MANY HOME GAMES AT NORTHWESTERN

SECOND TEAM CONTEST

Management Provides Interesting Schedule, Second Team
Matches When Varsity
Is Not at Home

Evanston, Ill., Sept. 13—Applications for single game tickets for the six home games on Northwestern's football schedule are now being received and will continue to be accepted until the supply is exhausted. The season ticket sale which has been in progress for several months will also continue until the allotment of such seats has been sold. Over 10,000 season tickets have already been sold and it is expected that the allotment of 17,000 will be gone soon.

A very limited supply of Dartmouth tickets are still available and according to the ticket office, the only sure way of obtaining tickets for this game is through the purchase of season tickets. The limited supply of tickets for this game has made necessary holding each individual order to two tickets only for this game.

There is no limit to the number of season tickets which any one person can purchase as long as the supply lasts. These tickets are within the goal lines and give to the holder the same seat at each of the six home games.

Two second team games with Indiana and Illinois are not included in the season ticket. These games are played when the varsity teams are playing at Bloomington and Urbana.

The Northwestern schedule of home games follows:

- Oct. 13—Butler N. U. second team vs. Loyola varsity.
- Oct. 13—Ohio States.
- Oct. 20—Kentucky N. U. second team vs. Notre Dame second team.
- Nov. 3—Minnesota (Homecoming).
- Nov. 10—Purdue.
- Nov. 24—Dartmouth second team home games.
- Oct. 27—Illinois (General admission.)
- Nov. 17—Indiana (General admission.)
- Out of town games:
- Oct. 27—Illinois at Urbana.
- Nov. 17—Indiana at Bloomington.

STATE BOARD OF P. T. A.
IS NOW IN SESSION

The fall meeting of the executive committee and the board of managers of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers (the change of state title was changed to conform with the national one at the Cleveland conference last spring) is being held at the state headquarters in the Woman's City club on Michigan Avenue at Wacker Drive on September 12, 13 and 14. Parent-Teacher associations throughout the state have shown that there is no dull season in their activities, since the job of being parent is an all year one. Special attention has been paid to recreation and to hygiene. Playgrounds have had directors to supervise the vacation time athletics and recreations of the students. During the past summer all of the associations in the cities of Mattoon, Moline, Canton, Pekin and Decatur examined the children who were to enter school this fall, and had the physical defects corrected in an effort to send the children to school free from physical defects that could be remedied. This is the eighth summer that this campaign known as the "Summer Round-up" has been one of the summer activities of the Parent-Teacher associations, inaugurated by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

An interesting co-operation by county superintendents, resulted in many county teachers' institutes including in their educational lectures talks by state board members of the P.T.A. on the value and possibilities of the Parent-Teacher movement.

The North Shore has been favored in having as state presidents three women who live in Winneka, who have also been members of the board of the National Congress. They are Mesdames: Orville T. Bright, Benjamin Franklin Langworthy and William F. Young.

Wilmette has a number of women on the state board, and Deerfield had the Thrift, and the Child Welfare Magazine chairmen of the respective committees for a number of years.

DISTRICT 21 MEETS IN EVANSTON OCT. 3

The first conference of the newly created District Twenty-one of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held in the new Haven school in Evanston, Wednesday morning, October third from ten to twelve o'clock. All Parent-Teacher associations in Lake County and northern Cook County are urged to send delegates to this important meeting.

MADE DEAN OF WOMEN AT U. OF COLORADO

Miss Lydia L. Brown, Former
D. S. H. S. Girl, Accepts
Position in Boulder

A former Deerfield-Township high school girl has been made dean of women at the University of Colorado, in Boulder.

Miss Lydia L. Brown has taken an apartment at The Nafe which she has leased for the school year. She was selected as dean upon the recommendation of the former dean, S. Antoinette Bigelow, who resigned after eighteen years in the position. New Dean of Women Arrives in Boulder

Miss Lydia L. Brown of Chicago who is to succeed S. Antoinette Bigelow as dean of women at the University of Colorado, has arrived in an apartment at The Nafe, which she has leased for the school year.

Dean Bigelow has voluntarily retired from the office, which she has capably and popularly filled for eighteen years, to devote her time to teaching English literature. Miss Brown was selected on the recommendation of Dean Bigelow. The latter has been spending the summer at her cabin in Gold Hill and will counsel with Dean Brown, who will have the capable services of Mrs. Beatrice Coen, who was Dean Bigelow's assistant.

