Charming New Spring Fashions

YOUTHFUL, insouciant frocks — the very personification of Spring-time Joy and the last word in radiant new Fashion!

A varied and colorful collection, indeed, with every new style tendency—every whimsical mood of fashion—pleasantly accentuated.

There are models demurely simple and shyly modest—others audaciously bizarre and dashing.

Softly dainty models, elaborately feminine—severely simple ones—smartly tailored.

One piece and two piece.

But all undeniably feminine—utterably smart and becoming.

And in variety of materials, colors and styles—in quality, workmanship and price—this collection is incomparable.

For there is a model for every woman—from the gay little flapper to the smart matron, at the price she chooses to pay.

D. A. R. MEMBERS IN HISTORICAL PROGRAM

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt and Mrs. Truax Among Speakers; Names for Chairs

With a large collection of beautiful Liberty Loan posters decorating the walls of the big living room and spacious hall of the home of Mrs. Gordon Buchanan on Moraine road, a very appropriate setting was made for the March meeting of the North Shore Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution last Thursday afternoon and a great number of members were present to hear the program given by two of their number.

Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. read excerpts from her book The History of Deerfield in her subject The History of Lake County. She said in part: "Thomas Arkel Clark, Dean of Men of the University of Illinois wrote:

Perpetuating Memory
Tombstones Cannot Do It
There is in every human breast, I believe, a desire and a hope that when life is ended his name shall not be entirely forgotten and that those whom he has known and loved shall be equally remembered. It was this desire to have their memories perpetuated, that actuated the old Egyptian kings to build pyramids and yet these are wasting away. A generation or two is quite enough to wipe out the memory of the ordinary man. Only our deeds can keep our memories green. In time the graves of each of us will be neglected and our names forgotten.

Mrs. Sewall Truax gave a very interesting talk on Historic Spots in our Eastern States. Showing four huge scrap books containing pictures of places that she has visited, and of literary Americans who live in that vicinity. Mrs. Truax related her experiences on the National Trail and the Military and Toll roads.

The stories of Barbara Fritchie and George Washington's mother's meditation rocks, also of Kenmore, the home of Betty Washington Fielding were picturesquely narrated.

Mrs. Seyfarth said that a Southern woman told her that Kenmore was saved from real estate subdividers and kept as a national shrine by "praying to the Lord and working like the devil."

The three chairs in Memorial continental hall, for which the North Shore Chapter has sent money recently, had six former regent's names proposed for nameplates on the chairs. The vote cast was Mrs. J. F. Leaming 21; Mrs. Frank B. Green 18; Miss Henrietta Ord Flint 13; Mrs. Charles Winston 13. The first three were elected. Chairs now bear the names The North Shore Chapter, Laura Dayton Fessenden (the first regent) Sarah Chandler Egan, and Maria Wilder Ragan (a real daughter). Mrs. Nina Wright Winston also gave money for a chair in memory of her mother.

CARNIVAL DANCE AT WITTEN HALL TONIGHT

This evening (Thursday) Manhem lodge No. 37 I. O. V. will hold a carnival dance at Witten hall. A well known orchestra has been secured and all who attend are assured of a pleasant evening.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS BEFRIEND AN ORPHAN

There are two groups of Camp Fire Girls in Highland Park and these are organized under the auspices of the Presbyterian church as a part of its educational program. The girls meet every Monday afternoon at four o'clock in the parish house when they enjoy a program of varied interests, service, and educational features. Membership is open to all girls in Highland Park and any who are interested may attend the meetings at any time.

One part of the Camp Fire Law is "Give Service" and this the girls are doing in a very splendid way. At Christmas time they adopted an orphan, a girl of their own age, who is in the Mary A. Judy Home for Girls at Potomac, Illinois. This home is under the care of the State Child Welfare Bureau but due to its locality, its work is difficult. A part of the obligations which the Camp Fire Girls assumed in befriending this Little Sister who is entirely alone in the world is to provide clothing for her for one year. At Christmas time the girls sent a box of gifts and clothing which they had made under the supervision of one of the mothers and the guardian. At present they are making underclothing of an Easter box and in that box they want to be able to send a brand new dress for Easter. In making these things the girls are not only learning to sew, but they are doing a real piece of service for one less fortunate than themselves.

On Saturday, March twenty-fourth, the Camp Fire Girls will give a cooked food sale at the Lincoln Market as a means of raising money to provide the necessary clothing for their Little Sister. They will appreciate the patronage of each of you. Plan to buy your pastry, cake, and candies for your Sunday dinner at the Lincoln Market, March twenty-fourth.

ST. Patrick's Day
Harp of Gold on Flag of Green, is emblematic of the Isle where dwells the Colleen.
"Ould Erin," they call it—that Isle across the sea—
Where St. Patrick established Christianity.

