SMALL FIRE CAUSES VERY LITTLE DAMAGE

Fire caused by sparks from a chimney damaged the roof of Paul Borchardt's coal office on St. Johns avenue Wednesday morning. A small space on the roof was burned, with loss of about $50. Fire Chief Hoskin reports. The firemen have answered several calls to put out grass fires this week, but no serious damage resulted.

A bad fire at the Rasmussen estate on Old Mill road Monday night destroyed a large barn and contents. The Lake Forest and Fort Sheridan firemen were called. The damage was confined to the building in which the fire started. Lack of water handicapped the fire fighters. A compressed air tank exploded killing a number of chickens during the fire but fortunately people standing about escaped injury. The blast was heard by several in Highland Park.

RESIDENT ARTIST IS AWARDED GOLD MEDAL

Rudolph F. Ingerle, a resident artist of Highland Park, was awarded the Gold Medal of the Chicago Association of Painters and Sculptors, for the most meritorious showing at the Exhibition of Artists of Chicago and vicinity, which closed at the Art Institute, March 21.

At the opening of the Exhibition his painting "Swapp'n Grounds" receive the Wm. R. Hearst prize. Mr. Ingerle's themes come from the mountains of N. Carolina. "Swapp'n Grounds" is a familiar scene on the Tuskasegee River at Bryson City, N. C., the eastern gateway to the "Smokie Mt. National Park" an area of 700 square miles of rugged, virgin scenery, sparsely settled by those rugged mountaineers so fittingly called "Our Southern Highlanders" by Horace Kephart. The Cherokee Indian Reservation is near Bryson City. Mr. Ingerle is having a showing of paintings and sketches under the auspices of the North Shore Art League at Community House, Winnetka, from March 28 to April 6.

Wednesday, March 28 at 8:00 p. m. will be the opening on which occasion Mr. Ingerle will show movies of the people and the mountain country and tell of his experiences painting in these mountain haunts.

HEART ATTACK TAKES HENRY J. THAYER

Mr. Henry J. Thayer of North Sheridan road, passed away suddenly Wednesday in Chicago following a heart attack.

Mr. Thayer who was associated with Thayer and Chandler, Chicago, had gone to his office as usual yesterday and later during the day, feeling an attack coming on, went to a nearby hotel and secured a room, thinking that the attack would soon pass over. However, it proved fatal and he passed away.

INTERESTING PROGRAM AT CIVIC CLUB MEET

A most interesting program was enjoyed at the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Civic Club of Ravinia, Wednesday, March 14.

Mrs. George Bass, former chairman of the Democratic national women's committee, and Mrs. Frederick A. Dorr, vice-president of the Illinois Republican clubs, talked on the subject, "How much is your vote worth?"

Mrs. Bass presented the subject from the view of the Democratic party, and Mrs. Dorr from the Republican viewpoint. They are both very able speakers and handled the subject in a most charming manner. They each urged everyone to vote, whether for a democratic or Republican candidate, but to be patriotic and vote.

TO SPEAK MARCH 30 AT H. P. WOMAN'S CLUB

Considerable interest has been aroused among North Shore residents by the announcement of the lecture on Friday, March 30, at eight o'clock, at the Highland Park Woman's club, on "The Emotional Life of the Child" by Dr. Smiley Blanton.

Dr. Blanton is known throughout the east and middle west as one of the most interesting and instructive speakers on child guidance and development.

Dr. Blanton has had many years of clinical study of both normal and abnormal children, and he approaches his subject from a scientific and at the same time from a humanitarian standpoint. With this profound knowledge of his subject, the doctor, combines a most attractive personality, and speaks simply and convincingly. A sense of humor, coupled with a gift for telling stories, and a natural delight in appealing to his audience, make his talks charming and impressive.

It is a rare privilege which permits the north shore residents to hear Dr. Blanton, who will be in Chicago the week of March 25 at the National Association of Mental Hygiene Convention.

ALCYON AND PEARL HAVE NEW POLICIES

Both the Alcyon and Pearl theatres are announcing new policies of reduced prices for week day performances of first run pictures. The Alcyon also announces vaudeville for every Saturday and Sunday and a family or novelty night for Friday.

The Pearl Theatre also continues with its policy of vaudeville for every Saturday and Sunday. The new policy of reduced week-day prices is expected to prove a popular one to stimulate added interest.

The Graeme Players, an organization of much repute, will present the three-act comedy drama, Broadway stage hit, "The Hottentot" at the Pearl theatre Friday, March 23. There will be one performance only at 8:15 p. m. The Pearl will open at 7 o'clock, its regular time, with a picture program including Bob Steele in "Drifting Sands" until 8:15 at which time the play "The Hottentot" will be presented on the stage, lasting until 10 o'clock. The picture program will then be shown for those who came in late.

The Alcyon theatre announces for Friday, March 30, the appearance in person of Birdie Reeves, known as the million dollar stenog and hailed as one of the world's great masters of the English language. A special matinee will be held at 3:30 for the benefit of students in addition to two evening performances. Miss Reeves is an exceptionally intelligent young lady and a sure-fire bet from an entertainment standpoint. Be sure to see her.
