

R. E. P. KLINE'S NEXT LECTURE FEBRUARY 1

"The Challenge of Fascism" Subject of Talk at the Woman's Club

Do you wish to have an intelligent knowledge of the big movement in Italy called "Fascism"? Just what it is and what it is accomplishing, and what reaction does it have on other countries—and our own United States?

All these questions will be answered in Mr. R. E. P. Kline's next lecture "The Challenge of Fascism" having postponed his lecture on "Changing Conceptions of American Life," until the following lecture.

Do you prefer to sit home and read, or do you feel that Mr. Kline in bringing as he does, everything into its proper relations in world affairs, can give you more than you could get from any magazine article?

These lectures are open to all whether members of the club or not. His next lecture will be next Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 10:30 a. m.

WIFE OF FORMER ZION POLICE CHIEF IS DEAD

Victim of Heart Trouble While on Waukegan Street Wednesday Morning

Mrs. Theodore Becker, wife of the former Zion police chief, dropped dead Wednesday morning at ten o'clock in front of the S. S. Kresge Co. store at 16 North Genesee street, Waukegan. Heart disease is believed to have been the immediate cause of death.

The identity of the Zion woman remained a mystery until 1:30 Wednesday afternoon when Walter Greenfield and B. Sweeney, both clerks in Zion stores, viewed the body and made the identification. Both men said they have been acquainted with the decedent for the past 30 years.

Mr. Becker left for Chicago shortly before noon and was not aware of the death of his wife until late Wednesday.

LAKE FOREST CHAUFFEUR AWARDED BIG DAMAGES

Damages of $11,500 last week were awarded William Kimberly, chauffeur for Walter J. Smith, Lake Forest, from David J. Molloy, Lake Forest, who is owner of a book binding plant in Chicago, by a jury in the circuit court that had deliberated four hours before reaching a verdict.

Kimberly, who is about 37 years old, claimed through Attorney William Morrow, that he had sustained permanent injuries that would keep him from ever performing the duties of a chauffeur. His surgical and hospital bills thus far had run him in excess of $3,000 and loss of time from his work had cost him the same amount, he testified.

Motion for a new trial was made by defendant's counsel and will be argued later.

SYNDICATE PURCHASES TRACT NEAR LAKE BLUFF

A syndicate headed by Paul Demos, an attorney, has purchased from the Foreman Trust and Savings bank, as trustee, the sixty acres on Green Bay road, at Lake Bluff, opposite the P. D. Armour estate and immediately south of the Ralph Poole estate, at a reported $2,500 an acre, or a total of $150,000. The new owners intend to subdivide, but not for at least a year, according to C. W. Teater, broker for all parties.

"KONGO" NOW PLAYING AT MINTURN-CENTRAL

"Kongo" is a tale of the rubber lands, more daring than "Rain" or "White Cargo." It pictures a cripple, one Flint, who was injured years before by an enemy and who, forced to spend the rest of his days in a wheelchair, has gone to live apart from his fellow beings, to hate them collectively and individually and to rule with iron hand all who come under his thumb.

From his wheel chair, armed always with a whip by which he holds a threat over those who would cross him, Flint spends the days in planning the downfall of the man who ruined him and incidentally succeeds in taking on the character of a demigod in the eyes of the ignorant natives. He succeeds in bringing about the ruin of his malefactor and also wrecks the life of a girl he supposes to be the daughter of the man.

A more picturesque spot could not have been selected for a story of the wild, unbridled life of the jungle than the Belgian Congo and when the authors selected this locale in which to set Kongo they knew their geography by heart.

Of all the South Sea Island stories ever written in play form not one has equalled the jungle tale of love, hate and intrigue of "Kongo" in the minds of the American playgoers. The original New York Biltmore theater production is now being presented at the Minturn-Central, Chicago, featuring Howard Sinclair and an all-star cast.

Certain financial experts are now proposing to cut the German reparations and scale down the allied debts in the same proportion. Which is only another method of inducing Uncle Sam to pay for the whole year.

FORMER LAKE COUNTY NEWSPAPER MAN DIES

Lata rites over the body of the late Milton L. Dunn, veteran Chicago newspaper man and member of a family long prominent in Waukegan, were held at North Shore cemetery at 3 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. Full military honors were accorded the deceased who served in the World war.

The deceased who has served for many years as telegraph editor of the Chicago Herald and Examiner, was the son of the late Byron A. Dunn, noted author and the editor of Waukegan's first daily newspaper, the Register.

GAUGING STATIONS ARE MAINTAINED IN STATE

Report of the Department of Registration and Education of Illinois shows a total of thirty-four gauging stations were maintained in the state during 1927 in co-operation with army engineers, the weather department, state and municipal officers and private persons.

SUGGESTS NEW METHOD TO PRESERVE QUAILS

A novel way to increase the number of quail in a section is suggested by William E. Hunt, a Chester county, Pennsylvania, game warden who recommends that during the winter coverts of bob-whites be trapped and turned loose in big barns where they will be protected from the rigors of the cold months and may obtain a plentiful supply of grain and other food. When spring comes, say Mr. Hunt, "distribute the birds in pairs over the territory to be stocked and each pair of birds will produce a covey."

JENS JENSEN TALKS AT ROTARY MEETING

Jens Jensen, well known landscape architect, was the principal speaker at the regular Monday luncheon of the Rotary club at the Moraine hotel. He suggested various ways of improving the appearance of the city and his talk was heard with appreciation. The club will be formally presented its charter on Tuesday evening, Jan. 31, for which event a special program is being planned.

Desert Song

The fourth month of "The Desert Song's" engagement finds it still crowding the Great Northern theater beyond capacity. Alexander Gray, Charlotte Lansing, and Bernard Granville remain at the head of an excellent cast which plays up the charm of this colorful operetta to the fullest.

"Just Fancy" which opened Sunday night at the Olympic theater is acclaimed one of the most beautiful and pleasing musical romances in recent years. The cast includes Raymond Hitchcock, Ivy Sawyer, Joseph Santley, Eric Blore, Mrs. Thomas Whiffen, and H. Reeves-Smith. "Just Fancy" should stay at the Olympic a long time.

Illinois was divided into fifteen counties when it was admitted to the Union.

The Jazz Singer

Al Jolson's Vitaphone motion picture, "The Jazz Singer," enters its seventh week at the Garrick, continuing to be one of the most popular shows in town at the daily matinees and evening performances. Jolson seems to be really there with his audience, just as he has been so many times on this same stage at the Garrick. All classes of theater patrons have found diverting entertainment in "The Jazz Singer," which features many of Al Jolson's songs and some new ones.

Many of the people who complain of the cost of renting houses, are the same ones who do careless things that lead to fires and thus add to the cost of owning buildings.

The ethical philosophers tell us the American people need more balance in their lives, and the people who have to walk on slippery sidewalks will say so.

The old time boy who used to do some powerful scratching of his head to get his arithmetic lesson, has to go even deeper into his hair roots to figure out his income tax.
