BABE RUTH PICTURE MAY BE SHOWN HERE

Probability That Mandamus Suit May Be Settled by Permit to Exhibit

Indications are that the mandamus suit started in circuit court against the City of Highland Park by the First National Pictures, Inc., because the picture "Babe Comes Home" was barred from exhibition here by the censor will be settled by permitting the showing of the picture. The case was to come up for hearing in circuit court last week, but was continued, and at the meeting of the city council Monday evening the corporation counsel recommended that the mayor grant a permit for the showing. This is expected to settle the matter. Babe Ruth is featured in the picture, which depicts a baseball game. One of the items objected to was that Babe is represented in the act of taking a "chew" of tobacco.
