

WITHHOLD DECISION ON HIGHWAY PATROL

ACT AT JUNE MEETING

Committee on County Board to Refer Matter of Sheriff's Request for Six to Full Board

After hearing Sheriff Doolittle's request for motor-cops to aid in regulating county traffic to keep down accidents the members of the jail and finance committee adjourned until the June meeting of the board of supervisors without giving an answer.

Before going into session Supervisor Arthur W. Vercoe, of Highland Park, chairman of the finance committee, said that a force of four men would be allowed and that no more would be added due to the financial condition of the county.

Wanted Six The sheriff had wished for six motor-cops. He planned on two for Sheridan road, two for Rand road and two for Green Bay road.

The sheriff would use the patrol for a dual purpose. In the first place the men would be on the road to regulate traffic by cutting down unnecessary speeding, reckless and drunken driving and general traffic cutting so as to eliminate as many accidents as possible.

Secondly they would be used for crime prevention, such as restricting booze traffic, banditry along the highway, and answering emergency calls.

As a secondary force to the regular personnel of deputies the sheriff believes that it would give him a far greater opportunity in keeping down crime and accidents.

May Allow Four Vercoe had stated that the board would probably allow four men for June, July and August and additional riders for holidays.

The sheriff, in the last few weeks, has received 63 applications from men seeking positions as motorcycle riders.

The rush for the jobs, that might and might not be, has been so heavy that it has become a nuisance. Only the names and addresses of the applicants are being taken and no encouragement offered.

REVOLUTIONARY HERO'S RESTING PLACE MARKED

Bronze Marker Placed on Grave of Reuben Hill, Wauconda, by Waukegan D. A. R.

On Friday, May 25th, the Waukegan chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, marked the grave of Reuben Hill at Wauconda, with the bronze marker used by the society in honoring the graves of our Revolutionary heroes, inviting the different chapters along the North Shore.

The Rev Howard Ganster, rector of the Waukegan Episcopal church, Army Chaplain, and Boy Scout leader, gave a prayer, followed by an address on the man honored, and the times in which he lived. Reuben Hill enlisted at the age of fifteen, in a Connecticut regiment, and served four enlistments of one year each, at which time the war ended.

Present at the dedication were, Mrs. A. G. Stevens of Waukegan, and her children, the third and fourth generation from Reuben Hill, Mrs. Nellie Oakes of Chicago, Mrs. D. L. Putnam of Wauconda, the fourth generation, and Mrs. E. C. Bond of Milwaukee, the fifth generation.

THREE BABIES BORN TO 3 SISTERS IN 3 WEEKS

All records for coincidences were broken at the Victory Memorial hospital in the last three weeks, thanks to the Flood sisters, says the Waukegan Sun.

In the first place all became the mothers of girl babies. Secondly each mother was assigned the same rooms in the maternity wing of the hospital.

And in addition the babies weighed about the same.

The hospital record is something like this:

- 1. May 4, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Howard, 1702 Catalpa avenue, a girl. (Mrs. Howard was formerly Miss Marjorie Flood.) 2. May 9, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cox, Gurnee, a girl. (Mrs. Cox was formerly Miss Dorothy Flood.) 3. May 22, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foxworth, 611 Franklin street, a girl. (Mrs. Foxworth was formerly Miss Vida Flood.)

All the babies weighed between seven and eight pounds. These new mothers are all the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Flood, of Gurnee. Mrs. Flood was the mother of 14 children, all of whom live within a radius of a few miles of Waukegan.

There are now fifteen grandchildren in the family.

POOR FARM PROBLEM STILL SERIOUS ONE

Various Opinions as to What County Board Will Do at June Meeting

What the members of the board of supervisors will do regarding the poor farm at Libertyville when they meet in June is a matter of conjecture today.

With the $250,000 bond issue, that provided for the erection of new buildings, defeated as decisively as any bond issue ever presented to the county voters the board will be forced, in view of this dictum from the people, to seek new avenues of relief, it is said.

The state has condemned the present buildings as fire traps. That is as far as the state will go, most of the county officials agree, as Illinois will not want to enter into a Lake county problem that has reached the state of a controversy.

There are some who believe that the board should advertise for bids to sell the farm and there are others who take the stand that they will oppose a sale no matter what the proposition is.
