

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Notice for this column should be in to the Press office by Tuesday noon of the week of publication to insure their appearance.

Christian Science

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Highland Park, Ill., 381 Hazel Avenue, a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., holds services every Sunday morning at 10:45 and on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, when testimonies of Christian Science healing are given. Sunday School meets at 9:30 a.m., and is open to pupils under the age of twenty.

Subject for next Sunday's lesson sermon, "Life."

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room, 361 Central Avenue, which is open every week day from nine in the morning until six in the evening and on Wednesdays until 7:30. The reading room is also open on Sunday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30.

Presbyterian Church

Laurel and Linden avenues—Rev. Frank Pitt, minister

Thursday-Friday—

9:00 Vacation church school. Each week new pupils enter the vacation church school. A character building program composed of worship, biblical instruction, story hours, organized play, hand craft, and outings is offered for all those who register. Enroll your child today. Registration fee one dollar. For further information call H. P. 683.

Sunday—

9:45 Church school. Classes for all ages.

11:00 Morning worship. The pastor will preach on "What to Believe about the Christian Life."

Monday-Friday—

9:00 Vacation church school.

Wednesday—

2:30 Camp Fire meeting in the parish house.

Bethany Evangelical

Sunday school at nine-forty-five each Sunday morning. Let us be as faithful to our S. S. as we are to our daily tasks and Sunday will be a restful day.

Worship at eleven and at eight o'clock. The pastor's morning theme will be "Jesus Relation to the Program of Missions." The evening service is being given by the Ladies Quartette. They have prepared something good and they invite you to worship with them. Bring your family and friends.

E. L. C. E. meeting at 7:15. You will enjoy the meeting and we look for you to be with us.

Prayer meeting at eight o'clock Wednesday evening.

C. F. Schriver, minister.

First United Evangelical

Greenbay road and Laurel Avenue—Rev. C. G. Unangst, pastor

The pastor will conduct the quarterly communion services in the United Evangelical churches at Dixon and Hoopole over Sunday and in his absence Dr. F. D. Hopkins will preach at 10:45 a.m. and Dr. J. S. Carr will occupy the pulpit in the evening.

The Sunday school meets at 9:30 a.m. We aim to maintain a good attendance right through the summer months. "The Conversion of Saul," is the subject of the Bible lesson. Acts 22:6-16. The transformation of this fierce persecutor of the church is regarded by many as a strong evidence of the supernatural character of Christianity. Come and join us in the school.

The Christian Endeavor meeting will be held at 7:00 p.m. Topic, "Getting a Thrill out of Christian Living." Phil. 3:1-16. Raymond Botker leader.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. This is always a meeting of deep spiritual helpfulness.

The Sunday school is planning to hold its annual picnic at Sunset Park on Saturday, July 21st. A good time for everybody is assured.

Zion Lutheran

West Central and McGovern—Rev. W. F. Suhr, pastor.

Sunday school, 9:30.

German service, 10:30.

English service, 11:00.

Mr. Elmer Pittelkow, theological student at St. Louis, will occupy the pulpit at both services on Sunday.

The quarterly meeting of the congregation will take place on Friday evening of this week at 8. Since the important matter of adopting a new constitution will be brought up all voting members are urged to attend.

Swedish Methodist

Highwood Avenue and Everts Place—Rev. William W. Nelson, pastor.

The camp meetings are now being held at Des Plaines. All our friends are expected to attend at least some of the services. Come when ever you can; go when you must. All of our regular meetings except Sunday school have been cancelled for the week; Sunday school will meet as usual at 10:30 o'clock next Sunday forenoon.

See you at Des Plaines.

FOURTH WEEK OF RAVINIA PROGRAM

(Continued from page 1)

German Vice-consul General, will be present and will speak.

The second of these national concerts has been scheduled for Sunday afternoon, July 22, and will take the form of "An Afternoon of French Music and French Composers." In addition to the concert by the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in which French music will be featured, La Chorale Francaise de Chicago, Charles Le-gourgue conducting, will present several ensemble groups. This is one of the largest choral bodies in the United States devoting itself to the presentation of French music, and it will be remembered that it appeared at Ravinia last season with unusual success. Leon Rothier, French basso of the Ravinia Opera forces, will give the occasion a patriotic air by singing "La Marseillaise." Alfred Wallenstein, "cellist," will be the soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Double Bill

