—If Quality Counts, We Will Merit Your Patronage—

Miss Inez Webster has been a guest in Kenilworth for two weeks at the home of her brother, Albert Webster.
 She has had a merry round of dinner parties, afternoon bridge parties and teas given in her honor. Last Saturday, Mrs. George Jones of Oxford road entertained at dinner for Miss Webster who is devoting her life to relief work in the Near East and soon will leave again for Russia.
 Mr. and Mrs. James Guinan, now living in the Taylor house on Kenilworth avenue, have purchased the Hannah residence on Abbottsford road which was left vacant by the recent death of Mrs. A. D. Hannah.
 They will move into their new home in the very near future.
 Mrs. Arthur C. Sullivan and her oldest son, Arthur, Jr., of 830 Hill road, Winnetka, left recently for a two months' trip to Chandler, Ariz., and Pasadena, Calif. Mrs. Sullivan is the sister of Miss Betty Pain, one of the season's popular debutantes, who recently was chosen as one of the new members of the Service club.
 Mr. and Mrs. S. Scott Joy, 370 Sheridan road, Winnetka, and their daughters, Dorothy and Elizabeth, and their son, Robert, left early last Saturday morning to motor down to Florida. On their way they will stop at Washington and Virginia.
 The Joys have gone down to take up their residence at their winter home near the Mountain Lake club, Lake Wales.
 Mrs. Maurice Lieber of 468 Ridge avenue was operated upon Monday morning at the Evanston hospital and is now reported to be recovering nicely. She will probably be at the hospital for two or three more weeks. Her two sisters, Mrs. C. F.
 Miller and Mrs. C. H. Bellamore, came for Kenosha to be with her and have been staying at the Lieber home.
 Mr. and Mrs. John S. Miller left Winnetka on a six weeks' trip to Bermuda. They will spend some of their time at Nassau. They sailed from New York last Saturday on the S.S. Capitol.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chales Nace Ramsey of Wilmette have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Jane, to Phillip H. Kemper, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kemper of Chicago.
