

MYSTIC WORKERS TO PICNIC AT WHEELING

The Mystic Workers will have a picnic Sunday, August 12 at the Forest Preserve, Wheeling. There will be all sorts of games, prizes and refreshments. All wishing to attend are asked to be at the Northwestern Station at 10 o'clock.

"HEAD MAN" AT ALCYON THEATRE

The Alcyon Theatre continues to present the latest and best in motion picture and stage entertainment. And this coming week is certainly no exception. Sunday, August 12 brings Chas. Murray in his latest and funniest "The Head Man" along with an excellent vaudeville bill. On Monday and Tuesday the Alcyon presents Rod La Roque in the collegiate romance "Hold 'Em Yale." Wednesday and Thursday, August 15 and 16 bring Rudolph Schildkraut in "A Ship Comes In" the picture that caused all the critics to tax their vocabularies for new words of extreme praise. On Friday, August 17 the Alcyon offers the great comedy team Karl Dane and George K. Arthur in "Detectives" along with another fine vaudeville show. It will pay you to make the Alcyon a habit.

EXHIBITION SWIM AT HIGH SCHOOL TANK

Season to Close Saturday Morning. Coach Peel to Vacation in Wisconsin

Coach J. A. Peel, athletic director at Deerfield-Shield high school, who has been conducting swimming classes at the high school pool this summer, will hold a demonstration and exhibition on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for the children to exhibit to their parents and others who care to attend, the various swimming strokes they have learned during the summer season.

The children in the demonstration vary in age from 5 to 12 years. Many of them have shown rapid progress in mastering the act of swimming and advancing into new swimming strokes and diving. A few of the older group have been practicing life saving methods and are about ready to try to pass the junior life saving examination.

Edith Metcalf, Walter Metcalf, Majorie McDonald, Rose Mary Shift, Elizabeth Felsenthal, Jean Becker, Nancy Kaufman, Kitty Weinberg, Carrol Vigeant, Billy Childs, Sara McClernan, Judy Howes, Jean Singer, Gene Jordan, Dot Clark, Doris

Mason, Osborn Mason, Martha Thomas, Annette Jones, Jean Tennant, Barbara Tennant, Isabel Tennant, Barbara White, Helen Graves, Barbara Steele, Jill Lowenstein, Billy Larson.

The pool will close Saturday and Coach Peel is leaving for a months vacation in northern Wisconsin.

It is said that when U. S. Ambassador Morrow at Mexico City was taken ill and put to bed the other day he read detective stories to pass away the time. Wouldn't you think a fellow living in Mexico would have to read George Elliott or Jane Austen to quiet his nerves, rather than something exciting?
