Miss Mary-Louise Fenton, daughter of Howard W. Fenton of 818 Bryant avenue, Winnetka, who will become the bride of Gerald E. Horton, son of Mrs. E. B. Horton of Wilmette, on October 17, has announced the schedule of parties which will be given for her in the next three weeks before the wedding.

Miss Helen Hardenbergh, who has been added to the list of bridesmaids, will give a tea and shower next Tuesday afternoon at the Saddle and Cycle club. Miss Hardenbergh is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Lorenzo M. Johnson of 710 Sheridan road.

Miss Emily Smith and Miss Florence Boyd of Highland Park will give a tea and shower on Friday, September 28, probably in Miss Smith's home. On Tuesday, October 2, Miss Martha Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Thomas will give a bridge and shower at her home, 312 South avenue, Glencoe.

Thursday, October 4, is the date of a tea and shower which will be given by Miss Pauline Wolff of Chicago. Mrs. Warren Lamson and Miss Elizabeth Lamson will give a bridge and shower on October 8, in their home at 840 Sheridan road. Mrs. John A. Thompson, a cousin of the bridegroom, will give a small shower at which the bridal party only will be the guests, at her home in Wilmette. Mrs. Stanley Morrill, the matron of honor and sister of the bride, will entertain at a tea and shower in her home at Lake Forest.

The out-of-town guests will arrive on Saturday, October 13, and Mrs. William T. Fenton, the grandmother of the bride, will give a dinner at the Moraine hotel that night for the bridal party. Mrs. J. Frank Octigan and Mrs. L. Octigan White will give an evening tea and shower on Sunday, October 14, at Mrs. Octigan's home, 767 Mt. Pleasant road, at which the members of the bridal party will be entertained.

Mr. Horton will give his bachelor dinner on Monday night, October 15. On the same evening Miss Louise Sherman of 213 Linden avenue will give a spinster dinner in her home, after which Miss Vesper Getman of Evanston will entertain the party at the theatre. Mr. Fenton will give the bridal dinner in the Fenton home on Tuesday, October 16, the night before the wedding.

According to Miss Fenton's plans, no cards will be issued for the reception after the wedding as a few of the most intimate friends and the two families will be the only guests at the reception which will be held in the Fenton home. Mr. Horton and his bride plan to leave soon after the wedding for Kansas City, where they will live for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wray of 625 Washington avenue, Glencoe announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel Lois, to Stanley D. Grace, son of Mrs. John H. Grace of Oak Park.

Debutante parties and their attendant festivities have ended for the early fall, though the date for another debut has just been decided upon. Miss Charlotte Picher, daughter of Mrs. Oliver Picher, 226 Sheridan road, Glencoe will make her debut on December 1, at a tea to be given at her home.

Miss Elizabeth Frey's debut party last Saturday afternoon in the gardens at 80 Locust road, Winnetka, was an especially lovely one. Miss Frey was simply and charmingly gowned in white tulle with silver and had six of her friends assisting her at the tea.

Monday, September 17, when Miss Emily Pope of Glencoe entertained all the younger crowd of girls in honor of Miss Jean MacLeish and Miss Elizabeth Knode at a luncheon and bridge at Skokie Country club, concluded the parties for the early part of the season.

On Wednesday Miss Knode, Miss MacLeish and Miss Picher started east together the first two to enter their sophomore year at Wellesley college, and Miss Picher to visit friends in Philadelphia. On Thursday Miss Frey and Miss Cynthia and Miss Suzanne Kohlsaat will leave for Vassar, and Friday Miss Louise and Miss Antoinette Lackner depart for the same school. Miss Janet Kirk, daughter of the Willing Kirks of Glencoe, will leave next week for New York with her mother where she will sail on September 29, to spend a year at Miss Wooster's school in Rome.

Miss Gertrude Mary Bleser became the bride of Clarence M. Braun at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning at St. Joseph's church, Wilmette. Mrs. Braun is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Bleser of Glenview road and Mr. Braun is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Braun of Evanston. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Father Newman, was followed by a wedding breakfast at the Georgian hotel, Evanston, and a reception at the home of the bride.

The bride's gown was of white transparent velvet with a straight blouse, tight girde, and uneven hemline. Her veil was of tulle held by a cap of lace. The shower bouquet was of white dahlias, valley lilies, and sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, Miss Clarissa Engles and Miss Beatrice Braun, sister of the groom, and the maid of honor, Miss Theresa Bleser, sister of the bride, wore dresses in autumn colors with hats and shoes to match and carried bouquets of gladioli and tea roses. The bride's mother wore gray georgette and the bridegroom's mother wore green georgette.

