Rev. C. G. Unangst, pastor

Dr. J. Scott Carr will preach on Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

The Bible school will meet at 9:30 a. m. and the lesson subject is, "Paul in Thessalonica," Acts 17:1-12. The lessons on the missionary journeys of Paul are both interesting and practical. The class periods are usually most too short, the subject matter is of such an engaging character. God blesses those who have a vital interest in the study of His Word.

Leslie Dreiske will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00 p. m. Topic, "Will the Golden Rule Work in Business and Industry?" Phil. 4:8, 9.
Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The new lights recently installed are very satisfactory. The interior of the church has been greatly improved.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." John 3:36.

Bethany Evangelical

Rev. C. F. Schriver, minister
Sunday school at nine forty-five is the only service in Bethany church today. We hope that many will find it possible to get to Barrington camp for the afternoon and evening services.

Friday is Old People's Day at Barrington. Rev. Wm. Bollman of Allentown, Pa., will preach at ten thirty. At 2:30 there will be both a German and an English sermon. These will be held in the two Tabernacles.

Saturday is Young People's Day. Sunday will be the great day of the feast. Rev. Bollman will speak twice and Prof. P. E. Kegon of the Evangelical Theological Seminary at Naperville will speak.

Picnic features are planned for Monday, Labor Day, at Barrington.

On Wednesday evening next our second Quarterly Conference will be held. Let all official members give particular attention to this meeting.

Sunday, Sept. 9th is the day for our Second Quarterly Communion Service. Keep the date in mind and be present thus gathering inspiration and strength for fall work.

year old Dorothy Jean Anderson to children of high school age. Pilgrims, gypsies, Indians the straw man, clowns, Jewish peddler, scare crows, Uncle Sam, they marched onward in happy throng, with doll buggies, bicycles, horses and aeroplanes.

The Junior Royal Neighbors in uniform of purple and white were noticeable.

Two wrecks of automobiles, with Harold Teen inscriptions on the sides held clowns overflowing the seating capacity of the vehicles.

Among the beautiful floats were those of the Royal Neighbors, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce, the Clavey Ravinia Nursery, Franken Brothers Nursery, the Goelitz Candy company, the occupants of which tossed candy on the line of march. A car labeled "Deerfield the Town of Prosperity," a long string of Nash cars headed by the one to be given away. Pontiacs, Dodge Brothers (McPherson of Highland Park, Distributor), The Notz Hardware store, Sticken Construction Co., Texaco Petroleum Products, Varney's poolroom and the Standard Oil company trucks.

Parade Prize Winners

The parade prize winners were chosen with extreme care by the judges, Paul L. Udell and Thomas Duffy of Highland Park and Rudolph Lauer of Northbrook. So close were some of the decisions that they had to flip a coin in several instances. The Franken Bros., float and that of the Clavey nurseries were among these. The former was composed of natural flowers and the latter was very beautifully arranged also. The judges studied both long and carefully and finally decided that as there was an extra

Those in Charge

President Alex Taylor of the Chamber of Commerce was general chairman of the day and Jack Notz, secretary of the chamber of executive secretary of the celebration. Committee chairmen were: Concessions, Harry Olendorf, Charles Freye; Music, Frank Russo; refreshments, Mike Lencioni; registration booth, Mrs. Steiner and Mrs. Wolf; concession managers—Electrical, W. J. Desmond; hams and bacon, Sol Shapiro; blankets, T. J. Knaak; candy, Jaul Sundstrum; tango game, Phil Scully.

The Nash sedan given away during the celebration was awarded to a Glencoe man.

The celebration was one of the most successful ever held in the North Shore, and the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce, the various chairmen and committees and the people of Deerfield as a whole are to be congratulated on their success and on the splendid manner in which the entire program was carried out. The games and races in the afternoon were staged according to schedule, and everything went off in the finest possible manner, thanks to the excellence of the organization which sponsored the affair.

Hey Mr. Plumber

There's only one thing worse than a broken water pipe and that's tire trouble.

It's our business to keep motorists away from tire trouble and that's why we sell Horseshoe Tires.

To know what real tire mileage and satisfaction really is, you should see us when you need tires.
