The Winnetka Congregational church was decorated with spring flowers and ferns for the wedding Saturday afternoon of Miss Rachel Weston to John Foster Manierre. At 4:30 o'clock, the Rev. James Austin Richards read the marriage service, and immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Foster, 596 Maple avenue.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon and point applique lace. The skirt was made of flounces of the lace, which came from the wedding dress of the bride's mother. The veil was of real lace, and the train white satin. She carried a shower bouquet.

The bridesmaids' gowns were also made of chiffon and lace. All of them were bois de rose, and their horsehair hats were the same color. They carried arm bouquets of spring flowers. The matron of honor, Mrs. Francis P. Magoun, Jr. (Margaret Boyden), was dressed the same as the other bridal attendants. The bridesmaids were Miss Katherine Manierre, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Malcolm Shroyer of Chicago, Miss Helen Hough of New York City, and Miss Susan Carey of Baltimore.

Dillon R. Brown was Mr. Manierre's best man and the ushers were Malcolm Shroyer, Robert Porter, Arthur Moulding, Thomas Strachan, Dudley Sherwood, and Philip Schofield.

After a short trip to the country home of Mr. Manierre's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John T. Manierre, the young couple will be at home at 817 Chestnut court, Winnetka. Their real honeymoon will be a European trip this summer, after Mr. Manierre's graduation from the Northwestern university law school.

Guests who came from out-of-town for the wedding were Mrs. Frederick P. Bagley and her two daughters, of Boston; Mrs. Cleaves Bennett of Champaign; Mrs. Paul R. Reed of Boston; and Mrs. John W. Meyers of Boston.

Many parties were given last week in honor of the bride-elect. The first of this series was a buffet supper last Sunday evening, given by Miss Katherine Manierre at the Manierre home in Chicago. Tuesday Mrs. Charles Mordock of 645 Maple avenue, Winnetka, gave a kitchen shower and bridge. Two parties came on Wednesday, Miss Doris Seeberger's luncheon and theater party in Chicago, and Mrs. William C. Boyden's dinner at her home, 725 Pine street. Mrs. Malcolm Shroyer of Chicago gave a dinner Thursday evening for Miss Foster, while Mr. Manierre gave his bachelor dinner at his parents' home. The last of the affairs was the bridal dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Foster Friday evening at their home.

Miss Elizabeth Eberhart of Evanston, formerly of Kenilworth, Miss Frances Allworth of Wilmette and Miss Margery Oleson of Kenilworth with Dryden Eberhart of Evanston, Bruce Thomas of Winnetka and Harry Wilson of Wilmette spent last weekend at a house party at Wauconda as guests of Mrs. Ward Martin of Chicago.

Winnetka friends of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence P. Robinson, formerly of Winnetka will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Mayo, to Brewster Hopkinson Shaw, son of Mrs. John T. Shaw of Bloomfield Hills, Detroit.

Miss Robinson attended school at New Trier high school, followed by a year or two in high school at Madison, Wis., where her parents moved. She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Shaw is also a graduate of Wisconsin, being a member of the same class. He is in business in Detroit. No date has as yet been set for the wedding.

Miss Helen Crews Bradford of 956 Greenwood avenue, Hubbard Woods, who recently announced her engagement to Garold Clairmont Jenison of Oak Park, was entertained by Miss Bernice Bulley of 220 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, at a kitchen shower Saturday, Feb. 25. Miss Bradford has set her wedding date as June 16.

Mrs. Frank Daegling of Beechwood avenue, Wilmette, and Mrs. George Ortfelsen of 337 Essex road, Kenilworth, served tea at the meeting February 15, at the Foundation for St. Francis hospital. Miss Laura Steack of Evanston played several piano selections. The members of the foundation discussed plans for the festival to be held next June for the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pomeroy of Hubbard Woods announce the engagement to Harold Clairmont Jenison of Charles Donnelly Boak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boak. The wedding will be an event of next autumn.

Miss Bernice Bulley of 220 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, in company with Miss Mary and Dorothy Neal of Evanston, sailed on March 6, for an interesting trip through Europe. They will visit Gibraltar, Spain, Italy, and Switzerland; take a trip up the Rhine, then visit Holland, Belgium, France, and end their trip with a three weeks' stay in England, returning home the middle of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman M. Goble of Winnetka returned recently from an interesting tour of the southern states. They were members of one of the "Gold Special" trains, and visited eighteen cities throughout the south. Gulf Port, Biloxi, Lake Wales, and Clearwater, Fla., were included in the stops. The party made its home on the train during the entire trip, and was allowed time each day to play golf in the various cities.

Roy C. Seery, Jr., 414 Abbottsford road, Kenilworth, is again at home after a six weeks' trip including Tampa, Miami Beach, and Havana. He returned by way of New Orleans.

Markham B. Orde and his daughter, D'Arcy, of 486 Greenleaf avenue, left Wednesday to spend March in Florida. On the way home they will stop at New Orleans. Mr. and Mrs. Brownell Bradstreet of 259 Church road, Winnetka, will spend the month with Mrs. Orde.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Murray of 433 Cunnor road, Kenilworth, have been enjoying the past several weeks in Belleair, Fla. Mr. Murray returned home last week, but will meet Mrs. Murray in a few weeks at Princeton, N. J., where they will visit their son, John Robert, who is attending Princeton university. At present Mrs. Murray is in Miami enjoying a prolonged vacation with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Gillett will leave their home at 481 Grove street, Winnetka, Monday, March 5, to motor to Avon Park, Fla. They will take their granddaughter, Doris Biddle of Evanston, with them. In Florida they will meet their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, who are there with their son.

Miss Margery Oleson of 240 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, entertained last Friday evening. The guests were Miss Frances Allworth, Miss Betty Burns, Miss Alice Walton, Miss Marjorie Cooke, Miss Jeanne Culver, Miss Elizabeth Evans, Miss Carolyn Baker, all of Wilmette and Miss Elizabeth Eberhart of Evanston.

STROLLERS' CLASSES IN ENGLISH SCHOOLS

Visits of "department strollers," students in English classes who have special dramatic ability, assist in visualizing English work in Boys' High School, Brooklyn, N. Y. The boys pass from one English section to another, giving short performances of scenes selected from great masterpieces which they have previously studied and rehearsed. Other methods of visualization in English work are used, including talks in "picture form" by pupils on assigned topics, in connection with a stereopticon lantern operated by a fellow pupil.

Irate Master to negro servant: "Rastus, I thought I told you to get a domestic turkey. This one has shot in it."
Rastus: "I done got a domestic turkey, sah."
Master: "Well, how did the shot get in it?"
Rastus: "I 'specks they was meant foh me, sah."
