Swedish Methodist

Highwood Avenue and Everts place. William W. Nelson, pastor. Our mother church in Chicago, the First Swedish M. E. church, located on the corner of Highland Avenue and Paulina Street, is now celebrating its diamond jubilee. Seventy-five years ago this month that church was organized as the result of an evangelistic campaign conducted by "The Swedish Wesleys," namely Olof and Jonas Hedstrom. Anyone who desires to hear the entire history of Old First church may know the entire story by tuning in on WIBO next Sunday morning, Jan. 15, at 8:30 a. m., at which time Dr. C. G. Wallenius will give a short address on Chicago Swedish Methodism and the founding of the First church.

In order that everyone may take the opportunity to visit Old First church sometime this week we have decided to cancel all our meetings for the week with the exception of Friday evening when a Union choir practice will be held at church.

The Diamond Jubilee program will continue for the next two weeks during which time services will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings at 7:45 p. m.
