An engagement of great interest to Kenilworth is that of Miss Estelle Farley to Roger Palmer Behan, which was announced last Saturday and Sunday evenings. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Kelso Farley, of Abbotford road, gave a dinner party for the two families, and on Sunday evening Miss Farley gave a supper for the Pi Beta Phi sorority of which she is a member, and at these two gatherings the engagement was announced. Estelle has always identified herself with the activities of her group in Kenilworth and has taken active part in the sorority chapter at Northwestern university. She has established various Camp Fire groups in Kenilworth and is herself a Camp Fire Torch Bearer, the highest office in that organization.

Mr. Behan is a graduate of Brown university and makes his home now in Chicago although his former home was Ottawa, Kan. No announcement was made of the wedding date.

Among the bridal parties being given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Waidner, daughter of the L. Harry Waidners of 206 Scott avenue, are a luncheon and tea. Miss Marian Montgomery of 15 Green Bay road, Winnetka, entertained a group of Miss Waidner's friends at luncheon and a handkerchief shower, Saturday, March 24.

Miss Janet Olmstead of 783 Foxdale avenue, entertained at tea from 4 to 6, Wednesday, March 21, in Miss Waidner's honor. Miss Olmstead and Miss Waidner attended Smith college together.

Clive Taylor, son of Mrs. William Taylor, Cumnor road, Kenilworth, was married on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to Miss Kathryn Houghton of Barrington, at the Church of the Holy Comforter, Kenilworth, Rev. Leland Danforth performing the ceremony.

Mr. Taylor has been engaged in the real estate business at Barrington for a number of years and met his bride there. After a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will be at home in that suburb where they have taken a house not far from another recent bride and groom from Kenilworth, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCracken.

Aside from the activities of the friends of the bride, Mr. Taylor's friends have been active in giving them a number of showers, among which have been two very useful and practical ones. Mrs. Richard Taylor of Evanston gave a food shower last week and Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Kenyon of Chicago, gave a kitchen shower on Monday of this week.

Miss Elaine Burgess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Burgess of Kenilworth, has chosen Saturday, April 21, for her wedding to Norwood Burch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Burch of Evanston. The wedding will take place at the First Methodist church in Evanston and will be followed by a reception for about one hundred guests at the Burgess home, 122 Melrose avenue.

The maid of honor will be the bride-elect's sister, Mira, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Lida Raymond of Winnetka and Miss Marion Kavin of Evanston. Henry Penfield is to be Mr. Burch's best man, and Theodore Burgess and Harry Mayhew will be ushers.

The first of the pre-nuptial parties will be given on Saturday, April 7, by Mrs. Thomas Wolfe, Jr., and Mrs. Harold Anderson, both of Evanston.

Miss Elinor Woodward has chosen both the date and the attendants for her marriage to Ansel McBride Kinney. The Rev. James Austin Richards will read the service at 8:30 Saturday evening, April 28, in the Winnetka Congregational church. Immediately after the service, the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Woodward, will give a reception at their home, 685 Ardely road, Winnetka.

Mrs. Franklin Ellis of Rochester, N. Y., will be Miss Woodward's maid of honor, and her bridesmaids will be Miss Margaret DeLay, Miss Carolyn Case, and Miss Barbara Mettler, all of Winnetka; Miss Margaret Scott and Miss Dorothy Pickard of Evanston; and Miss Winifred Walz of New York City.

Mr. Kinney, who is the son of Mrs. Alice V. Kinney of Evanston, will have John Dudley of New York City for his best man. The ushers will be William C. Boyden, Jr., of Winnetka, John Featherstone of Columbia, S. C., Julius Stone of Columbus, O., Louis Hardin, Paul Jackson, and McKay Stoddard, all of Chicago, and Julian and Herbert Woodward of Winnetka, the bride's brothers.

Miss Woodward and her mother have just returned from Europe, where they had been since the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keller of Wilmette entertained at tea last Sunday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Glen Frank. The following alumni of the University of Wisconsin, of which Dr. Frank is president, were present: Mr. and Mrs. George I. Haight of Evanston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Byron and Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Conrad of Winnetka, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Schuchardt of Chicago. Dr. Frank addressed the Wilmette Sunday evening club that night on "Politics and Business."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Fulton, 884 Hill road, Winnetka, are expecting their son, Edmund, to arrive home soon for his spring vacation from Wabash college. The Fultons also expect to have their daughter, Mrs. Lawrence BeBout, of Laadonville, Ohio, with them at the same for about ten days.

Mrs. John H. Green, formerly Miss Margaret White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. White, 1341 Tower road, Winnetka, arrived in Winnetka last Saturday from Ellendale, N. D. She expects to visit her parents for about two weeks. Miss Ruth White also arrived last Saturday from George school, Pennsylvania, where she is a senior. She will remain in Winnetka for about a week.

Miss Carolyn Case, daughter of the Francis M. Cases of 160 Sheridan road, Hubbard Woods, has chosen June 23, for the date of her marriage to Lawrence Everett Norem of Winnetka. She has not yet decided where the service will be read, or whom she will have as attendants.

Mrs. Harry C. Holloway, 589 Sheridan road, Winnetka, left last week for Arizona and California. She expects to be away about two months.

John W. Branch of Evanston announces the engagement of his daughter, Inabell, to Benjamin Rudge Lones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Lones of Port Talbot, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth John Mearns and their daughter, Barbara, of 5 Warwick road, Kenilworth, are leaving Thursday, March 22, for Mt. Carroll, Ill., where Ruth Mearns is attending the Frances Shimer school. They will bring Ruth back with them to spend the spring holidays.

Miss Eugenia Moore, daughter of Mrs. John J. Moore of 440 Sheridan road, Glencoe, is expected home the middle of April from Honolulu, where she has been for about three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sincere have returned to their home on Beach road after a three weeks' trip to New Orleans, Savannah, and New York City.
