

North Shore News

Saturday evening, September 8, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Glencoe Union church, the marriage of Miss Mary Lewis Lothrop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mark Lothrop, to Samuel Smith Hill, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith Hill of Reading, Pa., took place. The Rev. James A. Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church read the service. Following the ceremony, there was a reception for the family and intimate friends at Indian Hill club. The young people plan to live in East Orange, N. J.

Miss Lothrop was attended by Mrs. Lewis Andrew Day as matron of honor. Her bridesmaids were Miss Christine Baumann of Winnetka, Miss Vera McDermid of Glencoe, Miss Esther Everett of Minneapolis, Miss Gwendolyn Mills of Evanston, Miss Margery Steele and Miss Helen Strong of Hartford, Conn.

Mr. Day acted as best man for Mr. Hill, and the ushers were Dr. Chester Carroll of New York, James J. Gibson of Wilmette, Prescott Lothrop, H. Hiester Nuhlenberg of Kansas City, William Sessions of Chicago, Alvin Spats of Reading, Pa., Louis Watermuller of Chicago, and Boyd Wilson of New York.

Among the out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Hill of Reading, Pa.; Mrs. James Humphreys of Boston, Mass.; Miss Fanny Clapp of Farmington Center, Mass.; Mrs. George E. Whitney of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Grace L. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Muncie of Swarthmore, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Hill and family of Elmira, N. Y.

News of a wedding which occurred in Michigan during the July vacation days, and which has since been kept a profound secret, leaked out this week and, as a result, Mrs. Edward Kuehn, who was formerly Miss Mildred Arnold, in charge of the office of William Edwards and Son, 372 Hazel avenue, Glencoe, is being showered with congratulations.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Arnold of 1538 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette. She and Miss Emma Boring, of 225 Catalpa place, Wilmette, spent their vacation at Stony Lake, Mich., a year ago, at which time Miss Arnold met Dr. Edward Kuehn, a prominent young physician of Muskegon.

Plans were made to spend this year's vacation at the same place, and concurrently were effected the wedding arrangements, though these latter were maintained as a secret. They were married at Manistee, July 16.

Miss Elizabeth Knode was being presented to society by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morton Knode, Saturday afternoon at a tea given by them in the gardens surrounding their home at 955 Green Bay road, Winnetka.

Miss Knode, whose popularity as a debutante has been emphasized these last few weeks by the many parties given in her honor, is a graduate of Westover and will leave shortly for her sophomore year at Wellesley. She has chosen the following girls, many of whom are also debutantes of this season, to assist her at the tea from 4 until 7 o'clock, Miss Charlotte Picher, Miss Louise and Miss Antoinette Lackner, Miss Jean Stevens, Miss Alice Jacques and Miss Elizabeth Warren.

The tea which Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sherman of 213 Linden avenue gave Saturday afternoon at Indian Hill club for their daughters, Miss Louise Dickinson Sherman and Miss Eleanor Buttolph Sherman, was one of the large affairs of the season. The girls who assisted from 4 until 7 o'clock included Miss Theodosia Smith, Miss Margaret Quan, Miss Cynthia and Miss Suzanne Kohlsaat, Miss Katherine Adams, Miss Mary Louise Fenton, Miss Patty Foresman, Miss Marianne Stevenson, Miss Helen Dawes, Miss Louise Badgerow, Miss Josephine Dennehy, Miss Jean Armstrong, Miss Marianna Ruffner, and Miss Lois Truesdale.

The engagement of Miss Doris Cochran and Charles D. Klotz was announced last Wednesday by Miss Cochran's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert John Cochran at their home in Emporia, Va. Mr. Klotz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Klotz of Winnetka. Though the exact date has not been set the wedding is planned for the near future.

Mrs. Rufus Dawes and her daughters, Miss Margaret and Miss Helen Dawes, of Evanston, were hostesses at a dinner Thursday evening given in honor of three of this season's debutantes, Miss Elizabeth Knode of Winnetka, Miss Jean MacLeish of Hubbard Woods, and Miss Elizabeth Warren of Evanston.

Miss Ruth Stoker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee A. Stoker of 228 Myrtle street, Winnetka, and Dr. Frederick W. Schacht of Racine, Wis., will be married tomorrow evening at the home of her parents. The ceremony will be read at 8:30 o'clock and a reception will follow immediately.

Miss Katherine Smits of Baltimore, Md., is coming to be Miss Stoker's maid of honor and three small nieces and a nephew will be flower girls and ring bearer. Dr. Schacht has asked Dr. Edward Schacht of Detroit to be the best man and the ushers will be Leroy Stoker, a brother of the bride, and Milton Schacht of Racine, a brother of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtenay C. Davis of Kenilworth were among the attendants at the wedding of Miss Margaret May Patten and John Kirke Dunham which took place Tuesday evening in Chicago. Mrs. Davis was her sister's matron of honor and Mr. Davis was one of the ushers.

Mrs. Joseph Joyce and her daughter, Ruth, have returned to their home at 531 Essex road, Kenilworth, from a pleasant eastern trip. After a few days at Niagara Falls they took the St. Lawrence and Saguenay river trips, enjoying the Thousand Islands, Montreal, and Quebec. Later they spent some time in New York, and New Rochelle with relatives and in Philadelphia with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Maloney, formerly of Kenilworth. Mrs. A. J. Brock and her daughter, Marjorie, accompanied them.

Mrs. John H. Cleary of 826 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka, is home after a season spent at her summer home in northern Michigan and a trip east the latter part of the summer. Mrs. Cleary and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Roach and family, who spent the summer at the Cleary summer home, motored through Canada and to Cleveland where Mrs. Cleary left with her granddaughter, Lorraine Roach, on an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Windes and their daughter, Sallie, arrived home Wednesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Windes went east several weeks ago to meet Miss Sallie at Montreal on her arrival from her trip abroad. Miss Windes' main object of her trip, though she visited various European countries, was to take a four weeks' course in physical education at the Bertram School of Gymnastics at Copenhagen. During her stay in this city she was delighted with the cordiality and friendliness of the many people with whom she came in contact.

Miss Louise Badgerow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Badgerow of 555 Arbor Vitae road, is the latest Winnetka girl whose name is added to the season's debutante list. Her parents will present her to society next New Year's day at a reception to be held at the Indian Hill club. Miss Badgerow is, however, taking an active part in the debutante parties which are preceding hers this fall and is to give a luncheon next Monday at Indian Hill at which the guests of honor will be Miss Jean MacLeish and Miss Elizabeth Warren.

The marriage of Miss Alma Madsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Soren Madsen of Menominee, Mich., to Marshall Knox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert of 1046 Spruce street, took place Saturday, September 1, at high noon, at the St. John's Lutheran church, the Rev. Herman W. Meyer officiating.

The bride and groom left at once on a short wedding trip in northern Michigan and upon their return will occupy the house in Northbrook which Mr. Knox recently built.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Strong of 1377 Tower road and their two older boys, and Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Webster, Jr., with Miss Elizabeth and Turner, returned to Winnetka last Wednesday after being abroad all summer. Their interesting trip included an air flight from Berlin to Amsterdam where they saw the opening of the Olympic games and where the Strongs' motor awaited them. With this and another car they toured through many of the European countries. The Websters are staying for a week or so with the Strongs until they open up their home at 696 Prospect avenue.
