NEW MAGAZINES ADDED TO LIST AT LIBRARY

Only a little casual observation is needed to convince one that Americans are primarily readers of periodicals and only secondarily of books.

To better meet this situation the following titles have been added to the general list already found at the public library: Arts and Decorations, Antiques, Children; a magazine for parents, Current History, Forum, Good Housekeeping, Musical Quarterly, New Era, Popular Mechanics, Progressive Education, Drama, Publisher's Weekly.

The Atlantic, Harpers, World's Work and Scribner's are also received in duplicate and made ready for circulation as soon as delivered.

Back numbers of magazines which are not to be bound later are also available for circulation.

PIKE COUNTY APPLES CAPTURE STATE PRIZE

Take All First Premiums at Annual Horticultural Exposition. Report

Pike county apples captured all first prizes in competition open to the state, in the annual exposition of the Illinois Horticultural society at Urbana recently. E. L. Walker, Pearl, won first with the best collection of ten or more varieties, and first in the competitive exhibits of apples in plates, trays, baskets and barrels. From Calhoun county, collections entered by Ringhausen & Son, Hardin, placed second, and J. H. Allison, also of Hardin, won third.

"The high quality of Illinois grown fruit, the shortage of the 1927 yield, and the fact that apple growers have disposed of the apple crop are evident in this exposition," Chief Fruit Inspector Cummins stated. "No finer fruit was grown in any section, but this year the production was cut short, prices have been high, and comparatively few growers have any choice collection left for exhibition purposes."

Applicant: "I'm thinking about joining the Marines. Is your drill intense?"

Sergeant: "Naw, outdoors—on the parade ground."

Must Hair Chaser

"Why do you always carry a canteen of water when you go hunting?"

"So I can take a chaser after every shot."
