Interesting Happenings About This Part of North Shore and Vicinity; County Seat Doings

Anticipating decreases in the cost of operation of all city departments for the ensuing year the Waukegan city council in meeting last week passed an ordinance providing for appropriations, totaling $1,340,140, which is less than that allotted for operation of the city government last year.

Members of the Waukegan posts of the American Legion, the American Legion Auxiliary and the 40 and 8 are here at present endeavoring to raise the funds necessary for putting on the Illinois State Legion convention in that city next September 8, 9, 10, and 11.

Michael F. Donlea, 73, a lifetime resident of Wauconda, is dead and funeral services were held last week at Elgin, where he had made his home for the past four years. A widow, Mary, survives.

S. H. Kennedy, Waukegan attorney for the past 40 years, died recently at his home in that city after being ill and confined to his bed for the past six months. He was 75 years old.

Three hundred and fifty present and former residents of Ivanhoe gathered Thursday at Gages lake for the fourth annual home-coming celebration of the people of that vicinity.

Mrs. Alice Cousins, for forty-five years a resident of Libertyville and vicinity, passed away at seven o'clock Thursday evening at the Lake county general hospital where she has been under treatment for the past two months. Her death was due to a complication of ailments.

Excavating work on the site of the new Rubin's department store on S. Genesee street, Waukegan, just south of Schwartz's furniture store, was started last week. The construction job will be pushed along without delay and the new home of the department store is expected to be ready within a few months. The new store building is to cost $600,000 and will be of the most modern design and construction.

ST. PAULS CHURCH PLANS PICNIC AUG. 5

To Be Held at Sunset Park; Outdoor Service 10:30 a. m.; Details

The church council has decided to again hold a church picnic. Sunday, August 5th, has been chosen as the most suitable day for the occasion. The Park Commission of Highland Park has granted the permission to hold the picnic at Sunset Park.

All those who attended the church picnic last year will no doubt recall the inspirational and happy time we had. In making preparations for the affair we shall follow previous plans.

An outdoor service will be held at the Park 10:30 a. m. Rev. E. A. Piepenbrok of Indianapolis, Indiana has been invited as the special speaker for the occasion. The girls choir will render special music for the service.

An offering to defray the expenses of the day will be taken at the close of the service.

Immediately following the service we will enjoy a picnic dinner. For this purpose we kindly ask you to bring your basket of good eats. Bring enough for your family, your friends and a little extra. Coffee and lemonade will be served free by the refreshment committee.

The afternoon will be devoted to games and contests of all kinds. Prizes for the winners will be provided. Here are just a few of the surprises that await you. A fish-pond for the children, baseball game between the married and single men, horseshoe pitching contest, relay races for mixed groups, games for boys and girls and many other entertainments to keep everybody interested for the rest of the afternoon.

Refreshments of all kinds will be sold on the grounds.

Officially the picnic will come to a close about 6:00 p. m. After that no committee will be responsible for your entertainment.

Come young and old. Do not disappoint your fellow members and friends by staying away. To be sure your pastor would be disappointed should he fail to find you present. Come and help make it a real St. Paul's Day.

MANY ENJOY CIRCUS SATURDAY-TUESDAY

The children and many grown-ups enjoyed rather a rare treat last week with two shows in town. The Adams Bros. big show with circus features were the entertainers on Saturday and Moon Bros. Circus and Honest Bill's trained wild animals combined show created considerable excitement on Tuesday when they paraded through the town before the afternoon performance.

A Long Island lady was divorced and remarried the same day. Some people are born optimists.

REWARD FOR CAPTURE OF CLARK IS PAID

State's Attorney Gets Confirmation and Sends Cash to Louisville

States Attorney Smith last week got confirmation of the arrest of Claude Clark, alleged killer of Will Beck, by Louisville, Ky., police and dispatched the $1,000 reward offered for the capture.

In a letter from M. Ray Yarberry, chief of detectives, the arresting officers were Detective Sergeants M. J. Carriate and O. F. Hazel. Each man receives $500.

Yarberry wrote that the detectives were "appreciative for the reward and glad to have been of service in the case."

Clark, sought since last May, when Beck was killed at his home between Lake Villa and Millburn, was traced through Chicago and various cities until he reached Louisville. At the time he was arrested he was waiting for a lawyer to give him his clothing so that he could leave for another city.

In all $1,550 was paid out by Col. Smith for the apprehension of the five men charged with the crime. The money was drawn from money received by his office for collection of fines growing out of liquor and vice raids.

VOTE ON FOX LAKE DISTRICT AUGUST 10

County judges of Cook, Kane, Lake, McHenry and Kendall counties met at Aurora recently and fixed the boundaries of a proposed river conservancy in the district. A referendum will be taken Aug. 10. Area included in the district extends a mile or more on either side of the river from the Wisconsin line to LaSalle county.

LaSalle county is to vote on a district of its own. The Fox river and the LaSalle districts will take in all of the area immediately adjoining the river from the point where it rises to the place of its emptying into the Illinois river. The cities of Elgin and Aurora are not included in the district, as they have voted several million dollars for the building of sewerage disposal plants into which all sewerage will go instead of the river.

NO FOREST PRESERVE DISTRICT IN COUNTY

People Here Do Not Believe in Providing Parks For Chicago Tourists

The fight for forest preserves in the southern part of Lake county, which has been carried on for some time, seems doomed to failure.

For years there has been considerable agitation for the establishment of preserves in the sections along the Skokie and Desplaines valley near the southern limits of Lake county and at one time Legion posts in that neighborhood interested themselves in the plan. But the idea apparently has failed to carry far. The advocates of the plan see their efforts developing into nothing substantial.

This is the opinion at least of Dwight H. Perkins, president of the Chicago Regional Planning association, who doubts that the Desplaines river valley in Lake county will ever be taken over as a forest county.

Several times in the past the forest preserve proposition has been voted on, but each time it was defeated," said Mr. Perkins.

NORTHBROOK DAY TO BE CELEBRATED ON AUG. 4

Northbrook this year is observing its annual civic holiday, Northbrook Day, on August 4th, in the Berenschein grove. A big parade will start the proceedings at 10 o'clock in the morning. At 1:30 p. m., there will be talks by prominent speakers, and a program of games, races and band music will follow. Dancing will be a feature, and a community flower show promises to attract much attention. Numerous articles including a new Nash are to be given away, it is reported.

MEANT NOTHING TO HER

"We encounter some queer people in the banking business," remarked the teller in a reminiscent mood. "I remember the case of a certain woman coming to my window and my saying to her: 'Mrs. Blank, this check you deposited the other day came back marked 'No funds.'"

"Oh, did it?" she exclaimed, taking the worthless check. "Then I won't deposit it this time; I'll cash it instead." She pushed it towards me confidently. "Fives and tens, please." — Boston Transcript.
