Rev. C. F. Schriver, minister

The Annual Conference of the Evangelical Church of Illinois met at Aurora, April 18 to 22. The Sunday services were largely attended. Many were turned away from the afternoon service while 1000 were actually counted within the building. Three men were ordained as Deacons and three as Elders. Rev. John G. Schwab a former pastor here, is stationed at the Lockwood Avenue church in Chicago. Rev. Van Evert returns to Ashton. Rev. Schloerb goes to Oak Park and Rev. Wm. Grote goes to First Church Naperville.

We look forward in this the second year of our work in Highland Park to the completion of our New church building its dedication and then to aggressive work in the regular work of the church.

Services Sunday at the hours given below:
Sunday school at 9:45. Classes for all. Bring you family to Sunday school and then stay for worship.
Worship at Eleven o'clock. Message by the pastor.

May 9—2:30 Annual meeting Ravina Woman's Civic club.
May 11—Presbyterian mother and daughter banquet.

There was a young lady named Anna
Who hammered an upright piano,
In the midst of the din
The neighbors broke in
And hammered poor Anna,
Hosannah!

Declamation contests are a fine thing, but it isn't best to hold one with the traffic cop.
