

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Notice for this column should be in to the Press office by Tuesday noon of the week of publication to insure their appearance.

Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Highland Park, Ill., 381 Hazel Avenue, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services every Sunday morning at 10:45 and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when testimonies of Christian Science healing are given. Sunday School meets at 9:30 a.m., and is open to pupils under the age of twenty.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson sermon—"Unreality."

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room, 361 Central Avenue, which is open every week day from nine in the morning until six in the evening and on Wednesdays until 7:30. The reading room is also open on Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30.

Bethany Evangelical

Rev. C. F. Schriver, minister. The pastor appreciates the response to last Sunday's services. The Young Men are to be commended for their fine service in the evening. They appreciated the good attendance also.

Palm Sunday services Sunday. Special music. You will want to hear it. The best way not to miss good things is to be present every Sunday.

Beginning with Wednesday, evening March 28, we are having a series of meetings each evening except Saturdays and closing on Easter Sunday afternoon with the Easter Cantata by our choir. Plan to attend as often as possible. Bring your friends. Special music each night. There will be a special service for the Sunday School at the Sunday school hour. We hope every member will be present.

Easter Sunday will be a great day with the reception of members, baptismal service, and the Offering for Missions. Plan to be with us that day. Call the pastor if you want to have your children baptized.

Swedish Methodist

Highwood Avenue and Everts Place. William W. Nelson, pastor

Thursday, March 29—
7:00 p.m. Meeting of the Sunday School teachers at church.
8:00 p.m. Union Choir practice.

Sunday, April 1—
10:30 p.m. Sunday School. "I go to Sunday School because it enriches my life."

6:00 p.m. Epworth League devotional meeting. We are expecting our First Vice President, Mr. Erland Borg to be with us at this time and to have charge of the meeting. He and Mrs. Borg will undoubtedly have interesting things to tell us about their experiences in Sweden. Every leaguer should be there to welcome them back.

7:45 p.m. Evening service in Swedish. This Palm Sunday service is the first of our series of special Easter services. Mr.

Niklason will preach. Those who have heard him know that he has a message that is brim full of power and inspiration. There will also be special music.

With the exception of Monday there will be a service every evening during the Easter week. Beginning with Tuesday night every other service will be in English. On the English nights Mr. Niklason will have charge of the services and the pastor will preach; on the Swedish nights the program will be reversed. On week nights, Tuesday to Saturday inclusive, the services will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. You are invited. Bring your friends.

First United Evangelical

Green Bay Road and Laurel Avenue. Rev. F. R. Cardwell, pastor. The Bible Conference held last week under the auspices of the Illinois Christian Fundamentals Association closed Sunday night with much interest and great blessing to many persons. The various speakers brought strong messages from God's Word emphasizing important truth and strengthening many in the Christian Faith.

Next Sunday the pastor will preach both morning and evening. Each night of the following week (Passion Week), excepting Saturday, service will be held at the church at 7:45. Different speakers will bring messages on the passion of Jesus, the Saviour, leading onward in thought up to Easter when the pastor will preach on the Resurrection of Christ at the morning service. Easter night the choir will render an Easter Cantata which will be of interest to all.
