A very pretty wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dee A. Stoker of Winnetka when their daughter, Ruth, became the bride of Dr. Frederick W. Schacht of Racine, Wis. The ceremony was read at 8:30 o'clock and was followed immediately by a reception.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin and net, fashioned with a basque and gracefully uneven hemline. The cap of the long tulle veil was of honiton lace and orange blossoms. Miss Katherine Smits of Baltimore, Md., who was the maid of honor, was gowned in green chiffon and two of the small flower girls wore blue, and the other pale pink crepe de chine. The bride's nephew, who served as ringbearer, was in white. Dr. Edward Schacht of Detroit was the best man and the ushers included Leroy Stoker and Milton Schacht of Racine.

The Schachts have left for a motor trip and will make their future home at Rochester, Minn., where Dr. Schacht is on the staff at Mayo Brothers' hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlan W. Converse of Winnetka have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Marcia Burnham Converse, to Donald Olin Cady of Evanston.

The wedding will take place at 8:30 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, September 25, at the Winnetka Congregational church. The Rev. James Austin Richards, assisted by Dr. J. W. F. Davies, will read the service. Following the ceremony, a reception for the immediate families and close friends will be held at the home of the bride.

Miss Converse has chosen Miss Irene Baehr of Glencoe to be her maid of honor and Mrs. Clement Rockey of Moradabad, India, sister of the groom, Miss Vera Leahy of Evanston, Miss Edna Martin and Miss Ruth Faut, both of Chicago, will be the bridesmaids.

Colin W. Johnson of Ireton, Iowa, will serve Mr. Cady as best man and the ushers will be Loren Converse, brothers of the bride, Clement Rockey of India, Walter Winkler of South Bend, Ind., and David Wallace of Chicago.

Miss Margaret Fuller Austrian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Austrian, was married last Saturday at 6:30 o'clock to Dr. L. Benno Bernheimer at the Austrians' summer residence in Glencoe. The ceremony was read in the presence of only the immediate family and was followed by a large dinner dance. Mr. and Mrs. Austrian reside at 53 East Division street, Chicago during the winter season.

At a lovely ceremony performed last Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the gardens surrounding her home, Miss Lida Raymond, daughter of Mrs. Lillian E. Raymond of 874 Hill road, Winnetka, became the bride of Harry Mayhew of Waukegan, son of Mrs. A. E. Mayhew of Los Angeles. Dr. Horace J. Bridges read the ceremony, assisted by Dr. James Madison Stiffer of Evanston.

The bride's gown was of ivory tulle with d'Alencon lace, fashioned with a long full train over a short skirt of lace. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias. The bridesmaids, Miss Edna Mayhew, Miss Helen Raymond, Miss Jean Raymond, Miss Fischer, and Mrs. Norwood Burch, wore gowns of various shades of orchid and blue tulle and the matron of honor, Mrs. Don W. Mercer, wore a darker shade of blue tulle. They carried loose bouquets of garden flowers and roses.

Ted Swigart acted as best man for Mr. Mayhew and the ushers were Norwood Burch, Fred Raymond, Henry Penfield, and W. E. Burch, Jr.

Among the out of town guests who were here for the wedding and its attendant festivities were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Raymond and three children, Helen, Jean, and Jack of Paris, France. Mr. Raymond is a brother of the bride and, with his family, has been staying at his mother's home. The groom's mother, Mrs. A. E. Mayhew, and his grandmother, Mrs. A. M. Swigart, of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ingalls of St. Louis were also here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew have motored south on their honeymoon and will probably spend some time at Asheville, N. C. They will make their home in Waukegan on their return.

Mrs. Vera Johnson of Wilton, Iowa, announces the marriage of her daughter, Dorothy Frances, to John Harold Wieder, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wieder of 510 Oakland avenue. The wedding took place on September 8, at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. F. B. James at Bettendorf, Iowa.

The ceremony was performed in the beautiful gardens of the James home on the Mississippi river. The bride's gown of white satin was adorned with a deep yoke of lace from her grandmother's wedding dress.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wieder left for the wedding last Saturday morning and will visit in DeKalb before returning home.

The John Harold Wieder will go on a motor trip for their honeymoon and later will be at home in Rogers Park.

It is to be hoped that the two debutants whose parties are this afternoon will be as fortunate in having beautiful weathers as was Miss Elizabeth Knode last Saturday when, in the gardens of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morton Knode of Hubbard Woods, she made her bow to society. She was assisted by Miss Charlotte

Picher, Miss Louise Lackner, Miss Jean Stevens, Miss Alice Jacques and Miss Elizabeth Warren.

Miss Knode's frock was brought over especially for her from Paris and was of flesh colored marquisette with many soft ruffles on the skirt and with a large vermilion flower on one side. She carried a bouquet of valley lilies and orchids.

