WANT DONATIONS OF BOOKS FOR SAILORS

This is Book Week (September 17 to 22) dedicated to men who man the American Merchant Marine. These men, who sail to the most remote corners of the earth under the American Flag, depend almost entirely for their reading matter upon the friends of the Merchant Marine.

are eagerly and gratefully received by them. Reading matter of any description is welcome, books new and old, science, essays. Surely there is scarcely a household that has not at least one volume that can be spared for the benefit of these courageous men so far from home.

Reading is one of the chief diversions of these men at sea and books

Contributions may be made to the American Merchant Marine Library association, 87 Wall Street, New York City or the United States Shipping board, Merchant Fleet corporation, 41 W. Jackson boulevard, Chicago, Ill.
