URGING STRATTON FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

A petition is being circulated in Lake county urging William J. Stratton of Lake county to enter the race for secretary of state and giving him a strong endorsement for same. The same form is to be circulated in other counties of the district. Mr. Stratton has been considering the matter for some time but has not yet made a decision to enter the race. This petition is intended to indicate to him that his friends want him to run. It follows:

Whereas, the counties in northern Illinois have always contributed large and dependable majorities to Republican candidates and it is appropriate that these counties should be awarded recognition in accordance with the vote they continually give to the Republican ticket; and

Whereas, the four counties in the 17th judicial district are among the most opulous in Illinois and are among the banner counties of Illinois in the return of the Republican majorities; and

Whereas, the Republicans of the 17th judicial district are among the for a high state honor, who for many years has been a loyal worker for Republican success, and who, in all position in the public service which he has filled, has demonstrated ability character and integrity.

Therefore, We, the undersigned Republicans of the 17th judicial district do hereby endorse for secretary of state of Illinois, the Hon. William J. Stratton of Lake county; we vouch to the people of Illinois for his honesty, integrity and high character; we attest to his eminent qualifications for this high office; and we appeal to the Republican voters of the state at large to join with us in nominating and electing him secretary of the state of Illinois.

When we think of any dish with the name Creole, we expect to find something that is very well seasoned and quite satisfying in flavor.

Creole macaroni, the recipe for which I am going to give you, is a dish that is very well liked and may be used for the main dish for a meal or as a side dish to serve with meat.

Creole Macaroni

- 1 cup macaroni cooked in
- 2 quarts boiling water with
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt.
- When done, drain and rinse with cold water.
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1/4 cup green pepper cut fine
- 2 tablespoons onion cut fine
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 2 cups strained tomato
- 3 tab. American cheese cut fine.
- Melt butter in double boiler, add green pepper and onion. Mix flour, salt paprika and mustard and add. Pour into this gradually the strained tomato and cook until it thickens slightly. Add cheese and stir until melted.

Place alternate layers of macaroni and sauce in greased baking dish, having sauce on top. Cover with buttered crumbs, prepared by melting 2 tablespoons butter and stirring in to it 1/4 cup fine bread crumbs. Bake 1/2 hour at 450.

This macaroni may be baked at a lower temperature if you prefer or if you are using a lower temperature for other foods and wish to bake it at the same time. In that case it will require longer baking.

WOMEN VOTERS LEAGUE SPONSOR BYRD LECTURE

The Illinois League of Women Voters is sponsoring the one public appearance of Commander Richard E. Byrd in Chicago. This famous international flyer appears at Orchestra hall on the night of January 25, to tell his own story of his recent trans-Atlantic flight, show motion pictures and outline plans for his next big adventure—his aerial expedition to the South Pole.

Byrd the brother of the Governor of Virginia and a native of the south holds the record of being America's great scientist of the air. His pleasing voice, humor, magnetic personality, as well as, his thrilling story promise an unusual treat for those of the public who succeed in securing tickets which go on sale at the box office, January 16.

"Doesn't your wife miss you when you stay out till three o'clock in the morning?"
"Yes, but as a rule her aim is perfect."
