Miss Helena Crews Bradford will become the bride of Garold Clairmont Jenison at a ceremony performed by the Rev. J. F. Bradley Brown of Chicago at the Union League club at 8:30 o'clock on June 16. A reception will follow the reading of the service. Miss Bradford is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bradford, 956 Greenwood avenue, Hubbard Woods, and Mr. Jenison is an Oak Park resident.

Miss Virginia Bradford, the bride's sister, will be her only attendant and Thompson Merrick of Evanston will serve as best man. Edwin Coleman and Edgar Funk, both of Oak Park, will usher.

Mr. Jenison and his bride will make their home at 821 Lake street, Oak Park, and will be at home there after July 20.

Mrs. Wallace E. Weld of Evanston formerly Helen Mearns of Kenilworth, is giving a bridge party Thursday, June 14, in honor of Miss Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alfred Thorsen of Kenilworth announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Luella, to Wallace W. Muehlberg, Saturday, June 2, at Kenilworth. Mr. and Mrs. Muehlberg will be at home after July 1, at 1209 Sherwin avenue, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Kent Tenney, 640 Pine street, Winnetka, entertained at dinner last week in honor of Miss Betty Burgess, whose marriage to Eric John Lea Cotton of Earl Chilton, Leicester, England, took place Saturday evening at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth F. Burgess of Evanston.

Several affairs already are arranged in honor of Miss Alice Little, daughter of the Charles G. Little of Evanston, whose marriage to Dr. Curtis Nelson, son of the Murray Nelsons, now of the city, formerly of Winnetka, will take place at the summer home of the bride-elect, Les Cheneaux Islands, Mich., Monday, June 25, following a week-end house party for the wedding guests.

Mrs. Kenneth Henderson of Winnetka was hostess at a luncheon for Miss Little yesterday. Mrs. Arthur W. Rogers of Evanston gave a small bridge party Thursday, June 7. Mrs. Edward Welles of Evanston, gave a luncheon at Glenview club Saturday, and Miss Jane Warner of Lake Forest is entertaining at dinner this evening. Mrs. Morris Wilson of Winnetka is also to entertain in honor of Miss Little and Dr. Nelson.

Mrs. Ernest Ballard, 811 Auburn road, and her children are leaving Winnetka in a week or so and are sailing on June 22 on the Carmania, to spend three months abroad. Mr. Ballard will cross about a month later and meet his family in Europe.

Tuesday evening, June 5, brought the wedding of Miss Eugenia Moore, daughter of Mrs. John J. Moore of Glencoe, to Karl D. King, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl D. King of Wilmette, at the Moore home, 440 Sheridan road. The house was attractively decorated with spring flowers, and this note was carried out in the bridal bouquets of Miss Moore's attendants. Miss Moore wore her mother's wedding dress, which was of heavy ivory satin with a train. The tunic had tiny plaques and the neck line was low over the shoulders. The veil was of Brussels lace, brought by an aunt from Brussels for Miss Moore. Her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Helen Wicks of Chicago, who was the maid of honor, wore a pink bouffant taffeta dress, having a wide band of lace at the bottom. A large velvet flower at the side and a velvet streamer from the shoulder added a graceful touch to the costume. The bridesmaids, Miss Vera McDermid of Glencoe, Mrs. Cedric Gifford (Betty Miller) of Evanston, and Miss Alice King of Wilmette, were in taffeta frocks of pastel shades made with bouffant skirts trimmed with a lace band. They wore peach, green and orchid respectively. Betty Moore of Hinsdale and Gertrude Kagy of Salem, flower girls, were demurely dressed in pink crepe de chine.

After June 20, Mr. and Mrs. King will be at home at 20 Frederic street, Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Harriet Frank, 562 Washington avenue, is leaving Glencoe June 23, for Montreal, Canada, where she will spend a few days prior to her sailing on June 28, for France. Mrs. Frank will visit most of the European countries and England this summer, returning to France to spend the month of September and arriving in Glencoe some time in October or November.