'Tis well to honor St. Patrick on his Blessed Feast Day,
By the 'wearin' of the Green' and 'Top o' the Mornin' I say;
For, the 'St. Patrick to Ould Erin devoted his time,
By his possession of greatness, he belongs to every clime.
So, we can all feel grateful that he once trod this old earth,
Laboring as the 'Shepherd of Souls' and thus proving his worth.
By Lily M. Gallagher.

N. S. CATHOLIC LEAGUE MEET IN WINNETKA

The North Shore Catholic Women's league held a very interesting meeting in Winnetka on Tuesday afternoon, March 13. Mrs. Sidney Beech of Glencoe addressed the meeting and her topic was The Travel Through the Gardens of the Northwest. The audience was a very appreciative one.

RESIGNS POSITION AT ALCYON THEATER

Bruce Godshaw to Devote Time to Publicity Political Campaign

Bruce Godshaw has resigned as directing-manager of the Alcyon and Pearl theaters. He has made a host of friends in Highland Park and expressed himself as enjoying his stay in this city and speaks of it as one of the most pleasant connections of his theatrical career. He leaves to devote his time to a publicity political campaign for one of the candidates for governor.

His place will be taken by Mr. J. B. Koppel who is well known on the North Shore. Mr. Koppel was manager for six years of the Village theater in Wilmette, where he succeeded in winning the approval of the critical movie patrons of that city and vicinity. Mr. Koppel will return vaudeville to the Alcyon theater on Saturdays and Sundays and announces a novelty evening for Friday nights. Sam Herman has been secured for amusing frolics for several Fridays to come and several radio stars have been booked for personal appearances, the first of which is Miss Irma Glen, America's youngest feature organist, now broadcasting over station WENR.

DR. SHANNON TO SPEAK AT LAKE FOREST SOON

Many North Shore people who have heard Dr. Frederick Shannon of Central church, Chicago, over the radio, will welcome opportunity to hear him personally, when he speaks on four successive days in the chapel at Lake Forest college, beginning March 20. Chapel services last about 30 minutes. Dr. Shannon's addresses will form part of a series of talks before the students by persons of prominence, especially among the clergy. The public is invited to hear Dr. Shannon.

CHILD STUDY GROUP TO MEET MONDAY

The mothers and teachers of the lower grades who have been meeting with Mrs. Carl Pfanstiel to discuss Frances Wickes' The Inner World of Childhood will meet in the Elm Place kindergarten room next Monday afternoon, March 19, at 3:15 o'clock. Mrs. Jos. Sheridan will review chapter 7 on "Imaginary Companions" and Miss Frances Palmer chapter 8 on "Fears." Refreshments will be served before the discussion.

QUINLAN & TYSON TO OCCUPY NEW QUARTERS

Quinlan & Tyson, Inc., announce the moving of their Winnetka office from the second floor of 756 Elm st., where they have been located since January 1, 1924, to the ground floor at 714 Elm st., just west of the Masonic temple. The new quarters are considerably larger and more easily accessible. The personnel of the office will remain unchanged.

The physical culture experts want to have people symmetrical, but the girls say they are mostly anxious to be alimmetrical.

INTERESTING TALK BY MRS. MCCORMICK HERE

At a tea given by Mrs. John Dingle at the Highland Park club on Thursday, March eighth Ruth Hanna McCormick, candidate for congressman at large on the Republican ticket gave a most interesting and stimulating talk. Particularly qualified is Mrs. McCormick for political office. Her father, the late Mark Hanna was U. S. senator from Ohio and it was he who was responsible for the successful campaign, and election of William McKinley.

As private secretary to her father, Mrs. McCormick early acquainted herself with political affairs and spent several years in study of labor conditions in the mining fields of Pennsylvania. This knowledge is now placing her in a position to understand and deal with the conditions prevailing in southern Illinois where work is at a stand still and food at a premium.

In the very near future, there will be an evening meeting in Highland Park and everyone interested in clean politics is urged to attend.

PROF. LEVERTON GOES TO NORTHWESTERN U.

Prof. Garrett H. Leverton, who has been on the faculty of Lake Forest college since 1924, has tendered his resignation to take effect at the close of the school year. He goes to Northwestern university as director of dramatic productions. During his several years in charge of dramatics at Lake Forest Prof. Leverton has built up one of the most noted college little theatre groups in the middle west, and his reputation as a dramatic coach is country-wide. As head of this work at Northwestern he will have much wider scope for his notable talents in this line.

HELD ON CHARGE OF CONFIDENCE GAME

Clarence Exbom was arrested in DeKalb, his former home, and brought back here Monday by Chief of Police Moroney on a charge of operating a confidence game on his employer, Edward Strenger, for whom he was working as a washing machine salesman. He is reported to have incurred considerable indebtedness in Strenger's name. Also, the police report, Exbom admitted having issued bogus checks. He was held for hearing.

Among the spring birdsongs soon to be heard will be the oratory of the canvasser who is trying to sell you something you don't want.

The statesmen are making ringing speeches, but practical politicians say that ringing doorbells gets more votes.