There have been affairs given almost daily this past week for Miss Knode and the other debutantes including Miss Badgerow's luncheon last Monday at Indian Hill, Miss Charlotte Picher's dinner dance last Wednesday evening and Miss Janet Kirk's luncheon, also last Wednesday. Among others who have entertained are Mrs. Ernst C. von Ammon and Mrs. Erskine Wilder who gave a luncheon last Tuesday at the Vista Del Lago.

Miss Louise and Miss Antoinette Lackner entertained their friends Thursday at luncheon at their home. These girls are leaving next Friday for Vassar and will forego the rest of the debutante festivities until their Christmas vacation when Miss Louise will make her bow to society at a tea.

Saturday afternoon, Miss Knode and the others in this year's group will be occupied with the two debut teas of the day and following that many of them will be entertained at a dinner to be given by Miss Marianne Stevenson, who has been in Winnetka this summer with her parents at 33 Locust road, at the Saddle and Cycle club. Later in the evening there is Miss Elizabeth Warren's debut party to be attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtenay C. Davis of 243 Leicester road, Kenilworth entertained at a large Sunday evening supper given at the Early American Tea room in Barrington in honor of Miss Margaret May Patten and John Kirke-Dunham Chivers of Nashville, Tenn., whose marriage took place Tuesday evening, September 4. Mrs. Davis, who is the bride's sister, was matron of honor at the wedding and Mr. Davis served as one of the ushers.

Miss Mary Louise Fenton of Winnetka, whose engagement and approaching marriage to Gerald B. Horton of Wilmette was announced recently, has completed her wedding plans.

The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard of Winnetka will read the ceremony at Christ church, Winnetka, at 8:30 o'clock, October 17. The date of the wedding is the same as that of the bride's sister, Mrs. Stanley Morrill, formerly Beatrice Fenton, who was married five years ago in Christ church.

Mrs. Morrill will be the matron of honor for her sister, and the maid of honor will be Miss Monore White of Evanston. Miss Vesper Getman of Evanston, Miss Pauline Wolff, Mrs. John A. Thompson of Wilmette, a cousin of the bridegroom, in whose wedding the bride took part last spring, and Miss Louise Sherman will be the bridesmaids.

Mr. Morton's brother, Kenneth D. Horton, will be best man. The ushers who have been chosen are Craig C. Velie and Howard M. Sharp of Joplin, Mo., John A. Thompson, C. Winston Tarbet of Chicago, William W. Miller of Winnetka, and Charles Milton McCrae of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp will be guests of Miss Fenton at her home during the pre-nuptial festivities.

A number of affairs are being planned for Miss Fenton, among which three definite dates have been chosen. Miss Helen Hardenbergh will give a party September 25, at the Saddle and Cycle club. On October 13, the Saturday before the wedding, Mrs. W. T. Fenton, the bride's grandmother, who is a resident of the Moraine hotel, will give a dinner party for Miss Fenton. Howard W. Fenton will give the bridal dinner the night before the wedding at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adams Fitch, whose marriage took place last Saturday, sailed Wednesday on their wedding trip to Bermuda. The bride was Miss Lucille King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving George King of Rogers Park. Mr. Fitch is the son of Col. and Mrs. Claude E. Fitch of 1033 Elmwood avenue.

The ceremony was read at 8:30 o'clock in the evening, at the King residence, the Rev. Horace G. Smith officiating and an informal reception for the two families followed. The bride wore a frock of flesh-colored chiffon fashioned with a long, full skirt and with a bow and long streamers of French blue. She carried lilies-of-the-valley and pale pink rosebuds. Her only attendant, her sister, Miss Marjorie, was in a period gown of French blue taffeta. Her bouquet was of pale yellow roses and valley lilies. Philip Vaughan Bright, Jr., served as best man.

Mrs. Gilbert Kelly and her daughter, Elizabeth, of 412 Cumnor road, Kenilworth have returned from a month's vacation at Leland, Mich. Miss Ruth Mary Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Harrison of Kenilworth, returned with them to be here for the opening of school last Monday. The rest of the Harrison family expects to return soon.

Miss Helen Lane, granddaughter of Mrs. H. C. Cooper of Wilmette, was married at 8:30 o'clock Thursday night in the home of her sister, Mrs. E. K. Butler of Glencoe. The bridegroom was Capron Hunter of Freeport, Ill. The couple will go to Estes Park on their honeymoon.

Miss Charlotte Picher, daughter of Mrs. Oliver Picher, whose debut will be a November event, was hostess last Wednesday evening at a large dinner dance given in honor of Miss Elizabeth Knode and Miss Jean MacLeish at Indian Hill Country club. Miss Picher is leaving early next week for the east where she will attend a wedding in Philadelphia and visit for a week or so in New York City.

Mrs. James C. Baker, 472 Hazel avenue, who has traveled in China this summer with friends from Evanston and who since her arrival in this country has been visiting Mr. Baker's sister in Vancouver, is expected to return home some time today after her long absence.
