WILL DURANT, AUTHOR TO SPEAK IN EVANSTON

Will Appear Saturday Evening at Woman's Club; Tickets on Sale

Will Durant, author of "The Story of Philosophy," a best seller since the day of its publication, will lecture in Evanston on Saturday evening, Dec. 10, at eight o'clock, in the Woman's club at the corner of Chicago Avenue and Church street.

Dr. Durant who is one of the most sought-for lecturers on the American platform was born at North Adams, Mass. In childhood he was educated by French Catholic nuns, and was destined for the priesthood. His readings in philosophy however, caused him to abandon that course, and instead he went to Columbia where he studied with John Dewey until he received his doctor's degree. He then became associated with the department of philosophy of the university, also lecturing at the Labor Temple in New York. He later was appointed director of education of the Labor temple.

Always interested in philosophy, he was anxious to present a view of it clear and simple enough to appeal to the general public. For this work he made preparation during many years, but neither he nor his publishers had any conception that the book would find a public so eager that it would immediately become a best seller and exceeding 182,000 copies in 18 months.

Dr. Durant has most penetrating insight into modern day problems, morals and ideals and his lectures are interesting and stimulating. He appears on Saturday night under the auspices of the Miller School Mothers' club of Evanston, to augment its special equipment fund. Tickets are obtainable from Mrs. Edward B. Hall, 1430 Hinman Avenue, Evanston, or at the door if the house is not oversold.

GYM CLASSES FOR WOMEN ARE POPULAR

Meet Monday Nights at High School; Is Called Woman's Gymnastic League

The gymnasium class for women at the high school, meeting on Monday nights at 7:30, steadily grows in popularity.

Last Monday the class formed a working organization, with a treasurer, in order that the rulings of the board of education might be met. The name of the class now becomes "The Woman's Gymnastic League," and the league is open to all. Diets, both for putting on and taking off weight, are given out, should the members wish them. The exercises given are for all-around general toning up, no exercise being too difficult for a beginner, folk dancing and games are also included. This is followed by a period of swimming, with careful instruction. Age, beyond that of being over high school age, is not thought of, and there are gray hairs aplenty, as well as brighter hues. More women are urged to take advantage of this organization.

"BROADWAY" BREAKS RECORD IN CHICAGO

World Wide Success Enters Fourth Month at Selwyn Theater

With its mingled elements of comedy, tragedy, girls and music "Broadway" has literally swept Chicago off its feet during its long run at the Selwyn theater. Jed Harris' colorful drama of the cabarets is now in its fourth month at the Dearborn street playhouse and in the matter of average weekly receipts, Chicago heads the list of cities where the play is now on view, including New York, Philadelphia, Boston, San Francisco, Berlin, Vienna, Budapest and Sofia. London gave it thirty-five profitable weeks last season.

The world-wide success of "Broadway" has been variously ascribed to its unique blending of comedy and tragedy, its splendid stage direction and its novelty of theme and atmosphere but with the rank and file of playgoers its absorbing and well-acted story is probably the strongest factor in its success. Hoy Roy Lane, an egotistical but likeable young "hooper" in a New York night club makes love to Billie Moore, a beginner in the chorus, and rescues her from the clutches of a vicious gang leader, is told in colorful, swift-moving scenes in which gay humor is interspersed with grim tragedy. All the action takes place "back-stage" in the club and there is a bevy of sprightly chorus girls to add realistic musical comedy atmosphere. A jazz orchestra also lends pep to the performance.

Despite the heavy attendance at the Selwyn theater, good seats can be bought at the box office for any performance, including the regular matinees on Thursday and Saturday and the special Christmas matinee on Monday, Dec. 26. Christmas shoppers who plan to visit Chicago can order seats by mail or obtain additional information by telephoning the box office, Central 3404. Night performances begin at 8:25 and matinees at 2:25.

The college students may not have exercised their brains very much while watching the football games, but anyway their throats have had all the exercise needed.

SUNSET VALLEY INDOOR GOLF SCHOOL TO OPEN

William Kelly In Charge; Will Be Held In H. P. Athletic Club Hall

On December 15 the Sunset Valley Golf club will open their indoor golf school at the Highland Park Athletic club hall 515 1/2 West Central Avenue, (across from the post office.) We have three spacious driving nets, a nine hole putting course and we are endeavoring to install one of Mr. Decker's new putting machines that went over so big at the annual Golf show for the past two years. There is no doubt in our mind that many a pleasant hour will be passed by the members of Sunset Valley and their friends.

The fees to join the club will be very reasonable and you will receive two half-hour lessons a week from Wm. Kelly, who has been connected with Sunset Valley for the past six years. The members will be notified by mail and those who are not and would like to join can get in touch with Mr. Kelly at the school from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m. or call Highland Park 857-R.

Linen Preserved Scientifically

The American Institute of Laundering at Joliet, Ill., and the Fellowship at Mellon's Institute, Pittsburgh, which has been carrying on research work for years, are two good reasons why the housewife should let us do her laundering. The Institute and Fellowship are supported and controlled by the National Laundry Owners Association and have done a wonderful service for the homes of this country, by showing the laundries how to protect health, to wash and preserve, scientifically, every article that can be laundered.
