MRS. VAN INGEN NEW SCHOOL LIBRARIAN

Lake Forest Woman Succeeds Mrs. MacBenn at Deerfield-Shields

Deerfield-Shields high school engaged Mrs. W. Dirk Van Ingen of Lake Forest to fill the librarian's position vacated by Mrs. MacBenn. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Van Ingen was Miss Margaret Ridlon, a graduate of Simmons college of Boston, a librarian's school. After she was graduated from Simmons college in 1912 she was made the reference librarian of Williams college.

Following her work at William's college she returned to Simmons college as a teacher, and she remained there in this role for three years. She was then put in charge of the special catalogues at Chicago.

For sometime she was the librarian of Yerkes observatory, during which time she was snowbound for three months, and then she came to Highland Park as the librarian of the public library.

One of the features of Mrs. Van Ingen's work was the preparation for printing of an edition of the works of war correspondents. This work was extremely difficult as the paper was of poor quality as was the ink.
