ANYTHING POSSIBLE IN CAMP, BELIEF

The Republican presidential campaign has now reached the point where almost anything can happen any time. There is to be noted a new and a quickening stir in the camps of the various candidates. Conferences and discussions are being carried on relative to the selection of campaign managers, headquarters' activities and ways and means with which to best obtain the desired results.

Chairman William M. Butler, of the Republican National Committee, who has been in town during the week working on the details of the coming convention, has again made it clear that so far as the National Committee is concerned it is to be a free field, and that the committee as an organization is neither for anybody nor against anybody. This is, of course, the ideal and proper attitude, and there is evidence in plenty that his course is satisfactory to all the candidates real and potential.

Butler, himself, is scrupulously observing of the mandate which he has laid down, and it is worth remembering that at Kansas City he handled himself so skilfully as chairman of the Committee on Arrangements, that throughout the three-day session he engaged the attention of his committee associates so continuously with the details of the coming convention that even if they had had an inclination there was no opportunity allowed to talk politics.

PROMPT PUNISHMENT HALTS BANK ROBBERY

ILLINOIS STATISTICS SHOW

State Bankers Association Has Figures Indicating That Heavy Sentences Have Salutary Effect

Setting of maximum sentences for bank robbers sentenced to prisons of Illinois had a salutary effect during 1927, it is announced by the Illinois Bankers' association. During the year but one bandit made living wages, obtaining $10,200 from the Calumet City First Trust and Savings bank. During 1924, when bank robbery was at its height in the state, daylight stickups of financial institutions netted the robbers $283,000 between April 1 and December 15. During this period there were fifty-seven robberies. For the corresponding nine months of 1925 there were eighteen bank robberies, with losses totalling $58,319. Total losses suffered by banks in Illinois during the twelve months of 1927 is reported as $17,911.54.

Maximum Sentences Imposed Under the law, previous to July 1, 1927, armed robbery carried a penalty of ten years to life in the penitentiary. With the change in this law the minimum was reduced, but the life maximum retained.

During the closing months of 1925 and the fore part of 1926 immediate hearings were given by the Division of Pardons and Paroles to all inmates of the penitentiaries under sentences of bank robbery, with maximum sentences imposed in all cases. At one session of the division at Chester nineteen bandits were given life sentences, and at the meeting at Joliet an equal number were given like settings. Word quickly passed to the underworld, with the result bank robbery has steadily increased in the state, until the loss sustained during 1927 reached the lowest point in many years.

TRY THIS NEXT SUNDAY

Get up and have a nice breakfast at home. Then go to Sunday school and church. After that go to the HOWARD-UDELL CAFETERIA and have a nice dinner—Baked ham, chicken, or roast beef with all that goes with it. Then hop in the family "bus" and go for a nice ride. Isn't that better than fussing around the kitchen half of the day? It's just as economical to eat at the Cafeteria as at home and no work connected with it.