Raymond F. Braun acted as best man and the ushers were Joseph Bleser and Wilbur Ludwig. Mr. and Mrs. Braun are motoring through the East on their honeymoon and will be at home after October 1, at the Lincoln Crest apartments.

Mr. Braun is assistant manager of the Braun Brothers Oil company of Winnetka.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley Black of 171 Franklin road, Glencoe announce the engagement of their daughter, Marian Adelaide, to Walter Ernest Weige, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frederick Weige of 720 Ingleside place, Evanston. The wedding is to take place Saturday evening, October 20. Mrs. Ernest Weige and Miss Black entertained at luncheon Thursday at the former's home in honor of Miss Virginia Thomas, who is to be an October bride.

Miss Anne Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly of 1071 Ash street, Winnetka, has chosen October 17, as the day of her wedding to Edgar Greenwald, Jr., of Highland Park. The ceremony will be read at 9 in the morning at Sacred Heart church in Hubbard Woods and will be followed by a reception to be held at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Ruth Stoker and Dr. Frederick W. Schacht of Racine, Wis., were married at 8:30 o'clock, Thursday night, September 14 in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dee A. Stoker of 228 Myrtle street, Winnetka. The Stokers were for many years residents of Wilmette.

The bride's gown was of ivory satin and net, fashioned with a basque and gracefully uneven hemline. The cap of the long tulle veil was of honiton lace and orange blossoms. Miss Katherine Smits of Baltimore, Md., who was the maid of honor, was gowned in green chiffon and two of the small flower girls wore blue, and the other pale pink crepe de chine. The bride's nephew, who served as ringbearer, was in white. Dr. Edward Schacht of Detroit was the best man and the ushers included Leroy Stoker and Milton Schacht of Racine.

The Schachts have left for a motor trip and will make their future home at Rochester, Minn., where Dr. Schacht is on the staff at Mayor Brothers' hospital.

Miss Harriot Peabody Houghteling, sister of James L. Houghteling of 713 Prospect avenue, Glencoe, became the bride last Thursday of Dr. Charles S. Curtis of St. Anthony, Newfoundland at a simple ceremony performed in the presence of the immediate family and a few friends. Among those from the north shore who went east to attend the wedding, which took place at the charming home of the bride at Fitzwilliam, N. H., were Mr. and Mrs. James L. Houghteling. Mrs. Houghteling left some time ago and stopped for a visit with her parents at Newburgh, N. Y., leaving for New Hampshire last Sunday. Mrs. Hermon Butler of Winnetka and Miss Dorothy Stirling of Glencoe also went east last Sunday to spend a few days with Miss Houghteling before the wedding on Thursday.

A number of affairs are being given for Miss Marcia Converse, daughter of the Arian W. Converse of 386 Hawthorn lane, Winnetka who is to marry Donald Olin Cady of Evanston next Tuesday. Tuesday, September 18, Miss Ruth Faunt of Chicago entertained at an afternoon bridge and handkerchief shower at her home and the following day Miss Ruth Virgil, also of the city, was hostess at the Lake Shore Athletic club at a bridge luncheon. Last Saturday Miss Edna Martin of Rogers Park gave a luncheon, bridge, and green kitchen shower at her home and today Miss Vera Leahy of Evanston will be hostess at a luncheon and bridge for the bride-elect and her party. Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Converse are entertaining the bridal party and a few intimate friends of the family at the bridal dinner at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Loring Rice are entertaining at dinner Saturday evening, September 22, at their home in Evanston, in honor of Miss Dorothy Pickard of Evanston whose marriage to Sherwood Kellogg Platt of Evanston takes place October 1. Mr. and Mrs. Rice are members of the wedding party.

Christ church, Winnetka was the scene of the marriage* on Thursday evening, September 20, of Miss Ethelwynne Hope Penwith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Penwith of Chicago, to Elisha Paxton Whitehead, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kynoch of Lake Bluff. The reception following the ceremony was held at the North Shore hotel.

The wedding party was made up of Miss Blanche Brown of Bloomington, Ill., the maid of honor; Mrs. Frederick Hagen of Evanston, Miss Shirley McKay of Highland Park, the bridesmaids; Laird Heggland of Lake Bluff, who served as best man, and John Morell Penwith, Robert Grusen-day, of Chicago, John Cuyler Baker, Jr., of Lake Bluff, and Robert Bartlett of LaGrange, the ushers. The Whiteheads, both of whom attended the University of Illinois, will make their home at 1413 1/2 Sherwin avenue, Rogers Park.
