ENGINEERS WORK ON PHOTOPHONE DEVICE

FOR USE IN THE HOME

Easily Operated Reproducing Devices Soon Available Is Belief: Make Talking Movies

Engineers are now at work on a simplified photophone device suitable for use in the home, which will make it possible, it is stated, to reproduce "talking movies" in the home very much as the ordinary radio broadcast programs are now being received in more than eight million homes. This announcement was made by General James G. Harbord, president of the Radio Corporation of America, at the formation of a new company to be known as R. C. A. Photophone, Incorporated.

In discussing the formation of the new company, General Harbord pointed out that although the Radio Corporation, General Electric and Westinghouse had been preparing for several years to market apparatus synchronizing voice and music with motion pictures, public introduction of the apparatus had been delayed until the engineers had achieved "complete practicability" so that it would be as simple to operate as a radio set, and, at the same time, highly perfected.

"The Photophone," said General Harbord "is both simple and practical. The essential principle is the recording of pictures and sound on one film. While various methods have been devised for 'talking movies,' experience has shown that the most practical is that of recording pictures and sound on the same film. This is the method employed by the Photophone. It is now possible to photograph the President of the United States—voice as well as action—and to distribute films reproducing the event throughout the country.

"Easily operated reproducing apparatus for use in theatres, schools and churches will be nationally available. An entire opera, musical comedy or drama can be electrically recorded on the film, just as it is seen and heard, and then reproduced from the same film. Whatever can be seen or heard, whether it is a nightingale singing or an army in battle, can now be recorded and reproduced for both the eye and the ear. Moving picture dramas with complete orchestral accompaniment, or with music and speech, will be available for nation-wide use.

"Standard films without the sound can be used without any change in the machine. The only thing the operator has to do is to close one switch when he is projecting pictures with sound, and open in when he does not want the sound. Any type of 'talking film' can be used in the machine. The type of sound reproducer to be used will vary with the size of the room in which the pictures are to be shown. The reproducer embodies some remarkable new developments in acoustics.

"Sight and hearing have been the two avenues of approach to the human mind for education, religion and entertainment. Now one medium combines the appeal to sight and hearing simultaneously, with universal accessibility and availability. The complete practicability of the new art has already been demonstrated, and there remained only the need for an intelligent and serviceable system of manufacture and distribution.

"One can only guess at the many varied uses of this invention as an instrument for the spread of knowledge, for bringing the people of the world closer together, and for the advancement of civilization."

SATURDAY, SEPT. 22 FORGET-ME-NOT DAY

Tag Day for North Shore Chapter American Veterans of the World War

The ninth annual Forget-me-not Drive has designated Saturday, September twenty-second, as Forget-me-not tag day for disabled veterans of the world war; and a proclamation has been issued by President Coolidge urging citizens to give on that day for this worthy cause.

At their meeting on Monday evening, the Highland Park city council approved the request of the North Shore chapter that they be allowed to have a tag day in the city on that day.

Judge McClain, commander of Evanston Post No. 3, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, is directing the day within the province of the North Shore chapter, which includes the towns of Highland Park, Glenocoe, Hubbard Woods, Winnetka, Wilmette and Evanston, and he is issuing a call for volunteer women taggers. Members of the Legion Auxiliary, of the Woman's club, and high school girls are urged to volunteer as taggers for the good of disabled veterans. Blanks for volunteer taggers to fill out may be obtained at the office of the Highland Park Press, and may be filed there. Judge McClain will see that all volunteers are provided with tags and information regarding the drive.

Should the designated day be rainy Forget-me-not Day will be held on the following Monday, September 24.

HIGHLAND PARK MAN SECOND IN CONTEST

W. J. Faust, of Highland Park, took second honors in a horseshoe pitching contest conducted at the old high school field in Waukegan Sunday as part of the activities connected with the state convention of the American Legion. E. J. Quinn of Riverside was first. A large crowd of interested Legionnaires looked on.

Down in Mexico they have discovered some wide roads built by the Indians a thousand years ago. So far, no antique detour signs have been encountered.
