COMING FEATURES IN CIVIC OPERA PROGRAM

Interesting Bills During Next Ten Days Are Outlined In Bulletin

Having reached the crest of the season, Chicago's Civic opera continues to crowd the calendar with rare lyric treats. The current week, (Dec. 4 to 10), will be brought to a melodious close with a special performance of "Carmen" on Friday evening, Dec. 9, with Mary Garden in the name part, and a performance of the spectacular Wolf-Ferrari opera, "Jewels of the Madonna" at popular prices Saturday night.

The seventh festive week of Chicago's most lavish lyric season will open with the usual Suburban special matinee on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 11, with an all-star cast in the most tuneful of operas, "Martha." Edith Mason, Tito Schipa, Irene Pavloska, Virgilio Lazzari and Vittorio Trevisan will have leading roles in which they have frequently won the plaudits of enthusiastic audiences, and Roberto Moranzoni will conduct the tuneful, sparkling work.

"Tosca" will be sung Monday evening by the brilliant cast which gave so exciting a performance of Puccini's tragedy at its one earlier hearing of the winter.

The eagerly awaited revival of Donizetti's "Linda di Chamounx" is the Tuesday evening bill. Toti Dal Monte will be Linda to the Carlo of Tito Schipa. Mme. Dal Monte is new to Chicagoans in this famous coloratura role; Mr. Schipa has sung in only one previous performance of the work here. Lorna Doone Jackson, Maria Claessens, Vittorio Trevisan, Luigi Montesanto, Virgilio Lazzari and Lodovico Oliviero complete the cast for the brilliant work. Roberto Moranzoni will conduct.

On Wednesday evening Mary Garden will resume the title role of "Louise" after a conspicuous interval of several seasons. The part has long been one of her most effective ones.

"Zigolotto" will have its first performance this season as Thursday night's bill. Toti Dal Monte will be the Gilda, Antonio Cortis the Duke, Cesare Formichi the ill-fated Jester, Virgilio Lazzari the assassin, and Lorna Doone Jackson the Maddalena. The ballet will be seen in incidental dances and Henry G. Weber will conduct. Part of this performance will be broadcast.

The Auditorium will be dark on Friday, as the company moves to Milwaukee to give two performances that day.

"The Masked Ball" will be sung at the Saturday matinee by Rosa Raisa, Augusta Lenska, Charles Marshall, Richard Bonelli, Anna Hamlin, Virgilio Lazzari and Antonio Nicolich, Antonio Sabina conducting.

Saturday night's gala triple bill, at popular prices, will consist of "Gianni Schicchi," "Cacalleria Rusticana" and a ballet.

COUNTY MEETING OF LEGION POSTS DEC. 16

To Be Held at Fort Sheridan And Large Attendance Is Expected

Preliminary arrangements made for the next American Legion county meeting to be held in the Armory at Fort Sheridan, Illinois, on Friday, Dec. 16, 1927, indicate a very interesting and successful meeting. Doctor B. J. Cigrand, the founder of the American Flag Day association, will be the principal speaker and will speak on the origin and meaning of the United States flag. Doctor Cigrand is a faculty member of the University of Illinois, and Americanization officer of the Roosevelt Aurora Post of the American Legion. He will give diagrams of early flags, colonial, continental and national, and this certainly should prove a treat to hear and ought not to be missed by any of our post officers or council members. Jimmie Sykora, present commander of the Second division, and Ben Kreider, past commander, have also been invited. Daddy Schick, past department commander, and Father Joe Lonergan, past national chaplain, have also been invited.

STATE FAIR FOR 1928 STARTS ON AUGUST 18

The annual Illinois State Fair will open on August 18, 1928, according to the announcement of S. J. Standard, director, Department of Agriculture, and will continue until August 25.

In accordance with the usual custom the Kankakee interstate fair, of which Governor Len Small is secretary, will be held during the preceding week, from August 13 to 17. Dates for other of the county fairs of the state will be decided upon, probably in January.
