW Series 81

You may purchase a Pierce-Arrow out of income, if you prefer. A simplified financing plan makes this a most practical procedure. Your present car accepted as cash up to the full amount of its appraisal valuation.