Dean Brown has served in a like capacity in a junior college in Texas, and in a school for girls in Chicago; also as assistant and acting dean at the University of Wisconsin. The university has issued the following summary of her record:

Miss Brown did her preparatory work in Deerfield Township high school at Highland Park, Ill., and in Kemper Hall, Kenosha, Wis., a private Episcopalian boarding school. She did her college work at Northwestern university and Vassar college, receiving her A. B. degree in 1912. She made her debut in 1913 and before going to St. Mary's college, Dallas, Texas, for two years in 1916, did volunteer church work in Chicago. She was corresponding secretary and later president of the Junior Auxiliary of that diocese. At St. Mary's she was assistant principal and head of the history department, and later principal.

After a year as assistant to the principal of the University School for Girls, Chicago, she studied interior decorating at the Art Institute. The following two years, 1920-21, she was with Marshall Field and company. From 1921-26 she was at the University of Wisconsin, first as assistant to the dean of women in charge of freshmen women and panhellenic affairs, then in charge of sophomore women, and in the second semester, 1925-26, acting dean of women in charge of the scholarship and junior and senior women, the supervision of all women's activities, including housing, discipline and serving on all committees relating to her work. She received her Master of Arts in history from Wisconsin in June, 1923. In 1924-

FORMER RESIDENT COMMITTS SUICIDE

William Soukup of Chicago Ends
His Life; Despondency, Claimed Motif

William Soukup a former resident of Deerfield killed himself early Friday morning at his home in Chicago, 4822 Drummond Place. His wife was out of town enjoying a vacation at the time, but his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Peterson told the police that while she saw him draw the revolver, yet she was unable to prevent the tragedy and the only motive she could give was despondency.

Mr. Soukup while residing in Deerfield seemed to be of a very cheerful disposition and won many friends, especially among the local American Legion Post and Masonic order of which he was a member.

Mr. and Mrs. Soukup lived in Deerfield on Springfield avenue, and moved to Chicago about a year ago.

Funeral services were held from chapel 2410 W. North avenue, Monday, Sept. 10, at 2 p. m. Interment was in Acacia Park.

Besides his wife, one sister, Bessie Rederer, four brothers, Joseph, Frank, Rudolph and Robert survive him.

LOTUS BEDS BLOOM;
FIRST IN 3 YEARS

Many Visitors Attracted to Grass Lake; Plant Will Again Flourish

For the first time in three years, the famous lotus beds of Grass Lake are again in bloom and promise to continue blossoming for another two weeks. The blooms this year are very pretty and hundreds of sightseers have visited the lake during the past week.

Three years ago high water threatened to exterminate the plants for all time. At that time, Grass Lake exceeded its usual level and the flowers were covered. Within two years the lotus will be as thick as ever, according to Jack O'Connor of Blarney Isle, who has been a close observer of the conditions of the lotus beds.

ASKS SUPERVISORS FOR AID ON BRIDGE

Elmer Clavey, road commissioner of West Deerfield township, has an application before the board of supervisors asking aid on a bridge to span the north branch of the Chicago river that extends into the county in that township. Clavey points out that the cost will be $7,000 and that the township can only bear half that amount.

25 she was on leave of absence, traveling and studying in Europe. In 1926-27 and 1927-28 she has been studying toward her Ph.D. at the University of Chicago.

North Shore Line Erects Statues

An attractive innovation in outdoor advertising has been introduced by the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad (North Shore Line) in the territory which it serves with the erection of important traffic points of artistic statues as a medium for carrying its message of service to the public.

These statues, which are constructed of a solid composition that will withstand the elements, present the figure of a town crier of early American days striding along with a bell in one hand and a scroll in the other. On the scroll are inscribed in large letters the words: "Did you ever travel 80 miles an hour?"—emphasizing the high-speed operation of all-steel North Shore Line trains between Chicago and Milwaukee.

The figure of the town crier is seven and one-half feet tall and appears to be carved out of marble. It stands on a seven-foot base, which is finished to represent light grey granite. On the four sides of the base are large North Shore Line emblems in bas-relief and plaques telling of the territory and leading communities served.

Ten of these statues are being erected by the North Shore Line, and eight are already completed. These are located at Dempster Street and Briergate stations on the Skokie Valley Route, Milwaukee avenue and Dempster street, Milwaukee avenue north of River Road, Milwaukee avenue at Half Day Road, Waukegan Road at Northbrook and on Sheridan Road at Wilmette. The picture shows the statue at Briergate station on the Skokie Valley Route.
