One of the most beautiful weddings of the season took place on Saturday, June 30, when Miss Isabel Scott, daughter of the Frederick Scott of Hubbard Woods, became the bride of Albert Keep, son of Mrs. John P. Wilson, 1516 State Parkway, Chicago.

The Winnetka Congregational church, charmingly decorated with flowers, was the scene of the wedding. The ceremony took place amid medallions of lilies, pink gaidioli, and ferns, which stood at each side of the altar.

The bride's gown, fashioned of lustrous taffeta and tulle, in bouffant style, struck a new note as it had no train. A wreath of orange blossoms held the tulle veil in place. The gowns of the bridal attendants were of pale pink tulle and taffeta.

The matron of honor was Mrs. F. Langdon Hubbard of Detroit, the bride's sister, and the maid of honor was Miss Ellen Ewing of New York City. Mrs. John P. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Edward K. Welles, Miss Cynthia and Miss Virginia Wilson, Miss Emily Otis, Miss Eleanor Denney, Miss Barbara Mettler, Miss Winifred Smith, and Miss Ellen Stuart were bridesmaids.

Scott, Jr., of Chicago; Langdon Hubbard of Detroit, Gordon Harper and Charles Williams of Baltimore, Emory Ford of Detroit, Clem Hackney of Milwaukee, and Albert Wood of Terre Haute, Ind.

The reception following the ceremony took place on the terrace overlooking the lake in the gardens of the Scott home, where a dance pavilion was built. Supper was served at small tables placed on the open terrace of the house.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. Keep and his bride will go to Charlevoix, Mich., for the summer, and in September they will move to Sheffield, Mass., where Mr. Keep is to be one of the masters at the Berkshire school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee A. Stoker of 228 Myrtle street, Winnetka, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruth, to Dr. Frederick W. Schacht of Racine, Wis. The wedding will take place in September. Miss Stoker and Dr. Schacht were both graduated from Johns Hopkins university.

Armstrong of 861 Bluff street, Winnetka took place at the North Shore hotel in Evanston, June 30, in the presence of the immediate families. Miss Pauline Manchester played the wedding march and the Rev. John K. Coolidge performed the ceremony.

The bride wore white satin combined with lace and tulle, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her veil was decorated with orange blossoms. Miss Susannah Armstrong, the bridegroom's sister, who was maid of honor, was gowned in blue and carried a bouquet of old-fashioned flowers.

Reginald G. Seger of Detroit served as best man. After a family dinner the young people departed on their honeymoon. On their return in the early fall they will be at the Homestead in Evanston.

The maid of honor was Miss Louise Nilles, sister of the groom, and the matron of honor was Mrs. Richard Witt, cousin of the bride. Mr. Alvin Schaffer, brother of the bride. A reception and dinner followed at the Sovereign hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Nilles are honeymooning at Phelps, Wis.

Among the many north shore young people spending the summer in Europe will be two young Wilmette artists, Miss Eleanor Kremer and Miss Helen Peacock. Miss Peacock is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Peacock of 128 Sixth street, and Miss Kremer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Kremer of 723 Laurel avenue.

In Europe they will study the various art galleries and exhibits of Rome, Venice, Paris, Switzerland and England.
