

Deerfield

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Perry and daughter, Mrs. Beckman, and Miss Harriet Stryker went to Barrington, Tuesday, to spend the week at the camp meeting of the Evangelical church. Bishop Newton Dubs, of China, a former minister of the Bethlehem Evangelical church, who is in America on a furlough, was the principal speaker at the camp meeting. When Bishop Dubs was in Deerfield he lived in one of the Todd houses on Lincoln avenue, now owned and occupied by Miss Josephine Woodman, a daughter of Mrs. Galloway Woodman. Todd H. Dubs, oldest son of the missionary, was born in this house.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Taylor of Hazel avenue have motored to Waterloo, Ia., to visit Mr. Taylor's mother. Miss Miriam Stryker will return from St. Luke's hospital to spend her vacation in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stryker. Miss Laurel Stryker and Misses Miriam and Hazel Rapp motored to Winnebago, Ill., this week. Misses Rapp are granddaughters of Mrs. Fehr who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Chester Wessling. Last week Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stryker visited Richard Arnold and Samuel Rapp, Mr. Stryker's cousins, in Geneseo, Ill., and also Mrs. Stryker's cousins, Rehner Altman, in Pontiac, Ill.

The Womans Missionary society of the Bungalow church will hold a meeting in the church Thursday afternoon.

From the Chicago Tribune's columns of 65 years ago today on August 28, the following is of interest to the old settlers. "Lieut. David Cornwell of the 9th Louisiana Infantry and Miss Frances Millen of Deerfield, Ill., were married on Aug. 3rd, in Waukegan, by the Rev. Mr. Cleveland." Mrs. David Cornwell was a great aunt of Miss Sadie Galloway, and is buried in the Deerfield cemetery. A quaint old headstone marks the grave. One of David Cornwell's brothers spent his summers in Crystal Lake, Ill., at the home of the Jones family, but spelt his name Cornwall.

DEERFIELD BALL TEAM DEFEATS ST. JAMES NINE

Wins Hard Battle in Close Score of 4 to 3 in 12th Inning Last Saturday

With both teams playing errorless ball, the Deerfield Boosters' took the hard hitting St. James team into camp by a score of 4-3 last Saturday during the Deerfield day celebration.

For eleven innings both teams battled to a 3-3 deadlock and it was not until the twelfth inning before a decision could be made. It was in this inning that Deerfield managed to push across its winning maker. In this inning a double by Esp and a third hit by Sternhouse produced the winning run.

All thru the game it was a pitching duel between Oriento and Harder with Harder having a slight edge on Oriento.

During the entire game he allowed but eight scattered hits and struck out 14 men while Deerfield collected 9 off Oriento and only three were sent to the bench by strike outs.

During the early innings, sensational stops by Burbe and Rogan stopped Deerfield for scoring and it was these men who featured for St. James throughout the game while Segert, Steinhous, Esp, and Lyons who star for the Boosters.

Next Sunday, Sept. 2 Deerfield meets Howard Storage of Chicago at Jewett Park, and another good game is expected.

NORTHWESTERN GRID PROSPECTS BRIGHT

SOPHOMORES TRAINING

Much Depends on Their Work This Fall, as 14 Letter Men Were Graduated; Vets Return

Developing a group of sophomores to take the place of fourteen lettermen lost to the squad through graduation is the job facing Coach Dick Hanley at Northwestern university as the opening of the 1928 season nears.

Much of the success of the Wildcat gridlers this fall will depend upon the manner in which these newcomers perform. Needless to say the Purple board of strategy is not overly optimistic at this stage of proceedings. Loss of such star performers as Tiny Lewis and Vic Gustafson, backs; Waldo Fisher and George Panosh, ends; Rudy Schuler, Arnold Karstens and Walt Rosie, tackles; Bob Schneider, guard and Skeet Wyman and Bill Hellerman, centers, would cause uneasiness in any grid camp.

These men must be replaced by a number of untried sophomores. Several of these new men have displayed promise but it is hardly expected that they will measure up to the ability of Lewis, Fisher, Gustafson and the others who have played their last game for the Purple.

Veterans Available Veterans who will be available are: fullbacks, Capt. Holmer and Achers; halfbacks, Calderwood, Haas, Bergheim; quarterbacks, Levison, Fox, and Rojan; tackles, Hazen and Sinkler; guards, Dart and Anderson; Verdel, end and Erickson, center. Reports from last year's varsity are better and Clark, halfbacks; Spadea, Singleton and Kenty, guards and Cool and Vanderberg, tackles.

In Henry Bruder and Will Lewis, Coach Hanley has two sophomores who are expected to make a creditable showing as halfbacks. Lee Hanley, coach Hanley's younger brother, made a favorable impression at quarterback in spring practice. Several sophomore ends, although inexperienced, will no doubt see much service. They are Woodworth, Olyphant, Baker and Massey.

Promising Freshmen Few promising linemen will come up from the freshman ranks. Lack of husky tackles and guards is especially noticeable and will probably result in a weakness in this department. Among the more promising new linemen are Sinks and Sullivan, guards, and Clark, center.

An extra burden is placed upon the coaching staff this year in the formation of a second or B team. Several of the above sophomore candidates and others of less promise will make up this team which is to be coached by Herb Steger who has been assistant varsity coach for several years.

NATIONAL LEGION HEAD TO BE AT CONVENTION

Edw. E. Spafford Expected Guest at State Meeting in Waukegan in Sept.

National Commander Edward E. Spafford of the American Legion will be among the noted guests present at the Legion's state convention at Waukegan, Sept. 8, 9, 19 and 11.

Although he received an invitation some time ago from State Commander Albert Carter to attend the gathering Wednesday, Spafford was uncertain in his plans until a few days ago. It was announced last week that he is expected to arrive in Waukegan on Monday, Sept. 10, the day of the big convention parade.

Among the other guests will be Gen. Milton J. Foreman, one of those active in the organizing of the Legion and a past commander; "Daddy" Schick, past state commander and a busy figure at Legion meets, and Howard Savage, past national commander, who led the Legion pilgrimage to France last year.

According to the plans announced by Commander Carter, Dwight Davis, secretary of war, has been asked to be the principal speaker at the convention. He has indicated his willingness to accept if not held up by duties in Washington. Secretary of the Navy Curtis Wilbur may take his place if he is unable to attend.

May Ask Coolidge A possibility that President Coolidge may be asked to attend the convention was expressed Wednesday when it was learned he may quit his Brule, Wis., retreat about convention time.

No definite discussion has taken place in regard to the suggested Coolidge invitation as yet but some action may be forthcoming.

The keynote speeches are always very fine, but they should not pitch the keynote so high that only the soprano soloists can hit it.

LOSES BRIDGE CONTRACT THROUGH ERROR, REPORT

Error in computing the cost of constructing a bridge at Highland Park has cost a Libertyville contractor, J. C. Woolf, the job after it appeared as if he were to build it, it was learned from the state highway department, says the Waukegan Sun.

Woolf had bid $52,327.30 on the bridge at Highland Park on Route 42. That was the lowest offered and the state department awarded the contract to him.

Later it was discovered that there was an error and that the true bid was $54,010.30 and third low.

In asking a ruling from Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom the chief state highway engineer, Frank T. Sheets, was informed that the department would be justified in rejecting the bidding and awarding the contract to the next low bidder.

Thus Ray Mann Construction company, at Rockford, received the job. On the first report Mann had been second low.
