Y. W. C. A.
Several girls from the Live Yea club of high school Girl Reserves attended a meeting of the Chicago Inter-Club Council of Girl Reserves, at the West Side Branch of the Chicago Y. W. C. A., on Saturday, March 17. Dr. Edith Hale Swift, of the American Social Hygiene Association, a friend of many Girl Reserves, especially those who have been at summer conferences, gave a most interesting talk to the girls. The Highland Park delegation included Josephine Snyder, Iris Gaudin, Florence Glader, Cynthia Sims.
On Thursday, February 15, the Friendship club of the Y. W. C. A. honored their president, Miss Anna Suomi, with a surprise party, held in the assembly room of the association headquarters. A program, consisting of a piano solo by Miss Lulu Dittmer, a vocal solo by Lucile McFadden, and a dramatic monologue by Miss Laura Cranefield and Miss Helen McQuillen, was presented. The members of the club presented Miss Suomi with a gift as a token of appreciation for her faithful and willing service to the club. Games and dancing featured the entertainment for the evening. Supper was served by the Misses Rose Konseur, Lee Gygli, Nellie Brennan.
The Girl Reserve "Cubs" will have a luncheon at the Y. W. C. A. on Saturday, March 24, at twelve thirty. The girls will prepare and serve the luncheon themselves under the direction of their advisor, Mrs. Wilson Kline. Miss Laura E. Cranefield, Girl Reserve secretary, will be a guest of the "Cubs" at the luncheon.

The Man for the Job
CHARLES NOLL
for REPRESENTATIVE
Eighth District
Primaries April 10
What the Office Demands
The office of state representative is first of all a law-maker's job. And law-making demands an understanding of law that can be gained only by legal knowledge and experience.
More than this, your state representative must know the needs of the eighth district and be able to secure beneficial legislation. He must be capable, upright, honest and fair to all legitimate interests in the district.
Noll's Qualifications
Charles Noll is a lawyer and member of the Lake County Bar association. For four and one half years he was a successful teacher of history and civics in the Waukegan township high school, resigning in 1925 to enter business. During the world war he enlisted in the U. S. Navy at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station and was in active service at the signing of the Armistice.
Mr. Noll was born on a farm in 1890. Practically unaided he completed a four year college course and later finished three years of law work. He is married, has two children and resides in Waukegan.
His Policies
If elected Charles Noll promises to serve the best interests of the eighth district in the same wholehearted manner that has characterized his services to the community and country in the past. He stands for honest, economical and efficient administration of state and local government; for law enforcement, better citizenship and a square deal for all legitimate interests.
Social and Business Affiliations
Mr. Noll is a Shriner, Medinah Temple; thirty-second degree Mason, a member of the Lutheran church, Knights of Pythias, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, University club, chamber of commerce, Lake County Bar association and American Legion. Adv.

EDDIE DOWLING IN HONEYMOON TRAIL
Popular Young Comedian Comes to Erlanger Theater for Limited Time
Eddie Dowling, popular in Chicago in many a musical comedy, will return to Chicago on Sunday night, March 25, at the Erlanger Theatre for a limited engagement, appearing in the leading comedy role of his own musical comedy, "Honeymoon Lane." This piece was one of the outstanding successes in New York last season, running a full year at the historic Knickerbocker Theatre. Since leaving Broadway the piece has been presented with success in Boston and Philadelphia. The story concerns a young fellow who works in a pickle factory, with a girl whose guardian is old-fashioned and won't let her bob her hair, marry or have any fun at all. The girl wants to run away and become an actress.
The boy persuades the village freak, a kindly old soul who sells dreams, to recite to the girl a dream in which she rises to the top of fame on the stage, wants to run away and become an actress.
Mr. Dowling is said to have written for himself a role that offers untrammeled scope to his sense of humor and the distinctive method of characterization, for which he is so deservedly famous. The play is said to happily combine comedy, pathos, romance and "hokum" in an entertainment of rare gayety and enjoyment.
The supporting cast provided by A. L. Erlanger, who brought the production to the stage, includes Gordon Dooley and his talented wife, Martha Morton; Bobbie Perkins, an ingenue and late star of "The Garrick Gaeties"; Helen Ault, a dancer from the Music Box Revue; Esther Muir, comedienne from "The Greenwich Village Follies" and "Queen High." Florence O'Denishawn, clever dancer who appeared in various editions of the Music Box Revue and Ziegfeld Follies; Al Sexton, juvenile from George White's Scandales; Leo Beers, a Keith Vaudeville headliner; Worthie Faulkner, Adeline Seaman, Kate Smith, George Pauncefort, Bernard Randall, Harry Robinson, Josie Intropidi, D. J. Sullivan, Jerry McAuliffe, Honey Boys, a large song and dance chorus and a spectacular ballet.
We will be glad to fill out of town mail orders, and have reserved quite a block of choice seats for all performances.