Special interest is attached to the double bill of "Pagliacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" which is scheduled for Saturday night, July 14. Both of these operas enjoy the high regard of music lovers of all classes and there has been insistent demand for their repetition ever since they were given on the opening night of the season. The cast of "Pagliacci" will be exactly the same as it was at that time, Miss Quagna Mario appearing as Nedda with Giovanni Martinelli as Canio and Giuseppe Danise as Tonio. George Cehanovsky will be Silvio and Jose Mojica will be Beppe. There will be one important cast change in "Cavalleria Rusticana." Mme. Elizabeth Rethberg assuming the role of Santuzza on this occasion. Mario Chamlee will be Turiddu; Mario Basiola, Alfio; Gladys Swarthout, Lola and Philine F'leo, Mama Lucia. G. Manaro Papi will conduct both operas.

Representatives of all races have evidenced great interest in the national concert series which will begin Sunday afternoon, July 15, with "An Afternoon of German Music and German Composers." The Chicago Symphony Orchestra, which ranks as one of the finest symphonic bodies in the world is equally at home in the music of all peoples and Jacques Gordon, who will be the soloist is a violinist of such popularity that he is always assured of a hearty welcome whenever he appears. There is no charge for reserved seats at these concerts, the general admission at the gate covering everything.

"Lohengrin" July 15

"Lohengrin" the opera which will be given on the evening of Sunday, July 15, is in perfect keeping with the spirit of the afternoon concert and it is certain that hundreds of those who attend the concert in the afternoon will remain over for the operatic performance in the evening. Miss Florence Easton, long renowned as an exponent of German roles will be heard as Elsa, a part she has not sung at Ravinia this season, while Edward Johnson will again be cast as Lohengrin, in which he is outstanding among the world's great tenors. The remainder of the cast has on many occasions proved its work, Miss Bour-skaya being heard as Ortrud for the first time this year, while Mr. D'Angelo will be the King, Mr. Cehanovsky the Herald and Mr. Preston, Telramund. Mr. Hasselmanns will conduct.

Again it has been found expedient to schedule an opera performance instead of the Monday night concert, and on Monday night, July 16, a special presentation of Massenet's brilliant "Manon" will be given. This work has won high acclaim this season with Mme. Yvonne Gall in the title role, and this celebrated French singer will again be heard in this splendid part. Mario Chamlee, who as the Chevalier Des Grieux gives unusual distinction, vocally and historically to this part, will be cast for it again and Desire Defrere will be heard as the rough and ready Lescaut. Leon Rothier will sing the short but important part of the elder Des Grieux. Others in the cast are Miss Maxwell, Miss Swarthout, Miss Falco, Mr. Mojica, Mr. Cehanovsky, Mr. Ananian. Mr. Hasselmanns will conduct.

"Aida" July 17

"Aida" than which there is no more popular opera in the repertoire will be heard on Tuesday night, July 17, Mme. Elisabeth Rethberg being cast in the title role with Giovanni Martinelli as Radames. It is not possible to say that these are two of the greatest dramatic roles in opera or that they were never more fittingly filled than they are by Mme. Rethberg and Mr. Martinelli. Mme. Clausen will be cast as Amneris, a part that offers unusual opportunities for singing and acting, while Giuseppe Danise will be Amonasro, one of the most important of baritone roles. Virgilio Lazzari will be heard as Ram-fis the high priest and Paolo Ananian will be the King. Mr. Papi will conduct.

As an exposition of brilliant music as applied to a highly dramatic theme, nothing has ever exceeded Gounod's

"Romeo and Juliet" which is to be presented on Wednesday evening, July 18 with Miss Quagna Mario as Juliet. Miss Mario has demonstrated her worth in no uncertain manner at Ravinia this year, and she will bring to the role of Juliet the girlish charm that the role demands. Edward Johnson, who as singer and actor is especially endowed to portray Shakespeare's impetuous lover, will be Romeo and Leon Rothier will have the important singing role of Friar Laurent. Desire Defrere will be Mercutio and will sing the famous "Moby song" and Miss Margery Maxwell will be Stephano. Others importantly cast are Miss Falco, Mr. D'Angelo, Mr. Mojica, Mr. Paltrinieri, Mr. Ananian. Mr. Hasselmanns will conduct.

The regular concert and entertainment for the children on Thursday afternoon, July 19, will bring the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in a charming program which will be explained by Mr. DeLamarter and which will be followed by Parillo, the singing accordion man and Jimmy Kator, the trickster. Children twelve years of age and under are admitted free to these concerts. The reserved seats are free for everyone.

