Highland Park scouts starting on new year looking forward to full program and new camp, aim advancements and large attendance at camp during last year.

(Written especially for the Highland Park Press by Merit B. Scout.)

Thirty-seven Highland Park scouts have returned from Camp Checaugau and the veteran Camp Hiawatha, in Michigan, bronzed and full of enthusiasm for the new year ahead. They have had a taste of concentrated scouting, many of them getting more actual scout experience in the two weeks at camp than it is possible to enjoy during the whole year at home.

The last year has been one of many advancements in rank and a great forward step in the negotiating for a camp site of our own which assures that the Northshore Camp, so long a dream, will at last become a reality.

A full program has been planned ahead under the leadership of Deputy Commissioner W. W. Reichardt, as indicated by the following calendar:

Friday, September 28, 1928—6:30 Camp reunion dinner, 8 p.m. Area Wide Court of Award for Life, Star, Eagle and Palms.

A press dispatch says that high taxes may cause a revolt in Chicago. We suppose this refers to the high tax per quart.

HELD FOR SLAYING MAN AT LONG LAKE

Albert Coffill Charged With Murder of E. via Snyder Bound Over

Albert Coffill, 73 Long Lake truck gardener, charged with killing Ervin Snyder, 30, Lake Villa, on July 25, was bound over to the October grand jury last week on a charge of murder by Justice of the Peace Hervey Coulson. He was held without bail. Coffill's attorneys failed to appear. He had been notified last night that they could not be at the preliminary hearing he told Assistant States Attorney S. H. Block.

Four witnesses were called by the state, two testifying that they were eye witnesses to the shooting.

These men, Dan McMann, Long Lake, and Walter Welch, Fox Lake, both identified Coffill as the man who shot down Snyder as he stood unarmed and speechless, beside his automobile.

The proudest man we ever knew was a county chairman with an assistant sergeant at arms badge for the national convention.

McGEOGH TO RESIGN AS LEGION OFFICIAL

Announces His Intention of Quitting as District Commander

Edward J. McGogh, chief clerk for the Naval Reserve at the Great Lakes Naval Training station, notified American Legion posts throughout Lake county last week that on September 11, the last day of the state Legion convention here, he is resigning his office as commander of the Eighth district, American Legion, which comprises the Legion membership of Lake county.

Com. McGogh's term of office was for two years and would not mean an election in the Eighth district until next year, but he declares that in his opinion, a district commander should not serve for more than one year and in such a case, he is resigning to make room for a new man as district commander.

Gene Tunney says that he secretly cherishes the thought that as a playwright Eugene O'Neill is even greater than Shakespeare. We still think Tunney a better fighter than a literary critic.

FORD SAYS MONEY IS TOOL OF INDUSTRY

Declines to Regard Himself as Successful or Rich; Cash Just Like Coal

Money, as it is considered in the accepted sense, holds little further interest for Henry Ford, the industrial genius revealed today in an interview published in The American Magazine.

"You say I am already successful," said Ford. "I am not, except as an assembler of tools. The failure is that man who, with his tools at hand, locks them away and stops work. Money is but a tool. As soon as it becomes other than that in use it is a menace."

Ford does not consider that he has built a large private fortune, despite the fact that his money in the bank, after the new car was produced, totaled $250,000,000.

"He refuses even to regard himself as a rich man," says the magazine. "The simple fact is that he doesn't think in terms of money any more than he thinks in terms of coal. His coal pile and his money pile are in the same category; they are the raw materials of industry."

"It would be easy to quit," Ford said. "I could take a few thousand dollars and live comfortably for the rest of my life, in fact as well as I live now."

The motor magnate, the magazine says, doesn't spend $25,000 a year on himself and family. And there is no pomp and ceremony in his home.

SPRINGFIELD BUILDING REPORT SHOWS GAINS

Springfield, the capital city, was first among nine of the larger cities in Illinois during the month of May in the amount of building permits issued, with a total of $414,060, as shown by figures prepared by the Chamber of Commerce. This sum is also in excess of that of other larger cities outside the state. The comparative figures follow:

Illinois cities: Decatur, $370,910; Joliet, $304,225; Peoria, $229,165; East St. Louis, $214,050; Bloomington, $184,500; Rock Island, $78,028; Danville, $53,260; Quincy, $44,621.

Other cities: Des Moines, Iowa, $282,000; Terre Haute, Ind., $96,514; Davenport, Iowa, $120,273; St. Joseph, Mo., $77,400; Springfield, Ohio, $129,560.

NORTH SHORE LINE ADDS NEW SERVICE

Will Sell Pullman Reservation To All Points; Convenience To Its Patrons

The Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railroad (North Shore line) announces an additional service for the convenience of its customers with completion of arrangements to sell Pullman tickets to all points throughout the country served by interconnecting steam lines operating out of Chicago. The North Shore line is the first transportation system not under contract with the Pullman company to be granted this privilege.

Under the new arrangements, Pullman reservations from Chicago to point of destination may be made through North Shore line ticket agents at Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha, Wis., and Waukegan, Ill., in connection with the purchase of interline rail tickets. Purchasers travel by the North Shore line to Chicago, where they transfer to the train on which their Pullman reservation has been made.

"The addition of Pullman reservations to our interline rail ticket sales service gives the North Shore line a complete hook-up with other mediums of transportation," said R. S. Amis, general passenger agent. "Persons living in North Shore territory can also purchase interline tickets from our agents for completing their journey by airplane, steamer or motor coach. This service enables our customers to make all transportation arrangements before starting on their journey, thereby eliminating the inconvenience and confusion attending such details while in transit."

HELD TO GRAND JURY FOR JEWELRY THEFT

Arthur Zentgraf, 16th street and Sheridan road, North Chicago, employe of an awning company, last Thursday was held to the grand jury by Justice of the Peace Hervey Coulson on bonds of $15,000 on a charge of having burglarized the D. Winters home at Lake Forest, July 21.

Mrs. Winters testified that a bracelet, ring and smaller jewels with a value of $4,000 were stolen.

Zentgraf, on the advice of Attorney George W. Field, waived preliminary hearing.