STUDENT STUNTS TO BE GIVEN ON MAY 11TH
Type of Program Which Made Hit Last Year at High School Planned
Again the people of Highland Park and neighboring towns will have the opportunity of seeing a Student Stunts program. It is to be given this year on May 11.
The program of this year will be entirely different from that of 1927, as it is to be made up of acts given by the students who have won their place on the program by means of a contest. A committee, made up of members of the faculty, will act as judges at the tryouts which are to be held April 27.
Groups from the dramatics and music departments are planning on capturing a place on the program. Members from Mr. Kendig's tumbling and dancing classes are also going to compete for a place. It is hoped that individual students, or even groups of students, will prepare a stunt for the tryouts on April 27.
The name "Student Stunts" was chosen by the Parent-Teacher association last year, and they plan to make it an annual affair. The program is sponsored by the P. T. A. and the Shoreline, and last year it was the best attended offering given in the high school auditorium.

CHILD GUIDANCE CLASS MEETS NEXT MONDAY
To Discuss Mysteries of Life and Death; Is Final Meeting of Group
"The Child's Approach to the Mysteries of Life and Death" will be the subject of discussion in the child guidance group meeting Monday afternoon at 3:15 in the Elm Place Kindergarten room. Refreshments will be served at the beginning of the meeting. This will be the final session of this group, which has discussed, during the school year, "Habit," "Discipline," "Self-Reliance," and "Inferiority." Children often receive uncertain instruction about birth and death because their parents are in doubt as to just what knowledge of these matters children should have. Evasion solves no problems and creates a set of problems of its own. Monday afternoon there will be an informal discussion covering such questions as the following: Why are children interested in these subjects? At what age should instruction begin? Who should teach children these subjects? What methods can be used? What attitude is most wholesome? The meeting is open to all who care to attend.

LOCAL ROTARY CLUB HAS GOOD MEETING
The Highland Park Rotary club had a good meeting Monday noon at the Moraine hotel. The principal talk was made by Lloyd Hollister, Wilmette publisher, who gave some instructive suggestions for new members. Others who spoke briefly were Dr. M. C. Hecht of Wilmette, and David Nelson, president of the Wilmette club. J. W. Simons, superintendent of the North Shore Line, was a guest.
F. W. Cushing and Howard Moran were unable to be present on account of illness, and Earl W. Geall also was an absentee, as he is at Excelsior Springs, Mo.
The politicians may wear gumshoes, but their feet feel just as heavy when they tread on your toes.

FIREMEN'S ANNUAL DANCE IS SUCCESS
The Firemen's annual dance last Saturday evening was a fine success. The attendance exceeded four hundred, and everybody reports a splendid time. Harvey's orchestra furnished adequate music, and the affair was one of the best which the firemen have sponsored. The members of the department extend to their friends and patrons their sincere appreciation for the liberal patronage given their annual ball.

JAMES J. CONDON DIES AT RAIL MEN'S HOME
James J. Condon, retired trainman, died March 18, at the Railroad Men's Home, here, aged 69 years, seven months and 23 days. He was born in Illinois, July 23, 1858. The funeral was held March 20, and burial was in the Mooney cemetery.

STATE SENATOR SWIFT Calls Attention to Another Reason WHY EMMERSON SHOULD BE NOMINATED
The Republican voters of Illinois should remember some of the happenings of the past that show the temper of the people when it is aroused. From the time of Washington the fundamental conception of democratic government is that an executive shall not hold office through any considerable length of time. Kings and Emperors reign for life, but executives turn the state over to another, to carry out the provisions of the laws after a reasonable term of office.
George Washington set the period at two terms of four years each and so firmly is this a part of our notions of the best plan to run a state that there are few if any deviations from this two-term plan.
In all the history of Illinois and its honored and great executives there has been but one man selected a third time for governor in Illinois, viz.—the hero of Forts Henry and Donaldson and that vicious battle at Corinth. Because of a terrible wound received at Corinth, Richard J. Oglesby was forced to quit his command after being made a Major General and was elected governor and served from 1865 to 1869. In 1872 he was again elected and resigned within two weeks after taking office to become senator of the United States. In 1884 he was again elected governor, it being realized that he had been a governor in reality but one term and because of his heroism at Corinth and noted civil career was entitled to two terms.
In 1904 Charles S. Deneen was elected governor and in 1908 was re-elected. In 1912 he was again a candidate with a record as "clean as a hound's tooth," and, forgetting the inherent demands of the people for a limited term of the executive, he went against this unwritten precedent and was beaten by Edward S. Dunne, a democrat, by more than 120,000 votes. Two terms is the slogan of the people and should Len Small be renominated, Judge Thompson, another democrat, will beat him, even though he has a legion of payrollers, political dependents and rabbit shepherds, a subsidized press, dozens of editors holding state jobs and plugging for him, miles of roads for which voters will sell their souls that they may be quickly built and the largest fund ever collected to run a campaign and influence votes, nevertheless the people realize that Gov. Small must now turn his job over to a successor after his two terms, or a democrat will again be Governor of Illinois.