"Fra Diavolo" July 19

Thursday night, July 19, will witness the season's first presentation of that merry opera bouffe, "Fra Diavolo" which is always welcome at Ravinia. Mario Chamlee is to be heard as the dashing bandit of the title, while Florence Macbeth and Jose Mojica will be the lovers. Mme. Bour-skaya and Vittorio Trevisan are cast as the fun-making English couple, and Virgilio Lazzari and Giordano Paltrinieri will be the comic banditti. Louis D'Angelo will be the inn keeper. "Fra Diavolo" is one of the most spirited works in the realm of lyric drama and although it is light opera its various roles offer such splendid opportunities that they are extremely congenial to artists of grand opera caliber.

An outstanding event of the week will be the revival of "Le Chemineau" on Friday night, July 20. This splendid dramatic opera by Laroux is a gem of musicianship, character delineation and dramatic situations. It requires a cast of special fitness for its various roles and such a cast is available at Ravinia. Mme. Yvonne Gall, schooled in the finest of the French traditions will have the role of Toinette which is rich in all of those elements that make for lyric drama. Giuseppe Danise will be heard in the title role, and it will be remembered that this is one of the greatest parts in the extensive repertoire of this baritone. Although "Le Chemineau" has not been heard at Ravinia since the season of 1924, Mr. Danise's work as the romantic vagrant of this opera has remained as a pleasant memory, Leon Rothier, who, like Mng-Gall is thoroughly trained in the French school of singing and acting will be cast as Francois, a role he has ornamented on many occasions. Jose Mojica will be Toinet, the son of Toinette. Others importantly cast are Mme. Clausen, Mr. D'Angelo, Miss Maxwell, Mr. Defrere, and Mr. Ananian. Mr. Hasselmanns will conduct.

"La Juive" July 21

The week will close on Saturday night, July 21, with a performance of Halévy's colorful opera, "La Juive" in which Mme. Rethberg will again be heard in the stirring role of Rachel and Giovanni Martinelli will be cast as the venerable Eleazar. Leon Rothier will have his accustomed part of Cardinal Brogni. Florence Macbeth is to be the Princess and this time Armand Tokatyan will be heard as Leopold. George Cehanovsky and Paolo Ananian have important roles. Louis Hasselmanns will conduct. This opera is highly dramatic in its lyric passages as well as in its acting and Mr. Martinelli, Mme. Rethberg and Mr. Rothier find themselves completely at home in its trio of great roles.

SAVE with SAFETY at your Rexall DRUG STORE

The Safe Fountain for Your Children

Everything that goes into the manufacture of our Fountain supplies must be wholesome, pure, and clean. Every glass or spoon must be hygienically clean.

Robert W. Pease Pharmacist

Telephone Highland Park 114 Free Delivery Service Opposite the Northwestern Passenger Station.

Press Want Ads Bring Results

You really shouldn't blame the laundress

IT'S the system that's wrong. You simply don't have the equipment and the facilities at home to compete with modern laundries who make a business of washday. And clothes washed our way cost less money, too.

The LAUNDRY / does it best

Reliable Laundry and Dry Cleaning Company

We operate our own dry cleaning plant. 25 years of service.

Phone 178-179

Highland Park, Illinois

Evanston Shop Open Saturday Evenings Only during July and August

THE CLUB

Henry C. Lytton & Sons

CHICAGO—State and Jackson

EVANSTON—Orrington and Church

July Clearances

Now in Progress Throughout Our

Evanston Shop

Tremendous Savings on

SUITS, SHOES and FURNISHINGS

for Every Man and Young Man —for Parents of Every Boy

All Merchandise advertised in the Chicago Papers is also on sale in Our Evanston Shop

FRED L. PROTINE
LAWYER

Phone Deerfield 133
Deerfield, Illinois
Tuesday and Friday evenings

CAMPBELL CHAPTER
O. E. S., No. 712

Meetings first and third
Wednesday at 7:30
MASONIC HALL
on Sheridan Road

Highland Park Lodge No. 738
KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Rank of Knight
July 17
24th District Convention
R. R. THOMAS,
Chancellor Commander.

A. O. FAY LODGE NO. 676
A. F. & A. M.

Thursday, July 12
Special at 7:00 p.m. M. M. Degree
Ft. Sheridan Night

Highland Park Chapter
No. 226, R. A. M.