Miss Catherine Seymour Hinman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hinman, 576 Oak street, Winnetka, is to be married on June 23, to Perry B. Buchanan, son of Louis I. Buchanan, 591 Cherry street. The wedding is to take place at 8:30 o'clock at the Church of the Holy Comforter in Kenilworth.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception held at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Hinman's sister, Mrs. William Coburn of Berkeley, Cal., is to be her matron of honor and Miss Betty Webster of Winnetka will be the maid of honor. Little Billy Coburn, nephew of Miss Hinman, and Catherine Joan Hinman, her niece, will be the ring bearer and flower girl respectively. The men in the wedding party will include Norman Hinman, Howard Clements of Chicago, and Joseph Hinman.

Miss Phyllis Ruf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur William Ruf of Kenilworth, is to be married to Claude Kelsey Sanders of Evanston Saturday, June 16, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, in the Kenilworth Union church. The Rev. Herbert Willett will read the service, following which a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents at 236 Cumnor road.

The bridal party will include Miss Helene Seibold, who will be maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Katharine Stolp, Betty Harwood, Frances Stevens, Betty Taylor, Lois Bassett, and Mrs. Arthur Ruf.

Clifford Smith will serve as best man and ushering will be Frank Sanders and Walter Sanders, brothers of the bridegroom, Granville Revere Lewis, Fred Bruce, Jack Rosson, and Bassett Ruf. Friday, June 1, Mrs. Jackson K. Dering of Evanston gave a bridge tea for the bride-elect. Saturday, June 9, Miss Helene Seibold will entertain at a luncheon at her home, 522 Forest avenue, Wilmette, which will be followed by a matinee party given by Miss Betty Harwood. Sunday, June 10, Miss Betty Taylor entertained at tea. Mrs. Ruf and Miss Ruf were hostesses at a trousseau tea at their home June 12. Miss Katharine Stolp entertained at a kitchen shower Wednesday, June 13, and the following Friday Miss Frances Stevens will entertain at a luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Ruf will give the bridal dinner at the Drake hotel Friday evening, June 15.

Miss Celeste Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Pope of Washington, D. C., becomes the bride of Thomas Lyon Fentress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fentress of 939 Green Bay road, Hubbard Woods, Monday, June 11. The service will be read at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon before members of the two families. Calvin Fentress, Jr., will be the only attendant.

Mr. Fentress and his bride are planning to spend the summer in Gloucester, Mass.

Miss Marjorie Janney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence A. Janney of 657 Spruce street, Winnetka, was married on Wednesday, June 6, to Stephen Roby, son of Mrs. Emily M. Roby of the Ambassador hotel, New York City. The marriage took place at 3 o'clock at the Park avenue Presbyterian church with the Rev. Albert Parker Fitch officiating. The wedding was small because of illness in the family, taking place in the presence of the bride's parents and the groom's mother. The wedding occurred the day after Mr. Roby took his final examinations at Princeton. The bride and groom took advantage of the short holiday before commencement and took a short wedding trip to Bermuda, returning in time to be back at Princeton for graduation. After September 1, they will reside in Chicago. Mrs. Janney is expected to return in about a week.

Miss Elizabeth and Miss Mary Hannah returned to Kenilworth after a winter spent in Pasadena, where Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hannah have a winter home. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ross (formerly Connie Hannah) in Winnetka. Miss Elizabeth is leaving on a short trip to New York this week-end to visit Mrs. Dorothy Bennett Arnoff, who formerly lived in Kenilworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Clark, Miss Alice Ann Clark, and Robert O. Clark will sail for Europe on the steamer Montroyal, June 23, to attend the wedding in Paris of Miss Martha White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Selden White of Evanston, and Robert O. Clark.

new 1928 Pfanstiehl Electric ^{Genuine} Radio

The full, rich, well-rounded, lifelike tones of the Pfanstiehl can not be excelled on any other radio, no matter what the price. The "overtones," as every musician knows, are the very life and soul of music; and it is only in the simplified circuit of the Pfanstiehl that these delicate vibrations of sound are preserved intact and reproduced along with the fundamental tones. That is why with the Pfanstiehl you can increase the volume to a shout, or reduce it to a whisper, and still have the full musical value of every note of voice or instrument.

Everyone knows the nationally famous Pfanstiehl. It has been the choice of thousands upon thousands of people who wanted the best in radio.

The ease of operation will surprise you.

Plug the cord into the lighting circuit, just as you would plug in an electric toaster; snap the switch on the set; turn single station selector, and forget everything except the perfect quality of reception—you can't forget that!
