

TELLS HOW TO OUST SMALL TOWN DEVIL

PLAYGROUND BIG HELP

Writer in Welfare Magazine Makes Plea for Play Space for Boys and Girls

Advice on "Ousting the Small Town Devil" is contained in an article under that title, written by Uthai Vincent Wilcox in the February issue of the "Welfare Magazine," published by the Illinois Department of Public Welfare.

And the method he suggests for "ousting the devil" is the establishment of playgrounds.

"It seems like carrying coal to Newcastle to suggest that the children of the country towns need playgrounds in which to develop," Mr. Wilcox states. "Because the town is small and there are vacant fields within several blocks, even public-spirited citizens seem to feel that the boys and girls have everything needed to develop properly their physical natures.

"Yet, even casual investigations prove that as far as physical recreation is concerned the city brother has access to certain advantages unknown to the country lad. There are Y.M.C.A.'s, municipal playgrounds, baths, sometimes beaches, parks and a certain supervision.

Is Fortunate

"The small town youth is fortunate to find a public school with adequate playground worthy the name. Often the short recess periods must be spent in crowded quarters or on the streets adjoining." "No trespassing" signs keep them from much of the "wide country in which to roam."

The author tells of the work in a number of small towns where this difficulty is being remedied by the establishment of playgrounds and supervised play. The children are benefited and the parents are relieved.

"The ideal?" asks the writer. "The future welfare of our democracy. The sculptor works upon marble and knows that ultimately it will perish. The foundry man molds in brass and knows that time will efface the delicate shadings and effects. The architect conceives great temples and knows that they will burn and crumble.

"But it is the privilege of the common man and woman to work with developing minds of boys and girls, which will live and influence eternity."

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

With over fifty boys on the squads, competition for places on the Deerfield-Shields baseball team has become very hot. The opening game with Waller on April 6 is only about two weeks away and so regular berths on the team are very much in demand.

Competition in the outfield is very close this year. Stipe and Becker are back from last year's team and should fill two of the garden jobs. Richards, Anderson, McClory, Kreuzcamp, and Leffert are all ready and anxious for outfield work.

Infielders are very plentiful this year, there being four or five candidates for each position.

Third base is being sought by Wagner, Rudolph, and Maiman. All three look very good at the "hot corner."

Maestri and Berube are fighting it out for the shortstop berth. Neither has shown any great advantage over the other so far.

Lutz, the only veteran infielder, will be back at second base. His understudy is Mike Maloney, who will also be available for relief work.

The biggest scramble of all is for first base. Hart, Segert, Kress, Koon, and Hastings are all trying hard to land the job. All of them cover the sack equally well and whoever proves to be the best batter will probably get the position.

Rogan, Bleimehl, Bleyer, and Carey will all be used for mound duty with O'Connor and Santi doing the receiving.

DEERFIELD TAKES THIRD IN RELAY AT EVANSTON

Running against a fast field of ten high schools, Deerfield's medley relay team, coached by Mr. Wolters, was forced to take third place in the mile and an eighth relay race held last Tuesday night at Patten gymnasium. The meet was sponsored by the Lake Shore Athletic club.

Deerfield's team, composed of "Dick" Hammond, Frank Zanier, Warren Brownlee, and "Bill" Hammond showed considerable improvement over the race they ran at Urbana, where they took fifth. Hyde Park, champions of the City League, won the event in good time, running the race in 4:24. Evanston finished in second place, only a half yard behind the winner. Deerfield finished third, being a yard behind Hyde Park and a half yard behind Evanston. Deerfield's time was 4:25.

"Dick" Hammond, running the 440, ran first for Deerfield and ran a good race. Franck Zanier, also running the 440, ran second. Walter Brownlee ran the 220 running a very pretty race, bringing the team from fourth place up to second. "Bill" Hammond, the anchor man of the team, ran the half-mile. "Bill" ran a good race and finished only a half yard behind Evanston for third place.

DEERFIELD GRADUATE HONORED AT COLLEGE

Miss Virginia Onderdonk, graduate of Deerfield-Shields in 1926, a Highland Park girl, has been advanced from the position of junior vice-president to president of the college government association at Wellesley college. She will assume her new duties at the beginning of the school term next fall.

Miss Onderdonk was president of her class in her freshman year. She was also chosen that year as queen of May. In her sophomore year she was a member of the student senate, and this year is junior vice-president. Miss Onderdonk is the daughter of Mr. Holmes Onderdonk, manager of real estate department of the Chicago Tribune.

EIGHT STUDENTS ARE TIED FOR FIRST PLACE

Eight students are tied for first place in the six weeks' honor roll at Deerfield-Shields. The list of second honors is exceptionally long due to the fact that so many students tied for the sixty-fourth place. There should be only seventy-three students on the whole list, but this honor roll has one hundred students on it. The honor roll is compiled as follows:

The students on first honors represent three per cent of the entire score, and the ones on second honors represent five per cent, making a total of eight per cent. The eight students taking first honors are: Hiliker Burchard, Senior; Dorothy Gleiser, Freshman; Margaret Kerr, Sophomore; Arthur Magnani, Junior; Leslie Maiman, Senior; Barbara Shipnes, Junior; Genevieve Wolf, Senior; Arthur Wood, Sophomore.

TURN LAMPS ON AND OFF BY RADIO WAVE

Street lamps are turned on and off by a radio wave, using a 4,000-volt electric distribution wire as its path, in a San Francisco residence district. The new method, known as the carrier current street lighting control, can turn off the street lamps without extinguishing home light in the district, whereas before a separate current was necessary.

Worry about money difficulties is said to be bad for health, so many slow pay debtors have decided not to worry any more about their obligations.

Nunn Bush Shoes

Well dressed men are beginning to realize more and more that —

Wearing stylish shoes, in harmony with each suit, is a mark of good taste.

The usefulness of good shoes can be lengthened by wearing two pairs alternately (every other day).

Four pairs of shoes are not to many for a well dressed man — a shoe for each occasion.

It pays to buy good shoes.

Otis F. Glenn for U.S. Senate

The Interests of the People of Illinois are More Important than the Ambitions of Any Candidate

The vacancy which has existed since the death of Senator McKinley in December, 1926, should be filled. The varied, pressing and important matters of the seven million people of our state demand it.

Frank L. Smith, twice rejected, will be so again if elected, which would mean that for at least four years the welfare of Illinois has been sacrificed in a vain effort to gratify the desires of one person.

ELECT OTIS F. GLENN

And his credentials will be accepted and the oath of office administered. HE IS WORTHY, CAPABLE and would prove a distinct credit to Illinois.
